All Praise is due to Allaah. We praise Him, and seek His help and forgiveness. We seek refuge in Allaah, Most High, from the evils of our own selves and from our wicked deeds. Whomever Allaah guides cannot be misguided, and whomever He leads astray cannot be guided. I testify that there is no true God worthy of being worshipped except Allaah, alone, without partner or associate. I further testify that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger (Sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam). May Allaah's salaah and salaam also be granted to the Prophet's pure family and to all of his noble companions.

(Sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam): The salaah and salaam of Allaah be upon His Prophet Muhammad. The salaah of Allaah upon Prophet Muhammad is His Praise of the Prophet before the angels who are close to (but below) Allaah, the Most High, who istawaa (ascended) upon His 'arsh (Throne), which is above the seven heavens, in a manner that suits His Majesty. The angels also praise the Prophet (41). The salaam is Allaah's safeguarding of the Prophet (Sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) from deficiencies and any kind of evil, and the protection of the Message with which he was entrusted. When the Muslim says (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), he invokes Allaah to grant His Praise and Security to Prophet Muhammad and the protection of the Message of Islaam which was revealed to him (Sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam). [See Ibnul Qayyim’s Ajhaam fee Fadlis-Salaati-wa-Salaam ‘alaa Muharnmadin Khairil Anaam, [Damascus, Syria: Daar ibn Katheer, and Al-Madeenah, Saudi Arabia: Daar at-Turaath, 1408/1988], p. 128.
O you who believe! Fear Allaah [by doing all that He ordered and abstaining from all that He forbade] as He should be feared [obey Him, be thankful to Him, and remember Him always] and die not except in a State Of Islaam. (Qur’aan Soorat Al-Imraan (3:102)).

O mankind! Be dutiful to your Rabb2 [Allaah], Who created you from a single person [Adam] and from him [Adam] He created his wife [Eve], and from them both He created many men and women. And fear Allaah through Whom you demand your mutual [rights] and [do not cut the relations of] the wombs [kinship]. Surely, Allaah is ever an All-Watcher over you. [Qur’aan Soorat An-Nisaa(4:)].

O you who believe! Keep your duty to Allaah and fear Him, and speak [always] the truth. He will direct you to do righteous good deeds and will forgive you your sins. And whosoever obeys Allaah and His Messenger has indeed achieved a great success. [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Ahzaab (33:70-71)].

Rabb: Allaah is Ar-Rabb. He is the One Who gave all things the power to grow, to move and to change, to Whom belongs the Creation and Commandment; the Master Who has no equal in His Sovereignty, Predominance, and Highness, The One Who Provides for and Sustains all that exists.
To proceed:

The most truthful speech is that of Allaah's Book [the Qur'aan] and that the best of guidance is that of Muhammad (ﷺ). The worst of evils are the muhdathaat (newly-invented matters [in the deen]), and every innovated matter [in the deen] is a bid'ah; every bid'ah is adalaalah (misguidance), and every dalaalah is in the Fire of Hell.

Deen: The practical and doctrinal aspects of deen are more comprehensive than the Western concept of religion. The deen of Islaam is the way of life prescribed by Allaah.
Preface

Introducing Imaam Ibnul (or Ibn) Qayyim Al-Jawziyyah:

He is Muhammad Bin Abee Bakr Bin Sa'd Bin Hareez Az-Zur'ee, Ad-Dimishqee, Abu 'Abduillaah, known as Ibn Qayyim Al-Jawziyyah, which means the son of the person (his father was a scholar himself and a devout worshipper) who was in charge of the Jawziyyah learning center in Damascus,

He was born on the 7th day of Safar 691HJ/1292CE., possibly in Damascus. At the age of seven, he began to attend the learning circles of twenty five renowned scholars of his times. He excelled in many disciplines including Tafseer, Hadeeth, fiqh, Usool-ud-deen (Fundamentals of the Deen) and Arabic language.

Ibn Katheer, as well as other scholars, wrote many good things about his worship and Thikr. Even the people of Makkah witnessed his strong devotion in worship when he performed Hajj.

He met Shayekh-ul-Islaam Ahmad Ibn Taymeeyah in 712/1312 and stayed in his company until the death of Ibn Taymeeyah in 728/1328. He was greatly influenced by Shayekh-ul-Islaam but he never copied him, for he was not a blind imitator. While studying with Ibn Taymeeyah, he discovered that he himself had some wrong understandings adopted by those who do not affirm the meanings of Allaah's Names and Attributes as they came in the Qur'aan and (or) authentic Sunnah. He explained his repentance in a great poem known as An-Nooniyyah in which he exposed and refuted the innovated misconceptions about Allaah and His Names and Attributes which were the product of the scholastic theologians and those who were affected by them. He stood up in support of the principles and beliefs of the Salaf, which Shayekh-ul-Islaam spent most of his life defending. He continued his efforts against corrupt beliefs and innovations after the death of Ibn Taymeeyah. He died on the 13th of Rajab, 751/1350.

He had many students including Ibn Katheer (d.774/1373), Ibn Rajab Al-Hanbalee (d.795/1393), Ath-Thahabee (d.748/1347), Ibn 'Abdul Haadee (d.744/1343), Taqiy-ed-Deen As-Subkee (d.756/1355), and others.

Ibnul Qayyim wrote many works in many Islaamic disciplines which were and still are a major source of enlightenment for da'wah workers according to the path of As-Salaf As-Saalih (the righteous predecessors). Many of his works were burned by the enemies of the path of the Salaf together with many of Ibn Taymeeyah's. All praise is due to Allaah, what remained from their works is a reference for many Muslim scholars and seekers of knowledge. The works of Imaam Ibnul Qayyim are distinguished by:

1. Reliance on evidences taken from the Qur'aan and Sunnah explaining them with simplicity aimed at directing the people to take from the Qur'aan and Sunnah and warning them from scholastic theological approaches.

2. In any case that he did not find evidence from the Qur'aan and (or) Sunnah, he gave precedence of the sayings of the Sahaabah over any other saying. He supported this position by eighty one points in his great book on the fundamentals of Islamic Law, "I'laam Al-Muwaqi'een."

3. Comprehensibility and extensiveness, excellent research and a thorough coverage of the material related to the subject of interest.

4. His ability to choose and preponderate. Although he was a Hanbalee scholar, he was a follower of the Daleel (evidence) even if it was different from the position of his Math-hab. He warned against blind following of the Mathaahib (Sing. Math-hab) if the evidence preponderate a different position from a particular Math-hab.7

5. A clear understanding of the objectives of the Sharee'ah. In fact, his writing excelled over many other works because of this quality.

6. A lively and a beautifully-stimulating style in addressing the problems of the Muslim society.

7. Attractiveness. A style that pleases the heart and mind.

8. Good organization and context.

9. Humbleness, and humility were all apparent in his works.

Ibnul Qayyim died on Wednesday evening, the 13th of Rajab, 751/1350, at the time when the call for Isha prayer was being announced. Salaat Al-Janaazah was performed on him the next day after Salaat Ath-Thuhr at the Umayyad Mosque in Damascus. Many people attended his funeral and burial. He was buried next to his mother's grave, may Allaah's Mercy be bestowed upon them both.8

For a detailed biography, see Ibn Qayyim Al-Jawziyyah: Hayaatuhu (his life), Aathaaruhu (his works), and Mawaariduhu (his resources) [Riyaadh; K.SA, Daar Al-‘Aasimah, Riyadh 1412/1991].
Imaam Ibnul Qayyim said:

"All praise is due to Allaah Who made Al-Mahabbah (love) a way to attain the Mahboob (the beloved) and Who set obedience and submission to Him as evidence of true love of Him. By Al-Mahabbah He stimulated the souls so that they may prefer to seek and achieve all kinds of perfection. Exalted and far above any imperfection is He, Who by virtue of His Ability turns the hearts to Al-Mahabbah as He wills, to whom He wills, in detailed and specific measures...High is He above any imperfection, Who Favors the people in Al-Mahabbah of Him and those who love His Book and His Messenger (Muhammad) above all others, loving them perfectly and completely.

I testify that La Ilaaha Illallaah worshipped except Allaah, without a partner or associate, attesting to His Ruboobiyyah⁹ testifying to His Wahdaaniyyah (Oneness), submitting to Him because of my love of Him, conceding to Him in obedience, acknowledging His Bounty, fleeing to Him from my sins and faults, hoping for His Pardon and Mercy, greatly desiring His Forgiveness; clearing myself to Him of having neither a change from one condition to another nor power except by His will; seeking none other than Him as a Rabb nor taking other than Him as a Protector and a Trustee; taking refuge in Him, resorting to Him for shelter, desiring no change or deviation whatsoever in my 'Uboodiyyah¹⁰ to Him.

¹⁰ Uboodiyyah is a comprehensive term that asserts the meaning of the Aayah:
To thee Alone do we worship and You Alone do we seek for Help. [Qur'an, Surat H-faiihah, 1:5].

It comprises the slavery of the heart, tongue, and limbs to Allah. The slavery of the heart includes both the Qawl (saying of the heart) and 'Amaal (actions of the Heart). The Qawl of the heart is the belief (I'tiqaad) in what Allah has informed about His Self, His Names and Attributes, His Actions, His Angels, and all that which--He revealed in His Book and sent upon the tongue of His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ.

The 'Amaal of the heart include love for Allah, reliance upon Him, turning to Him in repentance, fearing Him, having hope in Him, devoting the Deen sincerely to Him, having patience in what He orders and forbids, having patience with His decrees and being pleased with them, having allegiance for His pleasure, having tawhid for Him and humbling oneself in front of Him, and becoming tranquil with Him.

The Qawl (saying) of the tongue is to convey what Allah has revealed (in the Qur'an and in the authentic Sunnah regarding Himself, His Names and Attributes, His Actions, His Commands, His Prohibitions, and all that is related to this Deen), to call to it, defend it, to expose the false innovations which oppose it, and to establish its remembrance and to convey what it orders.

The 'Amaal (actions) of the limbs include the Salaat (prayers), Jihaad, attending the Jumu'ah prayers and the rest of the Jamaa'aat (congregational prayers), insisting those who are unable, and acting with goodness and kindness to the action, and other such acts. Comprehensive meaning of the 'Uboodiyyah pertains to its specific type. The people who fall under this type of 'Uboodiyyah are the believers who obey, love, and sincerely follow the Deen of Allah ﷺ. The 'Uboodiyyah of the Messengers (alayhimus-salaam): May Allah protects them from all kinds of evil) is the very special slavery to Allah, Most High. None can compete with the Messengers' degree of 'Uboodiyyah to Allah.

The second type of 'Uboodiyyah is the general one in which all creatures in the heavens and in the earth are subdued to Allah's sovereign Authority and Power; everything is subservient to His Will, and Authority; nothing occurs or ceases to occur except by His leave; His is the Kingdom and He disposes the affairs as He pleases. This type of 'Uboodiyyah is known as the 'Uboodiyyah of Qahr (Subduing) and Mulk (Sovereignty, Kingship, Possession, Mastership, etc.)
I bear witness that Muhammad is Allaah's 'Abd (slave worshipper) and His Messenger, the best of His creation, the trustworthy on His Revelation, His appointed emissary to His 'ibad (mankind and jinn), the nearest of creation in access to Allaah, the Most High, amongst them in rank before Him, the one whose intercession before Allaah is most approved, the most beloved of His creation, and the most honorable to Him. He send him as a caller to Eemaan (faith), and one who invites to Al-Jannah, a guide to Allaah's Straight Path, pursuing His Pleasure and all that is beloved to Him, enjoining every good and forbidding every evil. Allaah raised high his fame, opened his breast, removed from him his burden, and brought disgrace and humiliation upon those who opposed his commands. He made an oath by his (Muhammad's) life in His Clear Book (the Qur'aan), and added his name to His so that when Allaah is mentioned, he is mentioned with Him as, for example, in

So, the part of the Aayah signifying "You do we worship" asserts the adherence to the four principles of the 'Uboodiyyah: 1) The sayings of the heart, 2) the actions of the heart, 3) the sayings of the tongue, and 4) the actions of the limbs. The other part, "You Alone do we seek for Help," stresses the fact that the believer must ask Allaah alone to help him establish the 'Uboodiyyah and succeed in executing all what it requires. [See Ibnul Qayyim's Madaarijus-Saalikeen (Beirut, Lebanon: Daarul-Fikr, checked by Muhammad Haamid Al-Fiqi, n.d.), V. 1, pp. 100-101;105 (with a slight adaptation)].

See Soorat Ash-Sharh (94).

The Khutab,\textsuperscript{13} Tashahhud (in prayers), and At-Ta’heen (calling Athaan)...

Allaah sent him (Muhammad ﷺ) at the time when there was a break in the series of Messengers, guiding therewith to the most right of paths and clearest of ways. (Allaah) made obligatory upon the ’Ibaad to love and obey him ﷺ and to respect him and fulfill his due rights. He [Allaah] closed all the paths that lead to Al-Jannah and did not open them to anyone except through his (ﷺ) path. There is no hope [for anyone] to gain the abundance in reward nor safety from severe torment except for those who follow him on his path. No worshipper will have true faith till he loves him (Muhammad ﷺ more than himself, his children, his father and all mankind.\textsuperscript{14} So, may the Salaat AND abundant Salaam of Allaah and that of His angels, prophets, messengers, and all of the believers in Allaah be upon him...[and may n also be] upon his good family and pure companions.

It proceeds then that Allaah, entitled to all majestic praise and sanctified are His Names (above any imperfection), Who made the hearts Aw’iyah (ورعى)\textsuperscript{15} the best are those that hold what is good and right,\textsuperscript{16} and the most evil are those that retain wrong and corruption.

\textsuperscript{13}Khutab (Sing. Khulbah): Religious speech conducted on Jumu’ah, ‘Eed, etc. The origin of this statement is in the hadeeth of Anas Bin Maalik 4& which is reported in Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim. See Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. I, Hadeeth 13&14. Aw’iyah (Sing, wi’aa”), literally: "Containers that hold something." The verb wa’iyah means to know, understand, become aware and retain. [See Ibn Manthoor’s Tahlheeb Lisaan Al-‘Arab (Beirut, Lebanon: Edited under the supervision of A. Muhna, DaaruI-Kutub Al-Ilmiyyah, 1413/1993)]. Tawheed, piety, and good deeds.
He gave Al-Hawaa power over the hearts and put them to the test of opposing it (i.e. Al-Hawaa) in order that through such opposition the hearts may attain the abode of Al-Jannah.

The hearts which are not suitable for Al-Jannah, due to their following of Al-Hawaa, deserve a Fire, blazing fiercely (Hell). He made Al-Hawaa the composite of An-nafs Al-Ammaarah bis-soo, its strength and nourishment. It is the Daa’ (disease) of An-nafs Al~ Mutma’innah and its cure lies in opposing it. Then Allaah made it obligatory upon his ‘Abd within this short period [of life]-which is no more than an hour in a single day if compared to that of the Hereafter, or it is like the wetness stuck to the finger when dipped in one of the oceans to disobey An-nafs Al-Ammaarah, oppose its 17 Polytheism, crime and sinful deeds.

18 An-nafs Al-Ammaarah bis-soo - The self that is inclined to evil mentioned in the saying of Allaah

Verily, the [human] self is inclined to evil, except upon whom my Rabb bestows His Mercy [on whom He wishes]. [Qur’aan, Soorat Yoosuf, 12:53]. The self with complete rest and satisfaction described in the saying of Allaah

[It will be said to the pious]: “O [you] the one in [complete] rest and satisfaction: Come back to your Rabb, well-pleased [yourself] and well-pleasing unto Him! Enter you, then, among My honored slaves, and enter My Jannah” [Qur’aan, Soorat Al-Fajr, 89:27-30].

20 Referring to the Prophet’s saying:

"By Allaah, this world [is so insignificant in comparison] to the Hereafter that if one of you should dip his finger in the ocean and then he should see as to what has stuck to it." [Saheeh Muslim, V. 4, Hadeeth #6843 and At-Tirmithee.]
Hawaa, prevent it from its lusts which would cause its own destruction it takes hold of it and keeps it from becoming dependent upon its pleasure, so that it may gain its full and ample share from His reward and honor...and enjoy later [in the Hereafter] many times as much as it IMS abandoned for Allaah's sake now [in the life of this world]. Order t to fast [abstain] from His prohibitions so that its fast breaking occurs before Him on the Day it will meet Him. Tell it that most of the day of fasting has gone and that the Eed whereon the meeting will occur is getting closer lest long ages pass by delaying it...

Get it (An-nafs Al-Ammaarah) ready for a great affair and a momentous situation; save for it such things as no eye had ever seen, aa ear has ever heard of, and nobody has ever even imagined from everlasting delights.21 His [Allaah's] most perfect Wisdom necessitated that it would not attain the delights of the Hereafter except by the way of discomfort, fatigue, and all kinds of disliked and undesirable things. It would not cross to [these delights] except over the bridge of hardship and toil. Allaah surrounded [His delights] by all kinds of disliked things22 sheltering it from the despicable low souls which prefer vice and low acts. The lofty and high-aspiring souls set to work briskly, mounting the "backs" of determination reaching the most noble objective.23 They responded to the caller of Al-Habeeb Allaah, the Beloved) when He pronounced to them (in the Athaان):

21 Referring to the bliss in Al-Jannah.

22 The Prophet (ﷺ) said in the hadeeth that was narrated by Abu Hurairah

"The (Hell) Fire is surrounded by all kinds of desires and passions, while Al-Jannah is surrounded by all kinds of disliked undesirable things." [Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. 8, Hadeeth #494.] The most noble delight is to see Allaah in the Hereafter.
hasten to achieve success [in this life] and an endless delight and happiness in the Hereafter. They gave themselves willingly and generously to earn His Pleasure; they continued their journey to Him in the morning and the evening, and upon their arrival they commended the way and the timing of their journey, [it is said in a proverb]:

"إِنِّمَا يُحِبُّ الْقُومُ السَّرَیٰ عِنْدِ الصَّحابَ.

At daybreak, the party praise night-journeying.

They became somewhat tired after which they found a long rest; they abandoned the low and they received a great substitute; they put the fleeting joy [of this life] and the praiseworthy end in the balance of reasoning and the difference became apparent to them. They found that it is of paramount lightwittedness of the mind to sell the endless good-" life in the everlasting abode of delight for the pleasure of an hour whose lust will end and its wretchedness remains. Yes! It is quite certain that if one day of the days of pleasure preoccupies the 'Abd from the beginning to the end of his life, it would be like a summer cloud that clears off bringing forth little [rain] and like an imaginary form or thing that visits one in sleep, by the time it arrives it is about to leave! Allaah said:

Tell Me, if We let them enjoy for years, and afterwards comes to them that [punishment] which they had been promised! All that which they used to enjoy shall not avail them! [Qur'aan, Soorat Ash-Shu'araa', 26:205-207],
The one who attains what he had hoped for of Allaah's reward, it is as if nothing of evil, arousing from the things which he feared or was wary of, has ever touched him during his entire life. In this regard, Umar Bin Al-Khattaab used to quote the following poem:

كانك لم توتر من الدهر مرة، إذا كنت أدركت الذي أنت طالبه

It is as if you were not touched even once by evil, once you had attained that which you were seeking.

24 The end of Ibnul Qayyim's introduction which is taken from his book Rawdatul-Muhibeen wa Nuzhatul-Mushtaaqeen (Lit. "The Beautiful Garden of the Lovers aid the Pleasant Stroll of the Longing") with a slight adaptation. Ibnul Qayyim took this book when he was on a journey away from home and from his library, as he said in his introduction (p. 28).
THE DISPRAISE OF AL-HAWAA

Al-Hawa’ is the inclination of the self to a thing. Its verb is Hawiyah (past tense), Yahwa’ (present tense) and Hawan (infinitive). As to Hawaa and Hawa’ they mean "fell down" and "falling down," respectively, and the infinitive is Al-Huwiiyyu with the movement at the end being a dhammah, a vowel point for u.

Al-Hawa’ also refers to the beloved. A poet said:

إن التي زعمت فوادك ملها خلقته هواك كما خلقت هوى لها
The one who took your heart, who is for her?

She was created to be your beloved as you were created to be hers.26

It is said that: "Such and such [a man] is the Hawaa [the beloved] to such and such [a woman], and that she is his Hawaa [beloved]."

25 Chapter Twenty Nine of Rawdatul-Muhheen wa Nuzhatul-Mushtaaqeen.

26 The poet exaggerates the state of love between them.
Most often Al-Hawaa is used to describe the blameable inclination of the self [in its love and desires], as Allaah ﷻ said:

وَأَمَامًا حَافٍ مَّقَامٍ لِّي نَفْسِي الْخَبَرُ عَنِ اللَّهِ دَائِمًا أَنَّ الْخَبَرَةَ هِيَ الْخَيْرُ ﷺ

But as for him who feared standing before his Rabb, and restrained himself from impure evil desires, and lusts. Verily, Al-Jannah will be his abode. [Qur’aan, Soorat An-Naazi’al, 79:40-41].

It has been called Hawaa because it throws down its follower. Its use may also be restricted to describe the praiseworthy desire and love, part of which is the saying the Prophet ﷺ:

لا يؤمن أحدكم حتى يكون هواه نبا لما حث به

“None of you is a true believer until his Hawaa is in accordance with What I have brought forth.”

It is recorded in the Saheehain from the narration of 'Urwah Bin Az-'Zubair who said:

Shaykh Muhammad Naasir-ud-Deen Al-Albaanee, may Allaah protect him, said: The Isnaad (chain of narration) of this hadeeth is weak because of the status of weakness of Nu'aim Bin Hammaad (a narrator). See Shaykh Al-Albaanee's comments on Al-Tabreezee's Mishkaatul Masaabeeh [Beirut, Lebanon: Al-Maktab Al-Islaamee, 1405/1985], V. 1, p. 59. Al-Haafith Ibn Rajab observed another cause of weakness of this hadeeth in his commentary on An-Nawawee's authentication of the same hadeeth. [See Ibn Rajab's Jaami' Al-Uloom wal Hikam (Beirut, Lebanon; Muassasatur-Risaalah, checked by Shu'ayeb Al-Ama'out and Ibraaheem Baajis, 1412/1991), V. 2, p. 394.

"Khawla Bint Hakeem was one of those ladies who presented themselves to the Prophet for marriage. 'Aa'ishah said: 'Doesn't a lady feel ashamed for presenting herself to a man? But when the Aayah:

[O Muhammad] You may postpone [the turn of] any of them [your wives] that you please." [Qur’aan, Soorat Ai-Ahzaab, 33:51] was revealed, 'Aa’ishah said. 'O Allaah's Messenger! don't see but that your Rabb hastens in your Hawaa.

And in the story of the captives of the battle of Badr, 'Umar ibn Al-Khattaab . said:

"فههوي رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ما قال أبو بكر ولم يهو ما قلت"—وذكر الحديث.

28 Saheehain: Referring to the two books of Hadeeth, Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree and Saheeh Muslim. The word Saheeh means authentic.

29 That is making available to you what you want without delay and bringing down what you like and love. [See Fathul Baaree by Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar Al-'Asqalaanee (Cairo, Egypt: Daar Ar-Rayyaan, Cairo, 1407/1987)], V. 8, p. 386. The hadeeth is collected by Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim. [See Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. 7, Hadeeth #48.]
The Prophet ﷺ Hawiyah (liked) what Abu Bakr said \(^{30}\) (i.e. He was inclined to the position of Abu Bakr regarding the fate of the captives) and didn't like what I said.\(^*\) Then he concluded the hadith. In the Sunan \(^{31}\) a bedouin asked the Prophet ﷺ "I came to you asking about *Al-Hawaa." He ﷺ replied:

"Everybody will be with those whom he loves." \(^{32}\)

\(^{30}\) The Prophet ﷺ consulted with Abu Bakr and 'Umar Bin Al-Khattaab, Radyallaahu 'Anhuma (may Allaah be pleased with both of them), regarding the fate of the captives from the Mushrikeen (Polytheists) following the battle of Badr (90 miles south of Madeenah) which took place on the 17th of Ramadaan, the 2nd year of Hijrah (623 C.E.). The position of Abu Bakr ﷺ (Radiyallaahu 'Anhu) was to release of the captives after getting a ransom from them to be used to strengthen the Muslims 'Umar's position was to kill them. Allaah's Messenger ﷺ approved the opinion of Abu Bakr ﷺ Then Allaah revealed to the Prophet ﷺ that he should not have taken prisoners until the force of the disbelievers has been crushed. 'See Saheeh Muslim, V. 3, Hadeeth #4360."

\(^{31}\) Sunnan (Sing. Sunnah) refers to the collections of Ahaadeeth (Sing. Hadeeth) by renown Hadeeth scholars. Most Famous of the Sunan are: Sunan At-Tirmithee, Sunnan Abu Daawood, Sunan An-Nasaa 'ee, and Sunan Ibn Maajah. Together with Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree and Saheeh Muslim the collection is known as Al-Kutub As-Sittah (The Six Books of Hadeeth). Some consider Imaam Maalik's Al-Muwatta as one of the Six Books instead of that of Ibn Maajah. The story of the bedouin is reported in Sunan At-Tirmithee and At-Tirmithee said it is Hasan Saheeh (good-authentic). Al-Albaanee said it is authentic as in Saheeh Al-Jaami' #6689.

\(^{32}\) That is in Al-Jannah. The Prophet's ﷺ saying, "Everybody will be with those whom HE loves" is also confirmed by Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim. [See Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. 8, Hadeeth #189.]

Therefore, Al-Hawaa is the inclination of the natural disposition towards what suits it. Such an inclination is created in man to secure his existence. If it had not been for his inclination to food, drinks, and marriage, he would have not eaten, drank, or married. Thus, Al-Hawaa instigates him towards what he wants just as Al-Ghadhab (anger) averts from him what may hurt him. Generally, therefore, Al'Hawaa should not be dispraised nor is it to be absolutely praised just as anger is not to be generally blamed nor is it to be absolutely commended. What is blameworthy is the exaggeration in both kinds (Al-Hawaa & Al-Ghadhab), and what exceeds the limits in attaining the beneficial and in warding off the harmful.

Since, for the most part, the one who obeys his Hawaa, lust, and anger does not abide by the limit of good exploitation, an unrestricted dispraise of Hawaa, lust, and anger is [normally] stated due to the generally predominant harm [arousing from exceeding the limits in these matters]. In fact, it is rare to find someone who seeks to achieve a just position regarding these matters and sticks to it, just as it is rare, in every respect, to find in [people's] attitudes the balanced attitude. Inevitably, there must be a predominant influence upon [a person's] attitude by one of his company and in a certain manner. So, for a sincere adviser to be keen about "adjusting", in every respect, the powers of desire and anger are rather unfeasible except in the case of some individuals of this world. That is why Allaah did not mention Al-Hawaa in His Book [Al-Qur'aan] except that he dispraised it. Similarly it was not referred to in the Sunnah except in the cases where it was restricted [to the intended objectives] as in the case of the Prophet's saying:

"لا يؤمن أحدكم حتى يكون هواه تبعا لما جئت به."
None of you is a true believer until his Hawaa is in accordance with what I have brought forth." 23

It is said that Al-Hawaa is a hidden trap that one must not feel secure from Ash-Sha'bee 34 said: "It is called Hawaa because it throws down its' adherent." In its general and unrestricted meaning, it demands ready pleasure without thinking about the outcome. It incites the immediate obtainment of lusts even though it is, sooner or later, the cause of greater sufferings. This life has an outcome before that of the Hereafter, and Al-Hawaa blinds its follower from giving notice to this Man's Muroo 'ah, 35 religion, and rationalism all forbid the pleasure whose outcome will be painful and prohibit lust whose legacy is sorrow and regret, each telling the self when it desires [pleasure and lust], "Don't do it!" The self would obey the winner. 36 Don't you see because of the weakness of the rationalistic restraint in a child, he prefers what he desires even though it may lead to his own destruction. On the other hand, the one who does not abide by the Deen prefers and 33 Its Isnaad is weak as discussed in Ftn.27.

34 Ash-Sha'bee, 'Aamir Bin Sharaaheel, Abu 'Amr Al-Hamadaanee (21 (or 28)-105/642(650)-724), the Imaam, trustworthy, and renowned Faqeeh (jurist). He met ft* Ibn Abee Taalib 4& and prayed behind him. He reported Ahaadeeth from Sa'd Ali Abee Waqaas, Abu Hurairah, Abee Sa'eed, 'Aa'ishah, Ibn 'Umar and others from the Sahaabah رضى الله عنهم.
35 Muroo'ah: Moral goodness, comprising all virtues, especially manliness, valor, generosity, sense of honor, etc.

The winner in the struggle between the call for prohibition by Muroo'ah, religion, or rationalism and the self's inclination likes what he desires even if it would lead to his destruction in the Hereafter because of the weakness in compliance to the Deen's prohibitive code. The one who does not respect his Muroo'ah prefers what he likes even if he injures [or shatters] or even loses his Muroo'ah because of the weakness in adhering to its prohibitive code. What place does this hold in comparison with the saying of Ash-Shaafi'ee37: "If I knew that cold water would injure my Muroo'ah, I would not drink it."

Since man has been distinguished from other forms of creation by being subjected to the trials of Al-Hawa, and because at all times he encounters all kinds of events and occurrences, two references of judgment have been established in order to deal with him: The Deen and reasoning. He is always commanded to refer all of Al-Hawa related incidents to these judges [Deen and reasoning] and to submit to their ruling. He should train himself to ward off Al-Hawa whose consequences are safe in order to train himself to abandon Al-Hawa, which have harmful consequences.

Let the reasonable person know that lust addicts reach a state in which they do not find pleasure therein. Yet, they are unable to give it up, because it becomes to them like an indispensable form of living.

37 Imaam Ash-Shaafi'ee: (150/767-204/820): Muhammad Ibn Idrees Ash-Shaafi'ee, was born in Ghazza, Palestine, and traveled to Al-Madeenah in his youth to study under Imaam Maalik. He also studied in 'Iraq under Imaam Muhammad Ibn al-Hassan, the famous student of Imaam Abu Haneefah. Imaam Ash-Shaafi'ee holds the distinction of being the first Imaam to systematize the principles of Islamic Law or Fiqh (Jurisprudence).
That is why you see the alcoholic and Al-Jimaa addictions does not reach one-tenth of the enjoyment achieved by those who sometimes infrequently drink or engage in Al-Jimaa. However, it is the habit which requires that of him. Consequently, he drives himself into destructive paths to attain what is demanded by the habit. Had he been relieved from the Rayn of Al-Hawaa, he would have known that he was miserable wherefore he anticipated happiness, depressed wherefore he thought he was glad, and in pain wherefrom he sought pleasure. He is like a bird that was deceived by a grain of wheat, neither he was able to get it, nor he was able to free himself from the trap he got caught in. So, if it is asked: "How could a person who fell in Al-Hawaa free himself from it?" The response is: "By the help and success granted by Allaah, he will be able to liberate himself from Al-Hawaa by holding to the following matters:

1. A determined free will: having a vigilant care and sense of honor for himself, jealously protecting it.

38 Al-Jimmaa: Legal sexual intercourse between a man and his wife.

39 Islaam prohibits all forms of intoxication. The evil associated with alcoholic drinks is much greater than the little enjoyment that may be felt by few drinks. In fact the few drinks demand more of it until the person feels high. Then the demand grows to reach a state higher than with his first one. Addiction slowly creeps to destroy the drinker's life and in many cases his family. Allaah; said:

[Qur'aan, Soorah Al-Baqarah, 2:219].

40 Rayn: Much dirtiness from rust, or simply, dirt, filth, etc.

They ask you [O Muhammad] concerning alcoholic drink and gambling. Say: "In them is a great sin, and [some] benefit for men, but the sin of them is greater than their benefit." [Qur'aan, Soorah Al-Baqarah, 2:219].
2. A dose of patience making himself endure the bitter taste of the moment (i.e. the time his Hawaa is active).

3. Strength and self-determination that encourages him to drink that dose [of patience]. His courage is a moment of forbearance, and the best of living attained by an 'Abd is through his perseverance.

4. Being aware of the splendid impression of the outcome and the cure achieved by that dose [of perseverance].

5. Being aware of the pain that exceeds the pleasure arising from following his Hawaa.

6. Keeping his good standing before Allaah and in the hearts of Allaah's 'Ibaad. Certainly this is better and more beneficial to this than taking pleasure in following his Hawaa.

7. Preferring the joy of 'Iffah and its honor and sweetness over the pleasure of disobedience and wrong-doing.

8. Having delight in overcoming his enemy and driving him away disgraced in his rage, grief, and worry, being unable to get hold of him as he wishes. In fact, Allaah: loves for His 'Abd to abandon and enrage his enemy as He has said in his noble Book:

   [Sure, 12:31]

   لا أَلْبَسُ لَهُ مَعَاصَرَةً إِلَّا أَكْبَرُ لَهُ مَعَامَةً صَلِيحً

   [La ilaha illallah, muwatta'a yassiru al-mukaffara wa la yahdul bi-nnn. 'Abud Allah bin 'Umar, 12:31]

41 'Iffah: Abstinence from what is unlawful and base, virtuousness and decency.
Nor do they take any step to raise the anger of disbelievers nor inflict any injury upon an enemy but is written to their credit as a deed of righteousness.

[Qur’an, Soorat At-Tawbah. 9:120].

[Qur’an, Soorat Al-Falh, 48:29].

He who emigrates [from his home] in the Cause of Allaah, will find on earth many dwelling places and plenty to live by. [Qur’an, Soorat An-Nisaa’. 4:100].

Which means, "A place where he abandons and assails the enemies of Allaah." The sign of true love is to enrage the enemies of the Beloved and to forsake them.

9. Contemplating the fact that he has not been created to [be a slave of] Al-Hawaa, but that he has been prepared for a great task that will not be achieved unless he disobeys his Hawaa, as it was said:

10. That he should not choose for himself a state such that the unintelligible animal is better than him. Indeed the animal is able by means of his natural instincts to distinguish between beneficial and harmful situations, preferring the beneficial above the harmful. For the same purpose, man has been endowed with the faculty of reason. If he does not differentiate between what hurts or benefits him, or, in the case he realizes this but prefers what is harmful to him, then the status of an unintelligible animal is better than his. The evidence for this lies in the fact that an animal takes a share of enjoyment in the taste of food, drinks, and sexual relations that is not attainable by man, and that it lives a comfortable life free from thought and worry. Hence it is driven to its slaughtering place preoccupied with its lusts due to the lack of knowledge about the consequences.

Man will not procure the same damage done to the animal because of the intensity of the preoccupying thought, and the weakness of the used male organ, and so forth. Had the attainment of what is desired been a virtue, the right of man, who is the pure extract of the world, to it would have not been diminished while making it abundant to the animals. In the augmentation of man's share of reasoning, knowledge, and cognition is a substitute for that (i.e. animalistic lust).

11. Let him lead his heart through the consequences of Al-Hawaa and contemplate:

- How many virtues were missed because of his disobedience? And how much Ratheelah (vices) did it make him commit?
- How many meals became inaccessible because of few meals?
- How often a pleasure caused the loss of many?
- How often did a desire break a rank, lower a head, render a good reputation bad, inherit blame, leave behind it humiliation and dishonor that water cannot wash away.

Yet, the eye of the follower of Hawaa is blind!

43 By reason of abasement
12. The intelligent person should imagine the attainment of his desire, his condition after his wish was fulfilled, what did he miss, and what occurred to him?

13. The intelligent person should really imagine what would the situation of another person be after he fulfills his desire then think of himself as being in the same standing. Indeed, the judgment respect of a thing is the same as respecting the like.

14. He should give a thought as to what his self really demands from him regarding the thing he desires. He should then question his Deen and rationale about it, they will inform him that it is nothing.

‘Abdullaah Ibn Mas'oud said: "If anyone of you admires a woman, let him remember Manatinaha..."
15. He should keep himself far from the humiliation of Al-Hawaa because whenever someone obeys his Hawaa he will sense disgrace within himself. He should not be deceived by the force, assault, and pride of the followers of Al-Hawaa, for they have the most lowly internal character of men; they have mustered both arrogance and humiliation.

16. He should compare the safety of Deen, honor, and property, and rank to the attainment of the desired pleasure. He will not find any suitability whatsoever between them. Thus he should be aware that he is from the most ignorant of men if he would trade this (Deen, honor, property, rank, etc..) for that (i.e. Hawaa).

17. He should keep himself far from being under the subdual of his enemy, the Shaytaan, who, if he sees the 'Abd in a state of weak determination and motivation and having an inclination towards his Hawaa, he would eagerly hope to overcome and possess him and control him with the bridle of Al-Hawaa leading him wherever he wants. And whenever he senses in him a strong determination, self-the year 32/654. He was known for his great knowledge in Qur'aan and its Tafseer. The Prophet attested to 'Abdullaah's knowledge.

46 That is when he is inclined by his desire and lust to indulge in an unlawful act with her, let him remember something that may turn off his desire, like manatinaha: all forms of her menses and the odor associated with that. [I asked Shaykh Muhammad Bin Saalih Al-'Uthaymeen about this explanation of Ibn Mas'oud's saying and, alhamdulilah, he affirmed it.]
honor, and high motivation, he would not hope to get hold of him except secretly and by the way of deceit or circumvention.

IS. He should realize that Al-Hawaa does not associate with any affair except that it corrupts it. If it gets to the knowledge, it causes him to go to Bid'ah and Dhalaalah and its follower will become from amongst Ahlul Ahwaa' If it affects Al-Zuhd, it will lead its adherent to Ar-Riyaa' and to stand in opposition to As-Sunnah. If it gets in a legal judgment, it leads its follower to injustice and hinders

47 Especially at times of unawareness. 'Abdullaah Bin Mas'oud said: "You are at a time when the truth leads Al-Hawaa and there shall come a time when Al-Hawaa will lead the truth. So, we seek refuge in Allaah from that time to come." [See Al-Jaami' li Ahkaam Al-Qur 'aan by Al-Qurtubee (Beirut, Lebanon: Daarul-Kutub Al-'Ilmiyyah, 1413/1993), V. 19, p. 135.]

48 Deviation from the right path.

49 Ahiui-Ahwaa' (The People of Corrupt Desires): The people who follow concepts of belief and methodologies of understanding and practices deviating from the right path, or from the truth, thus following their [corrupt] desires. [Some of their qualities are presented in the Appendix],

50 Zuhd: To lead a pious life devoted to Allaah taking the least that is sufficient of the lawful things of life. It does not mean to abandon lawful means of earning, property, children, etc., nor exaggerating in performing acts of worship. [See a discussion on this subject in the Appendix], 51 Ar-Riyaa': Showing off, and not doing an action solely for the sake of Allaah.

52 Mystic Sufism adopted ways of Zuhd that stand in direct opposition to the guidance of the Prophet's Sunnah. [See the Appendix under Zuhd], him from the truth. If it gets to the division of Al-Qismah,\textsuperscript{53} it changes from a just into an unjust division. If it gets to the decisions of Wilaayah\textsuperscript{54} and 'Azl\textsuperscript{55} it leads its adherent to commit treason against Allaah and against the Muslims whereby he puts in charge or removes from duty according to his Hawaa. If it enters into worship it will deviate him from obedience and means of closeness [to Allaah]. Thus it associates not with anything but renders it corrupt.

19. He should realize that there is no way for the Shaytaan to come in upon the son of Adam except from the gate of his Hawaa. He goes around him trying to find how to invade him so that he renders his heart and deeds corrupt. The only means of entrance he finds is that of Al-Hawaa, and so he creeps along with it like poison creeping in the body.

20. Allaah\textsuperscript{56} has made Al-Hawaa an opposite to what He has revealed to His Messenger. He has made its following directly opposite to the following of His Messengers, and He classified mankind into two groups: The followers of Revelation and the followers of Al-Hawaa, And this is found in many places in the Qur'aan, as in His saying:

[Qur'aan, Al-Baqarah: 2]

\textsuperscript{53} Al-Qismah: Generally it refers to the division of property, shares, booties, profits, etc. In the Qur'aan it refers to the division of the deceased's property in accordance with the laws of inheritance.

\textsuperscript{54} Wilaayah: Appointing a person in charge of an office or an authority over a thing (town, district, country, province or the like).

\textsuperscript{55} 'Azl: Removal of someone from his office or exercise of authority.
And if they answer you not (i.e. do not follow the doctrine of 'awheed, nor follow you), then know that they only follow Al'twa'ahum (i.e. their evil inclinations: lust, desire, etc.). [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Qasas, 28:50].

And if you [O Muhammad ﷺ] were to follow their [Jews and Christians] desires after what you have received of Knowledge (i.e. Qur'aan), then you would find neither a Waliy [protector or guardian] nor any helper against Allaah. [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Baqarah, 2:120]. And there are other Aayaat of similar meaning.

21. Allaah likened the followers of Al-Hawaa to the most contemptible animals in form and in concept. Sometimes He compared them to a dog, as in His saying:

But he clung to the earth and followed his own vain desires. So his description is the description of a dog: If you drive him away, he lolls his tongue out, or if you leave him alone, he [still] lolls his tongue out. [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-'Araaf, 7:176].

Sometimes He compared them to wild donkeys:

As if they were frightened [wild] donkeys. Fleeing from a hunter, or a lion, or a beast Of prey. [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Muddaththir, 74:50-51].
Sometimes He changed their forms into that of monkeys and pigs.

22. The one who follows Al-Hawaa neither deserves to be obeyed, nor to be an Imaam or to be followed, because Allaah said removed him away from Imaamah (leading as an Imaam) and forbade obedience to him. As to his removal, it is because Allaah said to His Khaleel:

Ibraaheem:

> "Verily, I am going to make you a leader (Prophet] of mankind."

Which means that "My Covenant regarding Imaamah (Prophethood, leadership, etc.) does not include a Thaalim (polytheist and wrongdoer)." Anyone who follows his Hawaa is a Thaalim as Allaah said:

> Nay, but those who do wrong follow their own Ahwaa'ahum Without knowledge. [Qur'aan, Soorat Ar-Room, 30:29].

56 Khaleel, i.e. Allaah's Khaleel: The one whom Allaah has distinguished by love and honor. Ibraaheem Al-Khaleel is Prophet Ibraaheem whom, like Prophet Muhammad ﷺ Allaah has distinguished by love and honor.
The prohibition to obey the follower of Al-Hawaa because of Allaah's saying:

وَلَا تَعْتَنِقُوا مِنَ الْأَعْقَابِ أَنَّهُمْ عَلَى ذَٰلِكَ أَنْتُمْ مَعِيٍّ وَأَنْتُمْ أُمِّيٍّ مَّالِكَةٌ خَيْرٌ وَرَفِيعٌ

And obey not him whose heart We have made heedless of Our Remembrance, one who followed his Hawaa and whose affair [deeds] has been lost. [Qur’aan, Soorat Al-Kahf, 18:28],

23. Allaah has made the one who follows Al-Hawaa at the same rank as that of the image-worshipper. He said in two places of His Book:

أَوَيْتُ مِنْ أَعْقَبِ أَنَّهُمْ هُوَنُهُ، هُوَنُهُ [الْقَرْنَانِ ۴۲:۱۲]،

Have you [O Muhammad] seen him who has taken as his Ilaah his own Hawaa? [Qur’aan, Soorat Al-Furqaan, 25:43].

Al-Hasan commented: "He is the hypocrite; there is nothing that he desires except that he follows it." He also said: "The hypocrite is a slave of his Hawaa: there is nothing that he desires except that he commits it."

24. Verily, Al-Hawaa is the Hithaar of Hell-Fire which surrounds it, he who walks across it will fall in Hell, just as the Prophet said in the hadeeth reported in As-Saheehain:

57 The other place is in Soorat Al-Jaathiyah 45, Aayah 23.
59 Hithaar: Anything forming a barrier, an obstruction, a partition, or a fence.
"Al-Jannah is surrounded by all kinds of disliked and undesirable things, while the Fire (Hell) is surrounded by all kinds of desires and passions. 60

And in the "Sunan" of At-Tirmithi in the hadeeth of Abu Hurairah which he attributed to the Prophet [he said]:

"When Allaah created Al-Jannah and An-Naar [the (Hell) Fire]. He send Jibreel to Al-Jannah and said: Go and look at it and at what I have prepared therein for its people. He went and looked at it and at what Allaah has prepared therein for its people, then came to Him and said: By Your Might, no one who hears of it will fail to enter it. He gave an order respecting it, and accordingly it was surrounded with undesirable things, and said [to Jibreel]: Go and look at it and at [the things] which I have prepared therein for its people. He went and looked at it, and found that it was surrounded with disliked and undesirable things, then came to Him and said: By Your Might, I am afraid that no one will enter it. He, [Allaah] then said: Go to An-Naar and look at it and at [the things] which I have prepared therein for its people. [He went] and found that it was heaped up, one part upon another, then he came to Him and said: By Your Might, no one who hears of it will enter it. He gave a command respecting it, and it was surrounded with desirable things and passions and then said: Go back to it. He went and said: By Your Might, I am afraid that no one will remain who does not enter it.

25. It is feared that he who follows Al-Hawaa may become altogether detached from Eemaan (Faith) while being unaware. In fact, it has been confirmed that the Prophet ﷺ said:

لا يؤمن أحدكم حين يكون هواء تبعا لما حنت به

61 Reported by At-Tirmithi who said that it is "hasan-saheeh".- It is also reported by An-Nasaa'ee and Abu Daawood. Shaykh Al-Albaanee concluded that it is authentic in Saheeh Al-Jaami' #5210 and in Mishkatul Masaabeh #5696. The terminology "hasan-saheeh " used by At-Tirmithi refers to one of two situations regarding the hadeeth:
1-That it is reported through one way of narration and there is a disagreement regarding the status of one narrator in the chain: Some consider him sound while others consider him "hasan,"
2-It is reported via two chains of narration, one "Hasan" and the other "saheeh". (See Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar's An-Nukal 'Alaa Nuzhatin-Nalhar fee Tawdeeh Nukhbatul-Fikar (Dammaam, KSA: Daar Ibnul-Jawzee, checked by Shaykh 'Ali Hasan 'Abdul Hameed Al-Halabee Al-Atharee, 1414/1994)], pp. 93-94. The "hasan" (fine) is itself authentic but does not reach the level of authenticity of the "saheeh".)
"None of you is a true believer until his Hawaa is in accordance with what I have brought forth. "

"أَخْرَفَ مَا أَخْلَفْ عَلَيْكُم شَهْوَاتُ الْغَيْفِ فِي بَطُونَكُم وِفِرْوَجْكُم وِمُضَلَّاتُ الْهُوَى " [رَأى أَحْمَد، فَالْمُهَمِّشِ: رُوِى أَحْمَد وَالْبَزْرَةُ وَالْعَفْرِيُّ فِي العُطُورَةِ وَرَحَّالِ الرَّحْلِ الصَّحِيحِ].

"The most dreadful thing I fear in regard to you is the seductive lusts in your bellies and in your private parts, and the misleading ways of Al-Hawaa"

26. The following of Al-Hawaa is from the destructive sins. The Prophet ﷺ said:

"ثُلَاثَ مَنْحِيَاتٍ وَثُلَاثَ مِهَالِكَاتٍ: فَأَمَّا المَنْحِيَاتُ فَتَقُوَّى الْلَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ فِي الْسُّرَّةِ وَالْعَلَائِقِ، وَالْقَوْلُ بِالْحَقِّ فِي الْئِضَالِ وَالْفَضْلِ، وَأَمَامُ الْمِهَالِكَاتِ فَهُوَاءُ مَتْبَعٌ وَشِيْخُ مَطْعٌ، وَإِعْجَابُ الْمَرْأَةِ بَيْنَهُمَا".

"Three [things] lead to safety and three cause destruction. Those that lead to safety are: fearing Allah in secrecy and in the open, uttering the truth at times of satisfaction and anger, and moderation at times of poverty and wealth. As to the [three] that cause destruction, they are:

62 See Ftn. 27.
63 Reported by Innaam Ahmad, and Al-Haithamee said: "It was reported by Ahmad, Al-Bazzaar, and At-Tabaraanee in hi sihies Ma'aajim: As-Sagheer, Al-Awsat. and Al-Kabeer, and its narrators are 'men of Saheeh' [i.e. generally classified in the category of sound, reliable, or even less. This does not necessarily mean that the rest of conditions required to authenticate the Isnaad (chain of narration), not to mention the hadeeth itself, are usually met.] [See Shaykh Al-Albaanee's introduction to Saheeh At-Targheeb war Tarheeb by Al-Munthiree, pp. 43-50.] the Hawaa being followed, niggardliness being obeyed, and conceitedness."

27. The opposing of Al-Hawaa inherits strength in the heart, tongue and body of [Allaah's] 'Abd. Some of As-Salaf (righteous predecessors) said: "The one who overcomes his Hawaa is like him who conquers a city by himself." And in the authentic hadeeth attributed to the Prophet ﷺ:

"ليس الشديد بالسرعة إنما الشديد الذي يملك نفسه عند الغضب"-[منوئه]

"The strong is not the one who overcomes the people by his strength, but the strong is the one who controls himself-while in anger."

Whenever he trains himself on opposing his Hawaa, he would gain additional strength to his own.

28. The most enriched in Al-Muroo'ah of the people is him who has the strongest opposition to his Hawaa. Mu'aawiyah 66 said: "Al-

64 Al-Muhaddith Shaykh Muhammad Naasir-ud-Deen Al-Albaanee said that the hadeeth is hasan. See As-Silsilah As-Saheehah, #1802, and Saheeh Al-Jaami', #3045.

65 An agreed upon hadeeth, [See Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. 8, Hadeeth #135.]

66 Mu'aawiyah is the Sahaabee Sakhr Bin Harb Bin Umayyah Bin 'Abd Shams Bin 'Abd Manaaf Bin Qusay Bin Kilaab, Abu'Abdur Rahmaan. The Ameer of Al-Mu'mineen, and the King of Islaam. The Prophet ﷺ said: "O Allaah! Bestow upon him the knowledge of the Book (i.e. the Qur'aan) and save him from torment." [Reported by Imaam Ahmad in Fadaa 'il As-Sahaabah, V. 2, p. 913. The checker said its Isnaad is hasan because of other narrations]. He also invoked Allaah saying: "O Allaah! Make of him (i.e. Mu'aawiyah) a guide (to the truth), cause him to be rightly directed, and cause others to be rightly directed by him." [Reported by Imaam Ahmad, V. 5 #17438, and by At-Tirmithee. Al-Albaanee said it is saheeh (see Saheeh Sunan At-Tirmithee, #3018).] He was one of the Sahaabah who recorded the Revelation.
Muroo'ah is the abandonment of desires and passions, and the Contrary to many false reports, Mu'aawiyah did not seek to take over the Khilaafah from 'Ali Shaykh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah, Imaam Ath-Thahabee, At-Tabaree, and many other scholars from the Salaf asserted that Mu'aawiyah used to acknowledge that 'Ali is better than him and that he [Mu'aawiyah] does not deserve the Khilaafah. His position, however, was that he wanted 'Ali to punish the assassins of 'Uthmaan before he would give his loyalty to him. He thought that he was on the truth regarding this matter. 'Ali on the other hand, conditioned that Mu'aawiyah must give the pledge of loyalty to him because he was the Khaalefah and that he thought it is wise to wait until he consolidates his power and then seek 'Uthmaan's assassins. 'Ali had nothing to do with the killing of 'Uthmaan. Based upon many authentic narrations and prophecies from the Prophet Ahlus-Sunnah consider to be on the side of the truth.

The fitnah was ignited by a group of dissidents known as As-Saba'iyyah whose leader, 'Abdullah Bin Saba', was a Jew who considered 'Ali to be Allaah incarnate! Most of the Sahaabah kept themselves away from the fitnah and only a few, not exceeding thirty, shared in the fighting between the army of 'AH and Mu'aawiyah.

The Islamic rule at the time of Mu'aawiyah's Kingdom was very strong whereby the Muslims ruled a vast area extending from Khurasaan in the East to the West African coast, and from Cyprus in the Mediterranean to the Yemen in the South. [See Tahqeeq Mawaaqif As-Sahaabah Fee Al-Fitnah; Establishing the (True) Position of the Sahaabah During the Fitnah (i.e. Between 'Ali and Mu'aawiyah) by Dr. Muhammad Amakhzoon, V. 2, pp. 93-130, published by Daar Tayebah and Maktabat Al-Khawthar, Riyadh, KSA, 1415/1994.]

The reason why that I have highlighted some of these important facts is that most of what had been written about this fitnah is either a) fully historical and not authenticated, b) compiled by orientalists, or c) promoting baseless accounts by the Raafidhah (the rejectionists of the Shee'ah). The fully documented and authenticated reports from the Muhadditheen regarding the fitnah gave us the true positions of the Sahaabah regarding this matter. An excellent source is Al-'Awaasim Minal Qawaasim by Abu Bakr Bin 'Al-Arabi Al-Maalikee (not the infamous mystic Sufi Ibn 'Arabi) with commentary by Muhib-ed-Deen Al-Khateeb, 5th edition, Maktabat As-Sunnah, Cairo, 1408. disobedience of Al-Hawa. The following of Al-Hawa weakens the Al-Muroo 'ah, and its opposition strengthen it."

29. There isn't a day that passes except that Al-Hawa and the mind fight within its follower. Whoever of them overpowers its master, it will expel the other and take full control; and the decision will be its. Abu Ad-Dardaa\(^{67}\) said: "When a man wakes up, both his Hawaa and deeds meet; if his deeds are in accordance with his Hawaa, then his day is an evil one; and if his Hawaa is pursuant to his deeds, then his day is a good one."

30. Allaah \(\mathbb{H}\) has made the wrong and the following of Al-Hawa .associates of each other, and has made the right and the opposition of Al-Hawa as associates. As some of As-Salaf said: "If two affairs were dubious to you and you don't know which one is right, then oppose the one close to your Hawaa for it is more likely that error is committed when Al-Hawa is being pursued.

31. Al-Hawa is a disease and its remedy is in opposing it. Some learned men said: "If you wish, I will inform you of your illness, and if you wish I will tell you of your remedy: Your disease is your Hawaa, and your treatment is to abandon and oppose it." Bishr Al-Haafee,\(^{68}\)

\(^{67}\) Abu Ad-Dardaa' is 'Uwaymir Bin Zayed (or Bin 'Aamir, or Bin 'Abdullaah) Bin Qays, the Judge of Damascus, and one of the Sahaabah: the master of Qur'aanic recitation in Damascus before and during the Khilaafah of Uthmaan\(\mathbb{H}\). He is known as the Hakeem (the wise man) of this Ummah. He was from the few amongst the Sahaabah who collected the Noble Qur'an. He reported one hundred and ninety seven Ahaadeeth. It is reported that he died in the year 32 of Hijrah/652. [See Tahtheeb Siyar 'Alaam An-Nubalaa', V. 1, #172.]

32. The Jihaad against Al-Hawaa, if it is not more important than the Jihaad against the Kuffaar certainly it is not less in importance. A man told Al-Hasan Al Basree: "O Abaa Sa'eed! What kind of Jihaad is the best? He said: "It is the Jihaad of your Hawaa" I heard my Shayekh saying: "The Jihaad against one's self and against Al-ffcnvaa constitutes the basis for the Jihaad against the Kuffaar and the Munaafiqueen (hypocrites), because one is unable to make Jihaad against them until he makes Jihaad against himself and his Hawaa first, so that he can go out to [confront] them."

33. Al-Hawaa is Takhleel (disorder and confusion of the intellect) and opposing it is Himiyyah. It is feared for the one who became excessive in Takhleet and retired himself from Al-Himiyyah, that his disease [mental sickness] may cause him to fall in a state of Sara'. 'Abdul Malik Ibn Quraib said: "I passed by a bedouin who was suffering from an intensive inflammation in his eyes and his tears were shedding on his cheeks. I said: "Why don't you wipe off your eyes?"

by Al-Haqfith Ibn Hajar, p. 168, checked by Abul Ashbaal Sagheer Ahmad Shaaghif Al-Pakistani, Daar Al-'Aasimah, Riyaadh, KSA, I416.

Referring to Shaykh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah.

Himiyyah: Guarding, prelecting, and absenting from what is harmful. In case of sickness it means, abstaining from things [including food] that are injurious.

Sara': A well known state arising, in some cases, from mental disorder whereby the person falls to the ground in a state that resembles madness.

Abdul Maalik Bin Quraib Bin 'Abdul Maalik Bin 'AH Bin Asmaa', Abu Sa'eed Al-Baahilee, Al-Asma'ee, Al-Basree. A truthful Sim-nee; died in the 16th year of Hijrah and others said differently. He lived close to ninety years of age. [See Taqreeb At-Tahtheeb, p. 626.]
He said: "The doctor prevented me from doing this, and there is no good in him who if urged to refrain [from doing something wrong] does not abstain, and if he is being commanded [to do something good] does not comply." I said then: "Would you like something?" He said: "Yes! But I am in a state of Hitniyyah; the lusts of the people of [Hell] Fire overcame their Himiyyah, and thus they were destroyed."

34. The pursuing of Al-Hawaa renders the doors of success closed for the 'Abd, and opens for him the doors of faihre. So you see him often repeating the [following statement]: "Had Allaah  bestowed His success, then it [the affair] would have been as such and such," while in fact he barred himself from the ways of success by pursuing his Hawaa. Al-Fudayyl Bin 'lyaad said; "Whoever has been overtaken by his Hawaa and by the following of lusts, the sources of success will be severed from him."

One of the scholars said: "Al-Kufr  originates from four things: anger, lust, hope, and fear." He then added, "I have seen two of them manifested: a man who got angry and then killed his mother, and another who fell in love and became a Christian..."

35. The one who stands by his Hawaa, his intelligence and mental perception will become corrupt because he acted unfaithfully towards Allaah in his mind and, consequently, Allaah perverted it for him. This is the way He  deals with anyone who betrays Him in any affair: He renders it in a bad state for him.

73 Al-Fudayyl Bin 'lyaad Bin Mas'oud At-Tameemee, Abu 'All, the renowned, trustworthy, and an Imaam who devoted himself to the worship of Allaah. Originally from Khurasaan (a province in NE Iran). He became a resident of Makkaah and died in 187/803, or earlier. [See Taqreeb At-Tahlheeb, p. 786.]

74 Al-Kufr here includes disbelief and Kufr which means ingratitude, being ungrateful for Allaah's Ni 'mah (Favour or Blessing).
36. The one who broadens for himself the scope of pursuing Al-Hawaa, will put it under restriction in his grave and on the Day of his Return, The one who restrains it by opposing Al-Hawaa, brings ease upon it in his grave and on the Day of his Return. Allaah pointed to this in His saying:

\[\text{And their recompense shall be Al-Jannah and silken garments, because they were patient.} \text{ [Qur'aan: Soorat Al-Insaan, 76:12],} \]

Since patience, which is holding oneself from pursuing Al-Hawaa, includes harshness and restrictions, accordingly Allaah will recompense them with the smoothness of silk and the wideness of Al-Jannah, Abu Sulaimaan Ad Daaraanee\(^75\) commented on the above Aayah: "Allaah shall recompense them for taking patience against lusts."

37. The following of Al-Hawaa throws down the 'Abd preventing him to stand up and walk with those saved on the Day of Resurrection, just like when his heart fell [in a state of Sara'] in this life which kept him from their company. Muhammad Bin Abee Al-Ward said: "There is one of Allaah's days when no one who pursues his Hawaa shall be

38. The pursuing of Al-Hawaa breaks up and weakens one’s resolution, and opposing [Al-Hawaa] solidifies and strengthens it. Resolution is the thing upon which one rides upon in his journey to Allaah and the Last Day. If that which is ridden became inactive, the traveler would almost be disabled to proceed in his journey. Yahyaa Bin Mu’aaath77 was asked: "Who is most sound in resolution of men?” He answered: "The one who overcomes his Hawaa"

77 Yahya Bin Mu’aaath Ar-Raazi, the Zaahid, the wise and the admonisher of his times. He died in Naisapoor in the year 258/872. [See Tahiheeb Siyar 'AlaamAn-Nubalaa', V. 1, #2247 and Ath-Thanabbee's Al-Tbar Fee Khabar Man Ghabar, V.I, p. 371, published by DaarAl-Kutub Al-Tlmiyyah, Beirut, Lebanon.] Note: He is considered a Sufi in the context of the early practice of sufism in which some of its followers were mostly interested in leading a pious life of Zuhd (an abstemious way of life), patience, clemency, sincerity, truthfulness, etc.. Overall they were close to the teachings of the Qur’aan and Sunnah, although some of them exaggerated and (or) introduced innovated forms of worship and concepts. [See Majmoo' Fataawaa Shaykh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah, 10:366-367, and Ibnul Jawzee in Talbees Iblees, p. 156.] Historically the process started in Basra, 'Iraaq by the time when the majority of Taabi'ee (the followers of) At-Taabi'een passed away (Ibid, 10:358). Many of them used to wear woollen (suf) clothing a sign of disassociation from the worldly life. The first to establish a "house for the sufiyyah" was a man by the name of 'Abdul Waahid Bin Zayed (Ibid, 10:359). In their works there is a blend of truth and falsehood. The majority of the scholars, including Imaam Shaafi’ee, Ahmad, Maalik, and others from Ahl-ul-Hadeeth, criticized their ways especially their so-called Samoa' [singing aimed to stimulating a state of Wajd (ecstasy)] and excessive worship. Whatever opposes the Qur’aan and Sunnah and the way of the Salafis to be rejected and whatever is in agreement is accepted because it is not innovated. The acceptance is not an approval of the terminology or the essence of Sufism in any of its stages. It remains to be remembered that it is not true that every pious and Zaahid Muslim is necessarily a Sufi. The Zuhaad (Sing. Zaahid) of the later times were more influenced by scholastic theology (Ilm Al-Kalaam) which began to creep into the Ummah following the
39. The parable of the one who follows his own whim is like that who rides on a tough, strong-tempered, Jamooh horse without a bridle, about to be thrown down by his horse during its run or it would lead him to his death. A learned man said: "The most rapid means to ride onto Al-Jannah is the Zuhd respecting this life, and the most rapid means to get on to An-Naar is the love of lusts. And him who boards his Hawaa, it will hastily take him to the valley of perdition." Another said: "The most endowed with honor of the scholars is the one who flees with his Deen from this Dunya and who is hard to be led to follow *Al-Hawaa." 'Ataa' said: "The one whose Hawaa overtakes his rationale causing him to become affected with grief and agitation because of lacking the strength to be patient, would be put to shame."

40. The Tawheed and the following of Al-Hawaa are two contrary matters: because Al-Hawaa is an idol, and each 'Abd has an idol in his heart, the magnitude of which depends upon his Hawaa; Rather, Allaah sent His Messengers to destroy the idols and to call for His Consequently, they deviated from the way of the Sahaabah and their followers from At-Taabi’een (Ibid, 10:358;366-367). It is known that Zuhd practices developed into organized forms of hunger, poverty, self-strive, seclusion, sleeplessness, wandering, hand-clapping, dancing, going to the markets in strange ways, abandoning the interest in hadeeth knowledge, and other extremes. Sufism further developed into a school of mysticism and corrupt creed and methodology. worship Alone, having no partners or associates. Nay, Allaah's intent is not just to demolish the corporeal images and leave the images imbedded in the heart, but rather to destroy those in the heart first. Al-Hasan Bin 'AH Al-Muttawwi’ee\(^{81}\) said: 'The idol of each person is his Hawaa, he who breaks it by the way of opposition deserves the title of honourableness.' Just contemplate about the saying of Al-Khaleel (Ibraaheem to his people [as Allaah said]:

\textit{مَا هِيُّ الْأَنْثَارِ الَّتِي أَنْسَهَا عَنْهَا اِنْكُفُرُونَ (الْيَسُّ، 20).}

\textbf{What Are these images, to which you are devoted?} \\

and you will certainly find it identical to those images which the heart likes and devotes itself to and worships it besides Allaah. He, Allaah, said:

\textit{أَرَأَيْتَ مِنْ أَنْتَ غَيْرِهِ فَأَتِنَا عَلَىٰ مَا كَتَبْنَا فِيهِ وَعَسَيْنَا (اتّبَعْنَاهُ).}

\textbf{Have you [O Muhammad} \(\text{ﷺ}\) \text{seen him who has taken his illaah (god) as his own desire? Would you be then a Wakeel [a protecting guide] over him? Or do you think that most of them hear or understand? They are only like cattle. Nay, they are even farther astray from the Path [i.e. even worst than Cattle], [Qur’aan, Soorat At-Furqaan, 25:43-44].}

41. Opposing Al-Hawaa is the means to drive away diseases from the heart and from the body, and its following brings forth diseases to the heart and to the body. Heart diseases are all from following of Al-

\(^{81}\text{Al-Hasan Bin ‘Ali Al-Muttawwi’ee: Within my resources, I didn’t find a biographical history for him.}\)
Hawaa. If you search for the causes behind diseases of the body, you will find that most of it are because of preferring Al-Hawaa over what should be abandoned.

42. The origin for the enmity, evil, and envy that occurs between people is from the following of Al-Hawaa. The one who opposes his Hawaa relieves his heart, body, and limbs, putting himself to ease and thus relieves others. Abu Bakr Al-Warraaq^83 said: "When the Hawaa prevails, the heart turns dark and when it does so, the breast becomes straitened and when that happens, the moral character deteriorates and consequently people will hate him and he will hate them. Then think of the evil, enmity, neglect of rights, etc. that arise from this mutual hatred!"

43. Allaah has created in man an intellect and a Hawaa; whichever of the two becomes manifest, the other will hide, as Abu 'Ali Ath- Thaqafee said; "Whoever is overcome by his Hawaa, his intellect will be hidden from him. So, look at the end of him whose intellect is masked from him and became overpowered by something else." 'Ali Bin Sahl^84 said: "The intellect and Al-Hawaa are in conflict.

Success is the associate of the intellect and defeat is the associate of Al-Hawaa. The self stands between both; whichever of the two prevails, the self will side with it."

44. Allaah ﷺ has made the heart the king of the limbs and the place of the origination of knowledge, love, and 'Uboodiyyah of Him. He tested him with two kinds of authority, two armies, two aids, and two sets of preparations. The truth, Zuhd, and guidance is one authority. Its aids are the angels, and its army is truthfulness and sincerity, and its preparation is in avoiding Al-Hawaa. The other authority is falsehood. Its aids are the Shayaateen and its troops and the preparation is the following of Al-Hawaa. The self stands between the two armies. The army of falsehood will have access to the heart only from its direction and frontier breaches, for it pervades the heart and aligns itself with its enemy against it (the heart) and thus the calamity will overtake it. It is the self, therefore, that offers its enemy from its own preparations, and opens for him the gate of the city and thus he enters and takes full control, and the heart takes the defeat.

45. The worst of enemies to man is his Shaytaan and his Hawaa, and the best friend he has is his intellect and his associate angel who gives him advice. If he follows his Hawaa, he gives his hand in surrender

"The Prophet ﷺ said:
قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ما منكم من أحد إلا وفد وكله به فرحت من الحنلا وبا رضا
الله قال وياي إلا أن الله أعنتي عليه فأسلم فلا يأمرني إلا يخبر وفي رواية "وقد وفد وكله به فرحت من الحنص وقفته من الملائكة". [رواه مسلم].

"There is none amongst you with whom is not an companion from amongst the jinn [devils]. They [the Sahaabah] said: "Allaah's Messenger, with you too?" Thereupon he said: "Yes, but Allaah helps me against him and as such he surrendered [to Allaah in Islaam] and commands me not except for good."
to his enemy, submitting himself as a captive to him, making him [the enemy] rejoice at his affliction, and causing displeasure to his friends and supporters. These are precisely the difficult moments of a calamity, wretchedness, the manifested divine decree of an evil ending, and the malicious joy of enemies.86

46. Each 'Abd has a beginning and an end. He whose start is the following of Al-Hawaa, shall end up in a state of disgrace, humiliation, bereavement, and trials. What is being followed commensurate with the ['Abd's] degree of dependency upon his Hawaa. Rather, at the end, the followed turns to a suffering that agonizes him in his heart as one poet put it:

مأرب كانت في الشباب لأهلها عذاباً فصارت في المشيب عذاباً

[Reported by Muslim. See Saheeh Muslim, V. 4, Hadeeth #6757.] In another narration by Muslim and Ahmad, the Prophet ﷺ said: "There is none amongst you with whom there is not an companion from amongst the jinn [devils] and an attachee from amongst the angels." This companion from the angels may be different from those assigned by Allaah to write the record of deeds of the children of Adam. [See Al-Ashqar's book 'Aalam Al-Malaa 'ikah Al-Abraar (Kuwait, State of Kuwait: Maktabat Al-Falaah and Daar An-Nafaa'is, 1411/1991), p. 44.]

86 These are the moments of difficulty which the Prophet ﷺ used to seek refuge with Allaah from:

أبيه رحمة بك يرسل الله صلى الله عليه وسلم تنفيذ من جهد البلاء ودرك الشقاء وسوء الفضاء وشماتة

الأعداء قال سفيان الحديث ثلاثاً زدت أنا واحدة لا أدرى أيهن هي. [منافق عليه].

Abu Huraira narrated that the Prophet ﷺ used to seek refuge with Allaah from the difficult moments of calamity and from being overtaken by Ash-Shaqaa (wretchedness in the Hereafter or destruction etc.) and from being destined to an evil end, and from the malicious joy of enemies. Sufyaan (Bin 'Uyainah) said: "This narration contained three items only, but I added one. I do not know which one that was."[Reported by Al-Bukhaaree, Muslim, and An-Nasa'e'ee. See Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. 8, Hadeeth #358.]
If you contemplate about the case of everyone who is in a bad and miserable state, you would find that it began with him embracing his Hawaa and giving it preference over his intellect. Anyone who begins by opposing his Hawaa and obeying the call of his Rushd, his end will be that of honor, might, richness, and high rank before Allaah and before the people. Abu 'Ali Ad-Daqqaaq said: "The one who controls his lust in his youthfulness, Allaah will honor him when he is in his age of maturity." Al-Muhallab Bin Abee Sufrah was asked: "How did you attain this status of yours? He said: "Through firm obedience and rebellion against Al-Hawaa."

So these are the situations regarding the stand against Al-Hawaa in the beginning and in the end of one's life in this world. With respect to the

90 Al-Muhallab Bin Abee Sufrah is Thaalim Ibn Saariq Al-'Aatakee Al-Azdee, Abu Sa'eed Al-Basree, One of the trustworthy leaders and heroes who was knowledgeable about war plans and strategies. He reported Hadeeth transmissions from 'Abdullaah Bin 'Amr Bin Al-'Aas in Jundhub, Ibn 'Umar, Al-Baraa' Bin 'Aazib, and others from the Sahaabah: [See Tahtheeb Siyar 'AlaamAn-Nubalaa', V. 1, #532, and Taqreeb At-Tahtheeb, #6986.]
Hereafter, however, Allaah has made Al-Jannah the end for him who opposed his Hawaa and An-Naar the end for the one who followed his Hawaa.\footnote{Allaah said:}

47. Al-Hawaa is slavery to the heart, an iron chain round the neck, and a fetter to the leg. Its follower is a captive to everyone with a bad character. Thus whoever opposes it, liberates himself from slavery and becomes free, and takes off the chain round his neck and becomes in a state similar to that of a man belonging entirely to one master after belonging to many partners disputing one another.\footnote{Allaah puts forth a similitude: A [slave] man belonging to many partners [like those who worship others along with Allaah] disputing with one another, and » [slave] man belonging entirely to one master [like those who worship Allaah Alone], Are those two equal in comparison? All the praises and thanks are due to Allaah! But most of them know not. [Qur'aan, Soorat Az-Zaar 39:29].}

\footnote{Allaah said:}

Then, for him who Taghaa [transgressed all bounds, in disbelief, oppression, and evil deeds of disobedience to Allaah], and preferred the life of this world [by following his evil desires and lusts], verily, his abode will be Hell-Fire. [Qur'aan, Soorat An-Naazi'aal, 79:37-39). He also said:

But as for him who feared standing before his Rabb [Allaah], and restrained himself from impure evil desires and lusts, verily, Al-Jannah will be his abode.\footnote{Qur'aan, Soorat An-Naazi’aat, 79:40-41]. Allaah said:}
48. Opposing Al-Hawaa puts the 'Abd in the rank of the one whose oath Allaah fulfills. The goals that He will accomplish for him will be many-fold that which he was unable to attain as a result of neglecting his Hawaa. He is like the one who relinquished a Ba'arah and was given a pearl as a compensation for it. Whatever he is able to gain from the way of following Al-Hawaa is incomparable with what he looses from present and future benefits and from good living. So try to comprehend the stretching forth of the hand of Yoosuf, the Siddeeq in expenditure, the unconstriction with his tongue, the establishment of his feet [in power], and the rejoice that touched him after he came out of the jail because he restrained himself from the Haraam [unlawful].

49. Opposing Al-Hawaa entitles the honor in this world and in the Hereafter and self-esteem, outwardly and inwardly. Following it, however, lowers the rank of the 'Abd in this life and in the Hereafter and humiliates him, outwardly and inwardly. When Allaah gathers mankind on one plane [on the Day of Resurrection], an announcer will call, "This day the people of generosity will be distinguished from those who amassed wealth. Now let the pious stand." They will stand and walk toward the place of honor while the followers of Al-Hawaa

50. If you contemplate about the seven whom Allaah will shade in the shade of His 'Arsh wherein there is no shade but His,100 you will find 98 The standing before Allaah on the Day of Resurrection awaiting His Judgment.

99 Know, may Allaah's Mercy be upon you, that the shade sometimes is mentioned in relation to Allaah and sometimes in relation to His 'Arsh. Many authentic narrations reported by Imaam Ahmad, Ad-Daarimee, Al-Baghwwee, At-Tirmithe, Al-Haakir, At-Tabaraanee and others state that the shade is that of the 'Arsh. As Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar explained, these narrations when related to the context of the agreed upon hadeeth: "Allaah will give shade to seven, on the Day when there would be no shade but His..." preponderates that the shade is that of the 'Arsh. Shaykh Muhammad Al-'Uthaymeen commented that the Prophet's statement: "On the Day when there would be no shade but His..." means that there would be no shade except that which He creates and that the belief that the shade is that of Allaah's Essence is false, because this would imply that the sun is above Allaah the Most Majestic and Most High. [See Fathul Baaree V. 2, p. 144, and Sifaatullaah Al-Waaridah Fil Kitaabi-was-Sunnah, by 'Alawee Bin 'Abdul Qaadir As-Saqqaaf pp. 171-174, and Sharhul 'Aqeedah Al-Waasitiyyah by Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Saalih Al-'Uthaymeen, V. 2, p. 136.]
100 The seven were mentioned in the hadeeth in which the Prophet said:

"Allaah will give shade to seven, on the Day when there will be no shade but His. [These seven persons are:] (1) a just ruler, (2) a youth who has been brought up in the worship of Allaah [i.e. worships Allaah sincerely from his childhood], (3) a man whose heart is attached to the mosques [i.e. he offers the five compulsory Salaat (prayers) in the mosques], (4) two persons who love each other that they deserved that shade because of their opposition to Al-Hawaa. Indeed the Imaam having authority and power will not be able to establish justice except by opposing his Hawaa. And with respect to the youth who prefers the sincere worship of Allaah over the urge of his youthfulness, had it not been for the opposition of his Hawaa, he would not be able to accomplish this state of worship. As to the person whose heart is attached to the mosques, the thing that drove him to this condition is the opposition of Al-Hawaa which invites him to the places of lusts. Concerning the person who gives charitable gifts secretly so that his left hand does not know what his right hand has given, had it not been for his subduing of his Hawaa, he would have not been able to attain this state. And the person who was invited by a charming woman of noble birth [to have illegal sexual intercourse with her], feared Allaah and opposed his Hawaa. As to the one who remembers Allaah in seclusion and his eyes becomes flooded with tears for fearing Him, the thing that made him reach this state is the opposing of his Hawaa. Consequently, they were saved from being affected by the intense heat of the Al-Mawqif on the Day of Resurrection and the sweating therein. The people [adhering to] Al-Hawaa will experience the utmost degree of intense heat and sweating while they are still waiting to enter the "Prison of Al-Hawaa" Allaah is the One to be petitioned to grant us protection from the Ahwaa' (Sing. Hawaa) of ourselves which are inclined to evil, and that He makes our Hawaa in accordance with what He loves and is acceptable to Him. The Concept Of Zuhd: The Understanding Of The Salaf And The Bid’ah Of The Mystic Sufis.

The Deen of Allaah has been perfected. It urges the believer to direct his life in accordance with the way of the Deen, so that he receives the great rewards of Allaah in the Hereafter. Its stand towards this life is perfect, because it comes from the All-Perfect and the All-Wise, Allaah. It demands that the objective of the believer should not be the life of this world. Allaah said:

من كان يريد ح мире الآخرة نذكوه في ح زته ومن كان يريد ح мире الدن نذكوه remediate it
Whoever desires [with his deeds] the reward of the Hereafter, We give him increase in his reward, and whosoever desires the reward of this world [with his deeds], We give him thereof [what is written for him], and he has no portion in the Hereafter. [Qur'an, Surat Al-Shura, 42:20].

The Prophet ﷺ said:

"قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "الدنيا سجن المؤمن وجنة الكافر."

The life of this world is the prison of the believer and a Jannah for the Kaafir."

This, however, does not mean a complete neglectfulness of this life. The call for Zuhd is to lead a pious life devoted to Allaah M taking the least that is sufficient of the lawful things of life. It does not mean to abandon lawful means of earning, property, children, etc. nor exaggerating in performing acts of worship. Zuhd does not require that a believer must be poor in order to gain the Mercy of Allaah!

Allaah ﷻ said:

O Children of Adam! Take your adornment [by wearing your clean clothes] while praying and going round [the Tawaaf of the Ka'bah, and eat and drink but waste not by extravagance, certainly He [Allaah] likes not the extravagant. Say [O Muhammad ﷺ: "Who has forbidden the adoration with clothes given by Allaah, which He has produced for his slaves, and At-Tayyibaat [all kinds of Halaal things] of food?" Say: "They are, in the life of this world, for those who believe, [and] exclusively for them [believers] on the Day of Resurrection [the disbelievers will not share them]." Thus We explain the Aayaat [Islamic laws] in detail for people who have knowledge. [Qur'aan, Soorat Al- 'Araaf, 7:31-32],

He also said:

وَأَحْسَنْ بِهَا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ الْخَيْرَةَ الْأُخْرَى وَلَاتَّسْ تَأْسِيبُكُم بِالْذُّنْيَا وَأَحْسَنْ صَبْرًا

But seek with that [wealth] which Allaah has bestowed on you, the home of the Hereafter, and forget not your portion of legal enjoyment in this world, and do good as Allaah has been good to you, and seek not mischief in the land. Verily Allaah likes not the Mufsideen [those who commit great crimes and sins, oppressors, tyrants, mischief-makers, corrupted people]. [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Qasas 28:77].

When Sa'd Bin Abee Waqaas asked the Prophet whether he can will all of his property in charity, the Prophet told him to give only one third of it and said:

He shared in the battle of Badr and Uhud and was one of the six members of the Shoora counsel which 'Umar Ibn Al-Khattaab chose to appoint the new Khaleefah after 'Umar was stabbed. He was the first to shoot an arrow at the Mushrikeen in Jihaad. He lead the Muslims in taking over 'Iraaq from the Persians after defeating them in the battle of Al-Qadisiyyah in the 15th year of Hijrah (634) He died in 55th year of Hijrah (675). There are many other texts in the Qur'aan and (or) Sunnah which teach the medium course of this Deen in its acts of worship as well as in its modes for living this life in the way that pleases Allaah Shayekh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah said: "The beneficial and lawful Zuhd is the one which is beloved to Allaah and to His Messenger, and it is the renunciation of that which is of no benefit in the Hereafter. The "Zuhd" Of The Mystics

The Zuhd according to the mystic Sufis completely contradicts the essence of the Zuhd laid down in the Qur'aan, authentic Sunnah, and the understanding and practice of the Salaf. It centers upon the following matters:

1. Poverty should be the main objective. One of their prominent figures said: "I like for the beginner not to make his heart busy with the matter of earning (i.e. for his living), otherwise his state would change."\textsuperscript{105}

\textsuperscript{104} Majmoo' Al-Fataawaa, V. 10, p. 511.

In Al-Makki's Sufi book (V. 2, p. 168), the following saying is attributed to Abu Yazeed Al-Bustaa'mee, a master in the Sufi path, "I have attained this state (of Sufi knowledge) by means of a hungry stomach and a naked body."(!) Nun Ha Mim Keller, a Sufi mystic of the Shaathili order and compiler of a book entitled "Reliance of the Traveller," described Abu Taalib Al-Makki as a "Sufi preacher, ascetic, and scholar of Sacred Law" [Reliance x63, p.1033]. He referred to Al-Makki's book Qut Al-Quloob fi Mu'amalat Al-Mahboob wa Wasf Tareeq Al-Mureed ila Maqam At-Tawheed [The sustenance of the hearts: On dealing with the Beloved, and a description of the way to seekers of the spiritual station of witnessing the "divine unity"] as "His most influential work."(!) 4. "Hunger is the food of the Zaahidee!" \textsuperscript{108} Sufi sources attributed this statement to Abu Muhammad ' Abdullaah Al-Kharraaz, a master of the way.\textsuperscript{109}

In Qut Al-Quloob (V. 4, p. 71) there is the story of "special people" in Basra who if they "would ask Allaah to hold off the establishment of the Hour, He would do so!" Al-Ghazaalee commented: "In themselves these are conceivable matters!" Reported in his Ihyaa', V. 4, p. 356.

This print of the Tabaqaat will be referred to as Tabaqaat-l.

6. Ash-Sha'raanee also reported that one of the celebrated Sufi so-called Awliyaa' by the name of 'Abdur Rahmaan Al-Majthoob, 'Cut off his own private part in the beginning of his Jathbaha (a mystic Sufi state of Jathb)"

7. Ibraaheem Bin 'Usayeefeer was, according to Ash-Sha'raanee, "A man having a great deal of Kashf...He used to come to the town riding a wolf or a hyena, and to walk on water having no need for a boat; his urine was as white as milk...Most often he slept in a church, and he used to say: the Christians, unlike Muslims, do not steal shoes

9. A man who used to fast throughout the year and offer Salaat throughout the night for thirty years. He was one of the regular attendants of the circle of Abu Yazeed Al-Bustaaamee (one of the mystic "masters"). Nevertheless, he was unable to find the kind of knowledge which Abu Yazeed possessed! So, Abu Yazeed taught him that even if he fasts for three hundred years and offers Salaat throughout the nights of such period he would not be able to find even an ant-weight of such knowledge! When asked about the "cure," Abu Yazeed told him that he should shave his head and beard (!), hang a nosebag filled with nuts around his neck, gather some kids in the market around him and tell them, "Everyone who slaps me once, I will give him a nut!" The story goes that he should continue on this manner and that this is the way to attain a knowledge like that of Abu

117 Is this the way to attain knowledge? You often hear from the mystics that "you don't know what it means until you become a mystic yourself." It may have a "hidden" meaning as the Sufis try to deceive the Muslims with their mystic terminology! But we will leave it for Al-Ghazaalee to explain the meaning of their Tawheed and their Shirk. He said: "Anyone who does not see Allaah in everything, then he sees 'other' than Him," and that "The pure Tawheed is to see in everything nothing but Allaah 3&" See Ihyaa', V. 1, p. 288.

The meaning of such "Tawheed" is that there is one existing Being and that is Allaah. The one who sees an existence other than that of Allaah is the Mushrik (who commits Shirk). Al-Ghazaalee explained the perfect understanding of la ilaha illia Allaah as: "To see none except the One, the Truth. " and that this represents the "perfect state of Tawheed". He referred to a state of "Tawheed," "witnessed by the sincere ones and which the Sufis call Al-Fanaa (annihilation) in Tawheed" as the one in which, "Only One (i.e. Allaah) is seen in the entire existence." Al-Ghazaalee stresses that the utmost objective of Tawheed is to see, "Al-Kull (everything) not as Katheer (many), but as one," and that this "represents the objective of the (Sufi) knowledge known as Kashf" and that, "The secrets of this knowledge should not be recorded in a book." He defined the Mushrik as the one, "Who affirms the existence of an existence besides that of Allaah" and that Allaah is, "The witness and the Witnessed, the beloved and the Beloved, and He is the shaakir (the one who is thankful) and the Mashkoor (The One Who deserves acknowledgment and recognition)... Ihyaa', V. 1, 288, V. 4, pp. 86-87 and pp. 245-247. He relates the saying of some of the Sufi mystics including that of Abu Yazeed Al-Bustamee, "The Awliyaa' (so-called Sufi saints) see only Allaah in the two Worlds (lofty and low one)." [Ref. Rawdat At-Taalibeen, p. 9. Published by Maktabat Al-Jundee, Egypt, quoted in A. yourself and Fasabahtaha (made Tasbeeh of it) and did not make Tasbeeh of your Rabb!

10. Abu Yazeed, an example for many Sufis, devoted himself to Allaah and he had the determination to restrain himself from drinking water and from sleeping for one year!!!

11. The story of the Mureed (a Sufi disciple) who, when urged to come and see Abu Yazeed, said: "I have seen Allaah and that made me in no need to see Abu Yazeed!" The person who urged him, Abu Turaab An-Nakhshabee, became very angry and said: "Woe to you! You allow yourself to be deceived by Allaah! If you had seen Abu Yazeed only once, it would have been more beneficial for you than seeing Allaah seventy times!" The Mureed did not feel comfortable and rejected what he heard from An-Nakhshabee. When he asked for an explanation, An-Nakhshabee told him: "Woe to you! Don't you see that when you see Allaah before you, He appears to you according to your rank, but when you see Abu Yazeed with Allaah, He appears to 119 Qut Al-Quloob, 2:74-75, and Ihyaa’, V. 4, p. 358. According to the story, the man magnified himself by refusing to do what Abu Yazeed recommended, and in doing so, he did not magnify Allaah who "wants and likes" what Abu Yazeed does!!! This is a grave mistake regarding the understanding of Allaah and His Divine Pre-ordainment. Allaah does not like wrong and (or) Kufr and demands that mankind comply with His ordinances. Good and evil, however, exist by His Will. He willed the creation of good and evil in accordance with His Wisdom and Knowledge. He ordained that mankind must disassociate themselves from what He declared to be evil and which He hates. He requires from them to do good and He Likes it. Refer to our book Al-Qadaa' wal Qadar for more details. Note: Al-Ghazaalee commented on the above story of Abu Yazeed saying: "What he (Abu Yazeed) mentioned is the remedy for the one who suffers from arrogance and from bow he is looked upon by the people..."

him according to his (Abu Yazeed's) rank!" He (the Mureed understood what I said!"

13. The Faqeer amongst the Sufis used to wander in the land, days and nights without food! This further developed into "discovery trips" around the globe:

a) Abu Yazeed describes mountains named Qaaf, 'Ayn, Saad which, according to him, surround the lower earths, around each earth there is a mountain the size of the Qaaf (I) mountain which surrounds the earth we live on. Not only that, but one of their mystics climbed mount Qaaf and found Noah's ship laying on top of it! And another one puts his leg on mount Qaaf while sitting in Al-Basra,

b) Abu Yazeed describes himself being taken by Allaah to the heavens and being shown him what is in it from Al-Jinaan (Sing, of Jannah) all the way to the 'Arsh. Then He made Abu Yazeed stand before Him and said: "Ask me anything of the things which you have seen and I shall grant it to you." I said: "My Master! I have not seen anything which I liked so that I would ask You to have. He said: "Truly you are my 'Abd (slave); Truly you worship Me (only) for My sake!"

121 See Qut Al-Quloob, V. 2, p. 70. Allaah is Above what the unjust attribute to Him. Note: Remember that Nuh Ha Mim Keller described this book of Abu Taalib Al-Makki (died in Baghdad in 386/996) as "his most influential work"!!! Al-Ghazaalee commented on this story saying: "This is only the beginning of their Sulook [journey to Allaah (which they claim)]! and the least of their Maqaamat (so-called Sufi stations on the way to Allaah). It represents the dearest thing that exists amongst the pious of mankind." Ihyaa', V. 4, p. 357.

122 See Qut Al-Quloob, V. 2, p. 69.

123 Ihyaa', V. 4, p. 356.
c) Al-Ghazaalee said: "Amongst the Awliyaa' of Allaah are some whom the Ka'bah visits and makes Tawaaf around him, as some people of Kashf have witnessed."

The above are just some examples of the mystic stories in Al-Makki's Qut Al-Quloob and Al-Ghazaalee's Ihyaa'. Al-Khateeb Al-Baghdaadee said that he (Al-Makki) "mentioned ugly things with regard to Allaah's Attributes." This critique by Al-Khateeb Al-Baghdaadee is written in the same reference (Al-'Alaam, V. 6, p. 274) which Nuh Ha Nuh Keller referred to when he compiled the biography of Abu Taalib Al-Makki, but he did not mention it!

In addition Nuh Ha Mim Keller compiled a biography (x68, p. 1039) of Abu Yazeed Al-Bustaamee in which he said:

"When a prominent scholar once asked him [Abu Yazeed] from whence he had acquired his knowledge, he replied that it was from applying the maxim, "Whoever applies what he knows, Allaah bequeaths him knowledge of what he did not know." How does this compare with his stories above?

The Hawaa In The Reliance of the Traveller

A Case Study

In his book The Reliance..., Nuh Ha Mim Keller allocated a special section (s4.4, p. 789) in which he collected some texts for some "principle Sufis" to "describe in their words the delusions of those who consider themselves above the Sacred Law." On page 863 (section w9.4) he cited the names of scholars who, according to Keller, "had the higher education of Sufism." Through a special section (w9.5, p. 863), Keller stresses the sayings of "principle Sufis" like 'Abd al-Wahhab Sha'raani (or Sha'raanee) in which it is emphasized that Sufism is "built of the Koran (i.e. Qur'aan) and sunna." A similar statement is attributed to Al-Junayd: "This knowledge of ours is build of the Koran and sunna." For the sake of brevity, I will provide the reader with the names of some of those "principle Sufis" and the statements attributed to them in the mostly Sufi cited references. Already the case of Abu Taalib Al-Makki and his took Qut Al-Quloob, together with the cited sayings of Sufi "masters" herein, has been considered.

1. Knowledge, Secrecy, & Insanity

A) Abu Bakr Al-Khalaabaathi said: "Al-Junayd\textsuperscript{126} told Al-Shiblee:\textsuperscript{127} "We have composed this knowledge (i.e. of Sufism) in an elegant style and then hidden it in the Sirdaab." You then came and publicized it for everyone!" He replied: "I say and I hear, is there anyone else in the Daarayn\textsuperscript{129} other than me!"\textsuperscript{130}

"The authentic knowledge that is "based of Qur'aan and Sunnah " is not :o be hidden in any place, let alone be kept from people. This casts doubt regarding the benefits of the mystic Sufi "knowledge."

The Prophet ﷺ said:

\textsuperscript{126} The "master of the Sufi path." He died in Baghdad in 297/910.
\textsuperscript{127} Al-Shiblee is one of the close associates of Al-Junayd. He died in Baghdad in 334/946.
\textsuperscript{128} Sirdaab: Lit. A narrow place into which one enters. In the present day it is applied to a cellar, or a subterranean vault, in which anything is put to be kept cool. See Lane's Lexicon, V. I,p. 1349.
\textsuperscript{129} Daarayn (a dual of Daar): It refers to Daar Al-Fanaa' (The perishable abode: the present world) and Daar Al-Baqaa' (the everlasting abode; the world to come).
\textsuperscript{130} Reported in Kashf Haqeegat As-Su'iyah, p. 18, quoting from Al-Khalaabaathi's At-Ta 'arruf li Math-hab At-Tasawwuf, chapter 65, p. 145. Published by Daar Al-Kutub Al-'Ilmiyyah, Beirut, Lebanon, 1400/1980.
"I am leaving you [after me] on the Baidaa \(^{131}\) [i.e. his Sunnah], its night [is bright] as its day. None would deviate from it except the one who is doomed to perish." \(^{132}\)

In his response, Al-Shiblee exposed the "hidden" foundation of the knowledge of the so-called Sufi Gnostics: "I say and I hear, is there anyone else in the Daarayen other than me!"

When 'Abdullaah Bin Jaaban and his company visited Al-Shiblee and were about to leave him, he said: "I am with you wherever you may be, you are under my care and in my safe keeping."\(^{133}\) In a cool and unfruitful defense of such sayings, the Sufis often resort to forcefully making the language accord to a meaning which it does not plainly indicate. Accordingly, At-Toosi said: "What Al-Shiblee intended in his saying is that Allaah j^ is the one with you wherever you may be...". The same was said regarding the intention of Abu Yazeed Al-Bustamee in his saying: "سحاني ما أعظم شأني" Far removed is me from every imperfection, how great is my state." Nuh Ha Mim Keller resorted to Al-Ghazaalee's interpretation of Abu Yazeed's statement (w7.3, p. 858) claiming that it, "either passed his lips by way of quoting Allaah Most High, just as if he heard and repeated, 'There is no god but Allaah, so worship Me' (Koran 30:14), it would be interpreted as a quote-or...this utterance passing his lips while in a state of spiritual intoxication and being overcome by a state, since the return to sobriety obliges one to hold one's tongue from words that mislead, and while intoxicated he was unable to do so." Remember that this spiritual intoxication is one of the stations which the Sufis aim to attain through mostly blameworthy and strange ways on their road to witness the Truth!!! Even if they utter words of Kufr like "I am Allaah" in "a spiritually intoxicated state of total oblivion," it "does not entail unbelief."\textsuperscript{134} And if you want to know why these "friends of Allaah" are exempted, then the sheikh of Nun Ha Mim Keller, 'Abdul Wakeel al-Durubi, explains: "A friend of Allaah or not, some one totally oblivious is as if insane, and is not held legally responsible."\textsuperscript{135}

He is legally irresponsible if the means that lead to his unconscious are lawful, or if the person is honestly unable to ward off a strong lawful influence, or being in a situation (e.g. intense sadness or joy) which he did not choose in the first place. However, when unlawful, innovated, and mystic means are intended and followed through an organized fashion then we deal with misguidance, hallucinations, and in some cases plain Kufr.

The Sufis seek to attain their intoxicated states through their circles of innovated and unlawful Samaa' which include singing, reciting special lyrics whose literature is expressed in mystical language and set to music by various musical instruments intended to provoke among the listeners a psychic excitement so as to reach a stage of artificial ecstasy.

known as the Sufi Wajd. You see them swaying, shaking, clapping

This is the Samaa' of the Shaytaan and it affects 'Eesaa worshippers, cross-worshippers, image-worshippers, sex addicts, crack and heroine addicts, etc.

Had this been something approved by the Sharee'ah, the Sahaabah would have been the first to apply it! To the contrary, the lawful Samaa' of the Prophet and the Sahaabah was listening to the Qur’aanic recitation. The effects were described by the Allaah.

136 Wajd: A stale of excitement that arises from hearing poetry, music, drums, etc. It may involve strong motion, shaking of the body, dancing, tearing clothes, crying, etc. In some of its cases it may lead the Sufi mystic to a state of Fanaa’ (annihilation in Allaah) or less! [See Masaadir At-Talaqee 7ndaAs-Sufiyah, pp. 622-632.]

Some forms of the Sufi Wajd may arouse from irregular prose or Sufi stories. Al-Ghazaalee reported a Wajid of Al-Junayd in which he was dumbstruck: Al-Junayd took a sample of his ill sheikh’s urine to a smart doctor. Upon seeing it, the doctor said: "I see that this is the urine of ‘aashiq (a Sufi in an extremely excessive state of love to Allaah. According to the Mujatn Al-Mustalahaat As-Sufiyyah of Al-Hafnee (p. 185), it is a state of unity between the Essence of the Beloved and that of the lover necessitating that the latter is in a state of unawareness, busy witnessing in his essence the Beloved in His Essence.)" Hearing that, Al-Junayd fell dumbstruck and the bottle containing the urine fell too. When Al-Junayd asked his sheikh whether the love appears in the urine, he replied: Yes! See Ihya, V. 4, p. 338. Note: Anything opposing the Qur’aan and authentic Sunnah is rejected.

137 A detailed description of the unlawful Samaa’ is presented by Abul ’Abbaas Al- Qurtubee (578/1183-656/1239), the Maalikee and a hadeeth scholar, in his book *Kashf Al-Qinaa’ an Hukm Al-Wajd was Samaa’. See Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 79.

The believers are only those who, when Allaah is mentioned, feel a fear in their hearts and when His Aayaat [this Qur'aan] are recited unto them, they [i.e. the verses] increase their Faith; and they put their trust in their Rabb [Alone]. [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Anfaal, 8:2].

Allaah has sent down the best statement, a Book [this Qur'aan], its parts resembling each other in goodness and truth, oft-repeated. The skins of those who fear their Rabb shiver from it [when they recite or hear it]. Then their skin and their hearts soften to the remembrance Of Allaah. [Qur'aan, Soorat Az-Zwnar, 39:23].

3. Weeping and Shedding of Tears:
When the Aayaat [Verses] of Ar-Rahmaan [The One Who encompasses everything with His Mercy] were recited unto them, they fell down prostrating and weeping. [Qur'aan, Soorat Maryam, 19:58].

'Abdullaah Ibn Mas'oud was reciting verses of the Qur'aan to the Prophet and when he reached the saying of Allaah

فَكَيْفَ إِذَا حَسَّنَنَا مِن كُلِّ أَمْثَالٍ سَهْيَةٍ جَسَدَتْ نِسَاءً عَلَى هَذَا الْمَسْهِبُ (19:58)

How [will it be] then, when We bring from each nation a witness and We bring you [O Muhammad as a witness against these people [Qur'aan. Soorat An-Nisaa 4:4]], the Prophet said: "Stop!" And behold, his eyes were overflowing with tears.140

Even in this lawful Samaa' the Prophet's fear of Allaah was the perfect form of fear which called for doing what Allaah loves and abandoning what He hates. That is why when some people in Basra ('Iraaq) fell unconscious, dumbstruck or dead upon experiencing great fear when hearing an Aayah of 'Athaab (punishment) or Qur'aanic recitation, "A group of the Sahaabah and the Taabi'een such as Asraaa' Bint Abee Bakr141 and 'Abdullaah Ibn Az-Zubayr142 and

The other case is when Saalih Al-Murree recited to Abu Jahl the blind man and the latter fell down dead. Because of great exaggeration in matters of fear others were dumbstruck upon hearing the Qur'anic recitation. The opposite is the cases of those who don't feel anything when they hear the Qur'an. The best of guidance is that of Allaah's Prophet ﷺ and which influenced his Companions who did not loose their state of consciousness, yet their levels of Eemaan were affected in the best sense.
said that: "It has been said that the way [of the Sufi Gnostic to Allaah] begins in madness, proceeds to arts, and ends in quietude."\textsuperscript{145}

Dr. 'Abdul Haleem Mahmood, the Shayekh of Al-Jaami' Al-Azhar (Al-Azhar University in Egypt), related the saying of Ibn'Arabi (the so-called "Greatest Sheikh of the Sufis") that his [Ibn 'Arabi's] sheikh \textit{Al-Ghawth} (Succor) Abu Madyan is one of eighteen people (i.e. from the Sufi masters) who, "See none in the worlds but Allaah."\textsuperscript{146}

These statements and others that will come, illustrate the reality that the goal of Sufism is one, despite some of the early and recent attempts (Keller's included) to conceal their mystic ways. Al-Hussain Bin Mansoor Al-Hallaaj, was the most daring amongst the principle Sufi masters to totally unravel the secret of their journey to \textit{Wahdat Al-Wujud}, Unity of Existence. This daring led to his being beheaded. Al-Shiblee said: "I and Al-Hussain Bin Mansoor were on one thing (i.e. regarding 'Aqeedah) except that he disclosed it while I kept it concealed."\textsuperscript{147} Apparently, the heat of the sword forced him to be more cautious!

B) The Sufi master Ash-Sha'raanee relates that Al-Junayd said, "It is not recommended for the Faqeer (a Sufi or an initiate in a Sufi way) to read the books of "special Tawheed," except amongst those who believe in the truthfulness of the "people of the way" or those who are committed to them..." According to Ash-Sha'raanee, "Al-Junayd never spoke about the knowledge of Tawheed except in the innermost part of his home and after locking its doors and putting the keys under his thigh, saying, 'Would you like that people reject the Awliyaa' of Allaah ﷺ and His choicest and distinguished people, accusing them with heresy and Kufr?"

Why? Because, according to the following statement attributed to Al-Junayd, "They say certain things, which to Al-'Aammah, ¹⁴⁹ are Kufr."¹⁵⁰ To the mystic Sufis, the knowledge of importance is an inward dimension which is gained in special exercises and through spiritual struggle.¹⁵¹ Principle Sufis reported that Al-Junayd considers that, "The Siddeeq cannot be truly considered as a Siddeeq until seventy [from the] Siddeeqeen (Sing. Siddeeq) testify that he is a Zindeeq,¹⁵² because they testify according to his Thaahir (what is apparent from his condition). This is so because the Siddeeq gives the Thaahir the decree of the Thaahir (i.e. the Shares 'ah) and gives the Baatin (the inner) the decree of the Baatin (that of the inner dimension). So, they do not obscure the Thaahir by the Baatin and vice versa. Thus they testify that he is a Zindeeq in his Thaahir as they know that he is a Siddeeq in his Baatin, because they realize such a state within themselves.\textsuperscript{153}

According to the above statements one notices that:

1. The Tawheed is supposed to be a secret proposed by the elite.

2. The Sufi "Tawheed contains things which may be considered heretic and Kufr by the people of Sharee 'ah:

Al-Ghazaalee related that Al-Junayd said: "Those who are friends of Allaah and are delighted by His presence utter certain things in their talk and during their secret conversations in their solitude, which are considered Kufr by Al-'Aamah."\textsuperscript{154}

Al-Ghazaalee also related that Sahl At-Tustaree [died 283/896] said, "The scholar has three kinds of knowledge: An outer [or apparent] knowledge which he offers to the people of Ath-Thaahir; A Baatinee knowledge which he is unable to disclose except to its own people,

and a knowledge exclusively between him and Allaah which he does not disclose to anyone."155

According to Al-Ghazaalee, "Some of them [Sufis] said: 'There is a secret to Ar-Rubooobiyyah if it is disclosed, the Prophethood would be annulled; and the Prophethood has a secret if it is revealed, knowledge would become null, and there is a secret with those scholars who have knowledge of Allaah which if they would disclose, the Laws would be annulled.'"156

Note: Such concepts oppose the knowledge which "is based of the Qur'aan and Sunnah." Through mysticism, the pure and clear knowledge has been changed to become a secret dogma with branches that nullify each other!

Question: Why is it that those who are busy with the "apparent law" [as the mystics refer to the followers of the Sharee'ah] do not understand the talks, conversations, and speeches of the "friends of Allaah" (as the Sufis call their mystics)?

Ahmad Ar-Rlfa'ee, a Sufi "friend of Allaah" as Nuh Ha Mim Keller described him (x382-a, p. 1112), explained that they [people of Ath- Thaahir], "Cannot bear the meticulous speech of the 'Aarifeen'157 Note: Ash-Sha'raanee said in his Tabaqaaf: "If a mosquito lands on his body, he [Ahmad Ar-Rifaa'ee] would not cause it to fly away and would not let anyone make it to fly, and he would say: 'Let it drink from this blood which Allaah has foreordained for it.'...He used to begin whoever he meets with Salaam even cattle and dogs. Ibn 'Arabi, like some other Sufi masters, claimed that he wrote this book (Fusoos Al-Hikam) because "the Prophet [ﷺ] told him [in a dream]: 'Here is the book of Fusoos Al-Hikam! Take it and bring it out to the people so that they benefit from it..." And he brought it out, "Just as the Prophet [ﷺ] had laid it down without addition or omission..."

Ibid, p. 47 and Al-Qaashaani's explanation of the same book, p. 9. The Prophet [ﷺ] is above the spread of heresy! It is the Shaytaan who inspires such imaginations. The books of Ibn'Arabi contain many statements in which he considers everything worshipped on earth is Allaah (Al-Fuloohaat Al-Makkiyyah, 3:248) and that his heart "turned to accept every image"; it became "a monastery for monks, a home for idols, the Ka 'bah of the Taa 'if (the one in Tawaaf), the Tablets of the Torah, and the book of the Qur'aan..." [From Ibn 'Arabi's Deewaan Turjumaan Al-Ashwaq wa Muhaadarat Al-Abraar, p. 402. See Kashf, p. 152.]

Mustafae Al-'Arusi (1213/1799-1293/1876), one of the Sufi masters who once filled the post of Sheikh Al-Azhar in Cairo, said: "The 'Aarifs the one whom Allaah made him witness His Essence, Attributes, and Actions..." the morning. There are some strange concepts in the contemporary societies for animal rights, but perhaps nothing like this. This is similar to the concept of non-violence or non-injury and respect to living beings, known as Ahimsa which is common to Buddhist and JAIN ethics!

C) Al-Ghazaalee relates that Al-Junayd said, "I do not like for the Sufi to write or read because this will make him concentrate on his concern..." Another Sufi mystic, Abu Nasr At-Toosi, quotes Al-Junayd, "If you encounter the Faqeer then meet him with kindness but do not meet him with knowledge because kindness makes him delighted and knowledge makes him lonesome."

In a story related in more than one Sufi reference, it is said that Al-Junayd accepted repentance from a Mureed whose body turned black because he talked to himself and looked at something while in prayers! As a result, the Mureed body became white! The story tells that the Mureed was in a remote land. When he returned and met Al-Junayd, he told him: "Had it not been for my acceptance of your repentance, you would have stayed in that blackness until you meet Allaah!"

The Isnaad of these sayings and stories is a Sufi one, from the respected and educated men of the way!

\textbf{Al Ibn 'Ajeelah.}\textsuperscript{167} a "Principle Sufi" Speaks:

\textit{Ibn 'Ajeebah is a Shaathili Sufi master known for his commentaries on Ibn 'Ataa' Illaah's Hikam (Aphorisms). He said that "When the sheikh (Sufi mystic) sees that the person (i.e. the Mureed) is ready to join the body of the Ahbaab (i.e. the Sufi saints), he opens for him the door and says: 'Here you are, and here is your Rabb,'\textsuperscript{168} If he is thrown} into the Hadrah\textsuperscript{169} of An-Noor (one of Allaah's Names), and all the veils were withdrawn from him, he would deny the entire existence as well his own. Consequently, his existence will become annihilated into that of his Beloved; his presence will disappear in the witnessing of his Ma 'bood (i.e. Allaah) thus he composes [the following]: 'I am my Beloved and my Beloved is Me, I am the Lover and I am the Beloved, next to whom there is none.'\textsuperscript{170}

After reaching the above mystic state of Fanaa' (annihilation), the Mureed recovers and becomes in a new state in which he, outwardly witnesses the state of Jam\textsuperscript{171} and outwardly the state of Farq\textsuperscript{172} which \textsuperscript{169} Hadrah: Presence. Used by the Sufis in its general meaning, "Being in the presence of Allaah." In the school of Ibn 'Arabi, however, there are "Five Divine Presences," a metaphysical doctrine of the degrees of reality of which there are different versions. This concept is influenced by the Neoplatonic chain of "Stages or Orders of Being." [See Mu'jam Al-Muslalahaat As-Sufiyyah by Al-Hafnee, p. 237 and Shorter Encyclopedia of Islam, p. 125, edited by H.A.R. Gibb and J.H. Kramers, 4th impression, 1995. Published by E.J. Brill, Leiden, The Netherlands.] The Mureed is informed that the Hadrah is the start, then the Mukaashafah (Mystic spiritual revelation regarding the Truth [Allaah] and the Ghayb. Through this stage, things will be manifested as if he sees them by his eyes). The next state is the Ash-shaahadah (Witnessing of the Truth).

\textsuperscript{170} Ibn 'Ajeebah in Eqqaath Al-Himamfee Shark Al-Hikam, p. 113. Published by Daar Al-Ma'rifah, Beirut, Lebanon.

\textsuperscript{171} ' Jam': A Sufi term in which the Mureed sees only the Truth (Allaah), without creation. Ibid, 388. In this state the Mureed sees everything as Allaah. 'AH Noor-ud-Deen Al-Yashurfteee, the founder of the Tareeqah Al-Shaathilyyah Al-Yashurliyyah in 'Akka, Palestine said: "The one whose Jam'i is steady, will be in charge of every atom of the atoms of existence." He died in 1316/1900! See Kashf, p.218 quoting from Nafahaat Al-Haq, p.98 by Faatimah Al-Yashurtiyyah (1st. ed).

\textsuperscript{172} Farq: The mystics in the state of Jam' (which occurs during Fanaa') see only Allaah, and in the state of Farq they witness creation. After being in a state of Jam', the mystic sees both, the state of Jam' (inwardly he is in Fanaa') and Farq is only a verbal but not real one." He then recommends that statements said in the state of Jam' like: "I am my Beloved and my Beloved is Me..." and "I am my Ma’boodee (The God whom I worship) could only be said, "when he is certain that his state of Fanaa' has been established" and that he, "must not say this to anyone except the one who believes him as being in such a state, otherwise he may be subject to being killed." He brings forth the example of Al-Hallaaj and his open uttering of the believe in Wahdat Al-Wujud (the Unity of Existence) which cost him his life. That is why he said addressing the Sufi Faqeer. "Never say' I am Him (i.e. Allaah),'and beware of being other than Him." This has the same meaning as that said by Abu Al-Hasan Ash-Shaathili, the "master" of the Shaathili tareeqah which Nuh Ha Mim Keller follows: "Make the Farq on your tongue present and let the Jam’ be witnessed in your heart." So, the Sufi should address the people with the Farq on his tongue to confess of his creation before them and keep the state of Jam' concealed in his heart: He is annihilated in the Divine.

(outwardly he is created). Ibid, p, 388. This is a state higher than that of Jam’ and the mystics refer to it as the state of Baqaa' (subsistence).

175 Ibn 'Ajeebah said about Al-Hallaaj: 'The true friend of Allaah.'(1) So, Ibn 'Ajeebah accepts him and does not reject his beliefs of Kufr because he considers him a Sufi "friend of Allaah"!

Sayyed Hossein Nasr, a Sufi enthusiast to Sufism and well known by Nuh Ha Mim Keller 177 said, "All that we can do is to stress that the Sufi teachings center upon two fundamental creeds: Wahdat Al-Wujud (the Unity of Existence) and Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil178 (the Perfect Man)."

177 Nuh Ha Mim Keller introduced Seyyed Hossein Nasr as, "Author of a number Of works that are among the best available in English on the relevance of traditional atomic sciences and mystical disciplines to the situation of modern man including Meals and Realities of Islam...and Sufi Essays. The translator (i.e. Nuh Ha Mim Keller) is indebted to his writings for being among the reasons he (Nuh Ha Mim Keller) became a Muslim. While from a Shiite background, Hossein Nasr has a inner footing in traditional Islamic Knowledge than any other western interpreters of Islam, Muslim or non-Muslim, and his works are generally free of mistakes in detail found in others' books, though some passages are occasionally colored by the comparative religions approach that mars the writings off a number of contemporary Muslim intellectuals. He lives and caches in the United States," [Nuh's Reliance..., x323, p. 1095.] So, while Nuh Ha Mim Keller criticizes the translations of Sufi works by Western scholars because, "They are filled with talk like 'union with God', etc. (w7.4), and praises TS works of the Shi’ite Hossein Nasr, then it is important to reflect upon the revealing statements of Hossein Nasr regarding the true objectives of mystic Sufism.

178 Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil: In the world of Sufism, Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil is the “barrier" qualified with both the Essence of Allaah and the essence of creation (or man). And he is the one who comprises all the worlds of the Divine and that of creation, the complete and the partial. He deserves the Names of the Thaat (Allaah's Essence) and the Divine Qualities. The Sufi mystics refer to Prophet Muhammad ﷺ as being the "Perfect Man" or the "Al-Haqeeqah Al Muhammadiyyah": The Thaat (Essence of Allaah) in its first designation; to him Muhammad ﷺ I belongs all of the Most Beautiful Names [of Allaah] and that he is Al-Ism Al 'tham (Allaah's Greatest Name). From Muhammad, the entire creation, this world and the Hereafter, was brought to exist!! This is most fully described by Abdul al-Karim Al-Jeeli (d.820Hj/1417), a Sufi of the school of Ibn 'Arabi, in his Ibn 'Ajeebah relates a Sufi fabricated story in which it is claimed that the Prophet ﷺ and his companions went into a state of Wajd when he heard a poem about the Beloved (Allaah) until his garment fell of his shoulders. Thereupon Mu'aawiyah said: "How nice is your play, O Messenger of Allaah!" The Prophet ﷺ responded, "Wait! wait! 0 Mu'aawiyah! He is not noble who when the Beloved is mentioned does not shake." Then the garment was cut into four hundred pieces and distributed amongst those present.¹⁸⁰

This story is fabricated and false as agreed upon by the scholars. Even As-Sahrawardee who detailed its Isnaad doubted its authenticity and mentioned that Ahlul-Hadeeth (scholars of Hadeeth) questioned it.¹⁸² Shayekh Muhammad Naasir-ud-Deen Al-Albaanee ruled that it is a fabricated hadeeth.

Reminder: The Prophet ﷺ said:

"Whoever tells a lie against me intentionally then he will surely enter Hell-Fire."

Ibn 'Ajeebah is on the Shaathili Tareeqah. When he mentions the name of Ash-Shushtaree, he says: 'May Allaah be pleased with him." It is known within the Sufi circles, especially the Shaathiliyyah (members of the Shaathili order), that Ash-Shushtaree is a student of the infamous Sufi Ibn Sab'een who openly called for the corrupt creed of Wahdat Al-Wujud. Ibn 'Ajeebah relates how Ash-Shushtaree joined the rank of the Sufi Gnostic world. He said, "When he wanted to enter the way of the Qawm (Sufis) his sheikh (i.e. Ibn Sab'een) told him, 'You will not attain anything of it (i.e. the way) until you sell your belongings, wear a filthy garment, and a banner, then enter the market.' He went and did all of that and then asked him: 'What should we say in the market place?' He (Ibn Sab'een) replied: 'I start with the remembrance of Al-Habeeb: The Beloved (i.e. Allah). And so he entered the market raising his banner and saying, 'I start with the remembrance of Al-Habeeb' for three days. Consequently, the Hujub were rent for him and he began to sing 'Uloom Al-Athwaaq...'

What is the secret behind the markets in initiating the Sufi disciple? Ibn 'Ajeebah said, "This is what we encountered our sheikhs doing. They order the Faqeer to go into Khalwahm from the day break til"

187 He was the son of a king.
188 It is important to remind the reader that in their poetry the Sufis "employ metaphorical means" to express their creeds under a poetic license.
189 Hujub (Sing. Hijaab: Lit. A 'veil' or 'partition'): To the Sufis the Hujub (materialistic, mental, and spiritual) hinders the mystic from "arrival" to Allah Through the Sufi ways of self-strive, hunger, seclusion, sleeplessness, wondering, going to the markets in the ways they describe, etc., the disciple may achieve; Jathbah (attraction) from Allah that will rend all the veils and consequently he will witness the unveiling of the Divine secrets and the realities from the bidder world of Al-Ghayb. With more Sufi-styled spiritual striving he may gradually reach his goal of Fanaa'.

194 Because it occasions a stillness like death. To the Sufi devotee this represents the initiating of the state of Jathb: "Divine attraction" which will disturb his human equilibrium, and make him lose connection with the surrounding environment. He will traverse the world of the Ghayb until he reaches the Names of Allaah after which he may be effaced in the manifestations of Allaah's Thaat (Essence)!. [See Waleyullaah Ad-Dahlawee in Al-Kibreet Al-Ahmar wal Ikseer Al-
Akbar, p. 77, from Kashf, p. 396.]

195 Faith: Is the opening of the manifestation of the Ahadiyyah (Oneness) of Allaah's Thaat (Essence). It is the continuous stay in the state of Jam' with complete annihilation of all human qualities. The Ahadiyyah in the mystic terminology is the absolute Thaat free from the Names or Attributes or any of their effects. [See Abie Khazzaam'sMu'jarn Al-Al-Faath As-Sufiyyah, p. 39, and p. 134. Simply, the Sufi has reached the "Presence of Allaah's Thaat".
High Allaah is above what they attribute to Him. [See Al-Futoohaat Al-Ilaahiyyah, p. 338.]
B) Ibn 'Aieebah. Ibn 'Ataa' Illah.¹⁹⁶ and Some Members of the Shaathili Order:

Ibn 'Ajeebah's Eeqaath Al-Himam is the most widely-known commentary on Ibn 'Ataa' Illah's Hikam (Aphorisms). Ibn 'Ajeebah relates through one of his sheikhs (Al-Darqaawee) that Al-Faqeeh Al-Banaanee said: "The Hikam of Ibn 'Ataa' Illah had nearly come to be a Wahy (Revelation), and had it been permissible to perform the Salaat (Prayers) in something other than Al-Qur'aan it would have been allowed using the words of Al-Hikam [of Ibn 'Ataa' Illah]," or as he said.³⁹⁷

Ibn 'Ajeebah speaks about the secrets of the Sufi order that they relate to "the secrets of the Thaat (Allaah's Essence) and the lights of the Sifaat (Allaah's Attributes) through which the Truth was manifested in the perceptible existence. Ibn 'Ataa' Illah indicated this matter in his

Taaj-ud-Deen Ibn 'Ataa' Illah Al-Iskandaree. A Sufi on the Shaathili Tareeqah. Ir. Nub Ha Mim Keller's collection of his biography we read: "Sufi Imam and author of al-Hikamal-'Ata'iyya [The aphorisms of'Ata'] one of the greatest works of the Shadhili tariqa, in which he was the second successor to Imam Abul Hasan al-Shadhili himself... Among the words he conveyed from the founder of his order were, This path is not monasticism, eating barley and bran, or garrulousness Q-affectation, but rather perseverance in the divine commands and certainty in the divine guidance.' ...But his true legacy lies in the path he served and the disciple: he left to further it, their hearts opened to the knowledge of Allah Most High through jinns instruction in the mystic way, which his Hikam and other works amply attest to his profound mastery of it."(emphasis added). He died in Cairo in 709/1309. [The Reliance..., K56, p. 1053.] Follow what comes and compare with the practices and sayings of the mystics from the Shaathili and other orders!

saying: "The entire being is darkness, however, it was lit by the manifestation of the Truth in it." 198

One wonders about the secrets of the Thaat! How is it that these people know the secrets of the Thaat which are only known to Allaah? They say that it should be kept with its people, the Sufi cult. Otherwise the story of Al-Hallaaj still hangs on their hearts. Ibn 'Ajeebah said: "And Al-Hallaaj,-may Allaah be pleased with him,- said:

'I am You without any doubt
Subhaanak 200 is Subhaanee 201
Your Tawheed is my Tawheed and disobeying You is disobeying me.

Glorified be He whom his Naasoot (creation, human qualities) made manifest the secret of His shining and piercing Laahoot (the Divine). 202 He then appeared in His creation manifested in the image of the one who eats and drinks.

Even His creation was able to see Him with their own eyes like the moment an eyebrow sees an eyebrow [emphasizing certitude].'

199 From the words of Ibn 'Ajeebah!
200 Subhaanak: Subhaana Allaah.
201 Subhaanee: Refering to himself. Since he and Allaah are the same (!) then making Tasbeeh of him is the same as making Tasbeeh of Allaah. Declaring that he as Allaah) is far removed from every imperfection. Allaah is above what they Attribute to Him.
202 Laahoot and Naasoot are terms of Christian origin refering to the dwelling of the Laahoot (God) m the Naasoot (i.e. 'Eesaa !!!
And because of the unraveling of such matters and other similar ones, He (Al-Hallaaj) was killed."\(^{203}\)

So, what is the "safe" way out for them to express themselves? Ibn 'Ajeebah described earlier: A mixture of both qualities, one for the people (Farq) and a state of Jami' and this is to be concealed. The 'Aarif, however, is the one who reached his Fanaa' when he realized the illusion aspect of the state of Farq (creation). Ibn 'Ataa' Illaah said, "It is not the existence of any being alongside of Him (Allaah) that veils you from Allaah, for nothing is alongside of Him. Rather, the illusion of a being alongside of Him is what veils you from Him."\(^{204}\) Ibn 'Ajeebah explains, "Nothing veils Him, because He manifested Himself through everything, and before anything, and after everything, nothing is manifested alongside of Him, and in reality there is no being other than Him.\(^{205}\) So, He is not veiled from you; rather you are veiled from looking at Him because of your belief in Al-Ghairiyyah \(^{206}\) and the attachment of your heart to materialistic things. Had your heart been attached to the Al-Mawla (Protector) and you \(^{206}\) Al-Ghairiyyah: from Ghayr (other than). The Sufis call this rank, "The identity of Allaah and the beings," because in it the existence of Allaah in the images c: what is manifest [corporeal or personal] and in the universe is concealed. completely turn away from As-Sawiyy207, you would then look at the Noor of Al-Haqq (The Light of Allaah) shining in the manifested universe and what has been veiled from you by the way of illusion becomes an evident and witnessed reality. So, people see but do not recognize, they are still in the sea but do not feel it..."208

Now link this Shaathili concept to the following interpretation (rather distortion) of Allaah's saying:

Verily! He it is Who is Surrounding all things! [Qur'aan: Soorat Ash-shura 41:54].

'Ali Muhammad Wafa 209 from the chain of the Shaathili order and a Ghawth, said, "Just like the surrounding of the sea water with its waves in sense and in image, for He is the reality of everything and He is the essence of everything and everything is Him and His quality. So understand!" His father Muhammad Wafa, another Shaathili so-called Ghawth said, "The Truth [Allaah] told me: '..Nothing is like you, you are the essence of My Reality...To you goes back every affair [for decision]."210

208 Eeqaath Al-Himam, pp. 64-65. Of course he excludes the 'Aarif who is not veiled by anything because Al-Ghairiyah is absent from the belief of the 'Aarif. To him the 'Aarifun (Sing. A late Sufi, Muhammad Bahaa'-ud-Deen Al-Beeta r (d.1314/1896), explains: "All images are incorporated in Allaah's existence like the folding of the sea waves, they all perish in the sea; they are its essence. Thus the manifested is the essence of the Manifest: There is Allaah and nothing else: there is neither Hulool (indwelling of Allaah in creation) nor Ittihaad (union: between Allaah and the created)..."211

Let us leave it for more daring mystics to explain for those who were reluctant to do so out of fear from the Sword of Al-Hallaaj.'Abdul Razzaaq Al-Qashaani (d. after 730/1330) a sacred saint to both the 'Sunni and Shiite mystics" who explained Ibn 'Arabi's Fusooos Al-Hikam, says: "Every creature which the eye sees is the Al-Haqq [Allaah] in essence,...but the imagination of the one who is veiled called it creation because it is shielded by a created image and veiled by it..."212 This is the same illusory concept of Ibn ‘Ataa’ and Ibn ‘Ajeebah, made simple.

Note: The sayings of this Ghawlh and that of his son are reported by Ash-Sha'ranee in his Tabaqaat Ash-Sha'raanee Al-Kubra, 2:22, two volumes in one with Al-Anwaar Al-Qudsiyyah in the margin [See Kashf, p. 174.] This Tabaqaat print as quoted in Kashf Haqeeqat As-Sufiyyah will be referred to as Tabaqaat-k Reminder: Nuh Ha Mini Keller relates (w9.5) that Ash-Sha'ranee said: "The path of the Sufis is built of the Koran and sunna..."!!!

212 Al-Qashaani in Sharh Fusooos Al-Hikam, p. 152, the Al-Mayemeniya edition Egypt. Al-Qashaani is a Sufi who is very familiar with the mystic terminology c-Ibn 'Arabi. I will remind the reader with a statement which Nuh Ha Mim Keller-introduced in his biography of Ibn 'Arabi (x265, p. 1080) to demonstrate the string: and contradictor)’ ways of the Sufis. The statement is for Ibn 'Arabi, who said: " We
The _heedless_, according to 'Abdul-Ghanee An-Nabulusi (another _Sufi_ raster) is "certain that he is another being with Allaah, qualified with attributes, named with certain names, and has acts and rulings that originate from him..." 213

_The "Grand Mystic Master" Ibn 'Arabi said: "The 'Aarifis the one sees the Truth (Allaah) in everything. Rather he sees Him the essence of everything," 214 and that "He is the essence of existence." 215_

The head of the _Shaathili_ order, Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili, said regarding creation: "I see them like scattered dust in the air. If you examine them you find them nothing." Ibn 'Ajeebah said: "Seed!" Ali commented on the saying of Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili regarding --nation: "If you examine them you will find them something, and that thing there is nothing like unto it." Ibn 'Ajeebah explains: "He means sat you find them manifestations from the manifestations of the Truth, lights from the Lights of Al-Malakoot ²¹⁶ emanating from the sea of Al-Jabaroot” ²¹⁷

C) What is "Emanation"?

The concept of "emanation" is of a Greek origin exemplified in the theory of Neoplatonism and other mystical systems according to which all things emanate from a "supreme principle, of which they are partial or inferior copies." And that the Power of the Supreme principle must emanate like the dissipation of the sun's light. Bringing things to existence is in reality a dissipation of this Power."

Al-Ghazaalee said: "The existence of everything in the world goes back to the illumination of the lights of Power; and that what is besides Allaah is merely a mark of the influences of His Powers, lacking the ability of self-subsistence, being only through His Being..." Then comes the bombshell: "So, the meaning of Ar-Ruboobiyyah is singling Allaah as the Only Being, and this is the Perfection. And every person naturally loves to have perfection for himself alone. That is why some of the spiritual masters of the Sufis said, There is no man but he has within his Baatin (inner self) the statement which the Fir 'awn spoke out in his saying:

{ أنا رَئِيَتُكمُ الأَعْلَى }

²¹⁶ Al-Malakoot: In reference to world of creation; The light emanating from the sea of Al-Jabaroot, as described by Ibn 'Ajeebah in Al-Fuioohaat Al-Ilaahiyyah in the margin of Eeqaath Al-Himam, p. 109.

I am your lord most high," however, he doesn't find a way to express it.\textsuperscript{219}

Al-Ghazaalee said: "Man appears as if he desires to be the possessor of 4r-Ruboobiyyah, rather every soul desires to say; \{ أنا ربيكم الأعلى \} I am your lord most high. However, they hide and conceal that and only the Fir'awn declared it\textsuperscript{220} This understanding of the Ruboobiyyah is closer to the philosophical concept of emanation than to its true meaning. The true belief in the Ruboobiyyah is to exclusively restrict the following to Allaah: Creation, Command [running the affairs] and ±at to Him belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. The evidences are in Allaah's saying:

\begin{align*}
\text{Surely, His is the Creation and Commandment.} & \quad [\text{Qur'aan:.Soorat Al-'Araaf. 7:54}], \\
\text{And to Allaah belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth.} & \quad [\text{Qur'aan: Soorat Al-Jaathiyah, 45:27}].
\end{align*}

The point they make is this: As it was before being created, creation is still the same; Nothing: "Nothing exists except Allaah." The Fir 'awn, according to the "great Sufi masters" realized what is inside each person: "I am your rabb, most high," because he understood the meaning of their Ruboobiyyah'. Nothing exists except Allaah!!!

D) An Innovated Shaathili Invocation

There is a Sufi invocation which represents an integral part of Nuh Ha Mim Keller's Shaathili order. The Sufis gave it their special care and wrote some commentaries about it. It is called Salaat Ibn Basheesh:221

"O Allaah! Have Your Salaat on the one from whom the secrets were split open and the lights were broke...throw me into the sea of Al-Ahadiyyah, and lift me from the mud of Tawheed, and drown me in the essence of the sea ot Al-Wahdah [Unity]..." 224

221 ' Abd-us-Salaam Ibn Masheesh (or Basheesh) Ibn Abee Bakr, a Sufi who used to live in one of the mountain caves in Morocco. He died in 622/1225. Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili is one of his disciples.

222 The Ahadiyyah in the mystic terminology is the absolute Thaat free from the Names or Attributes or any of their effects. See Abee Khazzaam's Mu'jam Al-Al-Faath As-Sufiyyah, p. 39, and p. 134. Remember the "sea and the waves and their essence."

223 This the Tawheed of the general Muslim community in which creation is distinct and separate from the Creator. It is the one in which the Ghairiyyah is recognized. To the mystics this is an illusion and imagination. Al-Ghazaalee said: "The one who does not see Allaah in everything then he sees ghairahu (other than Him)." and that "The sincere Tawheed is that only Allaah alone is to be seen in everything." [See Ihyaa', V. 1, p. 288.] He concurs with Al-Hallaaj that Fanaa' in Allaah is the Tawheed. Ibid, V. 4, pp. 245-247, and in Rawdat At-Taalibeen, p. 36, Maktabat Al-Jundi, Egypt.

Ibn Masheesh calls upon Allaah to lift him from the mud of the non-Sufi Tawheed, which is the Tawheed propagated by the Messengers of Allaah 5fe. It is the true Tawheed which is pure and free from the mystic Fanaa' and the "spiritual" hallucinations of the mystics!!! It is not the "secret Tawheed" of the special Sufis which is expressed in the last part of Ibn Masheesh's "invocation"!!! Allaah is High above what they attribute to Him.

224 In Anna/ha A!-'AliyafeeAwraadAsh-Shaathi!yyah,p. 16, Al-Maktabah Ash-Sha'biyyah, Beirut, Lebanon. See also Dalaal 'il Al-Khairaat, p. 233 by Muhammad
The invocation of Ibn Basheesh contains their belief of Al-Haqeeqah Al-Muhammadiyyah. Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili has a similar so-called invocation in which he says, "O Allaah! Have Your Salaat, Salaam, and Blessing upon our chief, possessed of glory and honor, Muhammad the Thaat 's Light and the secret flowing in the rest of the Names and Attributes." 225

Ibn Masheesh told his Mureed Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili: "Yaa(O) Abal (Abu Al) Hasan! Concentrate the sight of your eemaan (faith) and you will find Allaah in everything; by everything, with everything, before anything, after everything, above everything, below everything, near to everything, and surrounding everything through a nearness which is His Attribute, and a surrounding that is His characteristic..." 226

Nuh Ha Mini Keller's master of the way, Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili said: "We look at Allaah by the sight of eemaan and certitude, making us in no need of evidence and proof,227 and we see none from creation: Is there anyone in existence other than the True King? And if it is inevitable that there is, then it is like dust in the air, if you examine them you will find them nothing."228 bin Suleimaan Al-Jazwali, a 'reference' book known to many Sufis, if not all. Quoted in Kashf, pp. 141, 248-249, and p. 256.

225 See Afdal As-Salawaat 'Ala Sayyid As-Saudaat, p. 113, quoted in Kashf Haqeeqat As-Sufiyyah, p. 269.

226 Eeqaath Al-Himam, p. 40 and 201.

227 Remember the Sufi master takes his special knowledge by means of Kashf.

Evidence and proof from the texts of the Qur 'aan and (or) Sunnah is for the people ofSharee 'ah or Ath-Thaahir.

228 In Ibn 'Ajeebah's Eeqaath Al-Himam, p. 44.
He also said: "Some of the Awliyaa' become intoxicated from witnessing the cup before even tasting anything of it yet! What would you think [of his state] after tasting the drink and after Ar-Riyee: He then explains the meaning of Ar-Riyee: "And know that there are few who understand the meaning of Ar-Riyee: It is the mixing of the attributes with the Attributes, the character with the Character, the lights with the Lights, the names with the Names, the descriptions with the Descriptions, and the actions with the Actions." 229

This is the ascertainment of the complete Divinity!!! It is the meaning of their so-called Shuhood (witnessing) in its reality. They want it and they look for it through the Jathb and love it!

In line with his statements above, Ash-Shaathili gives a description of the Sufi men of "knowledge" as those who are "Drowned in the sea current of the Thaat (i.e. of Allaah!), and in the obscurity of the Sifaat (Allaah's Attributes), and thus they were there without themselves. They are the special of the high rank who shared the Prophets and the Messengers, may Allaah's Salaat and Salaam be upon them, in their Ahwaat" 230

Remember that "the seas and the waves" are the same essence! This is the concept of Unity of Existence in its essence!!

E) Ash-Shaathili and Al-Ism Al-A'tftam (Allaah's Most Great Name):

229 Tabqaat-K, 2:8.
229 Ibid, 2:11,
According to the former Sheikh of Al-Azhar, Dr. ' Abdul Haleem Mahmood, a Sufi himself, the following conversation took place between the disciple Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili and his spiritual master 'bn Masheesh. Abul Hasan said: "One day I was sitting before him ibn Masheesh) while he was playing with a young boy of his sitting in his lap. It occurred to me that I should ask him about the Most Great Name of Allaah (Ism Allaah Al- A 'tham). The boy stood up and walked towards me, grabbed my neck with his hand and shook me and said: 'O Abal Hasan! You wanted to ask the Sheikh (Ibn Masheesh) about Ism Allaah Al-A 'tham. What is important is that you should not inquire about Ism Allaah Al-A 'tham, but the important thing is that you be the Ism Allaah Al-A’tham. What he meant is that Allaah's secret is placed in your heart. The Sheikh smiled and said to me: Such and such answered you on my behalf." 231

Mahmood 'Abd Ar-Ra'uf Al-Qaasim said: "Ibn 'Ataa' Illaah recognizes that Allaah, the Name of the Exalted Thaat, is Allaah's Most Great Name." 232 Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili and Ibn Masheeh concur that, "The important thing is that you be Ism Allaah Al-4'tham" which, upon substituting Allaah for Ism Allaah Al-A 'tham, will read: The important thing is that you be Allaah." The underlined phrase is very clear, it does not speak about " a secret placed in the heart!"

F) The Qutub, Watty, Rings, Circles, Strange Letters, and Nuh Ha Mim Keller's Shaathitt Cult!

One of the masters of the order is Abul 'Abbaas Al-Mursee, a disciple of Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili, said, "The Sheikh Abul Hasan (i.e. Ash-Shaathili) said to me: "O Abul 'Abbaas! I took you in my company so that you become me and I become you." 233 So, the master and the Mureed affirm that they are together on one path. The Mureed became a respected master in the Shaathili order. In fact Ibn 'Ataa' wrote a special book about the virtues of Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili and Abul 'Abbaas Al-Mursee. 234

Abul 'Abbaas Al-Mursee said: "If the Truth (Allaah) would be pleased with something which opposes the Sunnah, then facing Al- Qutub-Al-Ghawth2 is preferred upon facing the Ka'bah." 234

Ibn 'Ataa' Ilaah relates the "reality" of the Waliy on the tongue of his "master" Abul 'Abbaas Al-Mursee: "And I heard my Sheikh, Aba Al 'Abbaas saying: 'If the reality of the Waliy is disclosed, he would 235 Al-Qutub (Lit. axis, pole), the spiritual axis is also called Al-Ghawth (the Succor). According to Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili, Al-Qutub is qualified with fifteen "miracles" one of which is being backed up by infallibility and mercy. [See Durrat Al-Asraar by Ibn As-Sabbaagh, p. 15, quoted in Masaadir At-Talaqee, p.56. See also Al-Hafnee's Mustalahaat As-Sufiiyah, pp. 217-218.] Upon reading the qualities of the Qittub and (or) Ghawth in the tale telling of the Sufis in Tabqaat Ash-Sha'ranee and in Al-Ghazaalee's Ihyaa', one clearly recognizes that Allaah alone possesses the powers attributed by the Sufis to these mystic figures. 236 Tabqaat-K, 2:14.

he worshipped because his attributes are from His Attributes and his descriptions are from His. Ibn 'Ataa' Illaah kept a record of the invocations of their Shaathili Order. In one of them he relates the invocation of his masters Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili and Abul 'Abbaas Al-Mursee:

"In the Name of Al-Muhaymin (the Watcher over all creatures), the All-Mighty, the All-Able...and He is my Helper ق (Qaaf), ج (Jeem), ن (Noon), ص (Saad), grant me your help and support."

Ibn 'Ataa' Illaah describes a Shaathili combination of circles, squares, rings, letters, etc. and their characteristics and usage as means of protection against evil! The combination is condoned by Abul 'Abbaas Al-Mursee and made available by Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili who inherited it from his forefathers in the order. According to Ibn 'Ataa's story, the circle is an inscription of the following:

238 What you read is not a computer virus that messed up my writing! These are plain Arabic letters. The Sufis use a system of letters and numericals in their Awaad (Sufi invocations) that cannot be differentiated from some forms of iimerology used by magicians. Even in the name of Nuh Ha Mim Keller there are the letters ح (Ha) and (read:Mim) which has no meaning whatsoever. It is just plain mysticism for the people of the "inward"!

239 Lataa 'if Al-Minan, p. 342, quoted in Firaq Mu 'aasirah, pp. 720-721.

"Tahoorun, Bad’aqun, Mahbabah, Soorah, Saghaatees, Saaqateem, Ahoonun, Qaafun, Adumma, Hamma, Haa’un, Ameenun (or Aameen)."

According to the Sufis working with these letters, they represent Names of Allaah: "Know that these names are from the Names of Allaah not on the tongue of any of the tongues of those of the world of the Mulk (creation) nor of those of the Malakoot. They are not even from any of the world languages...And therefore know that Allaah has put together all the knowledge of those of old and those of later times."

They offer their free instructions on how to engulf the circle in a square together with other five circles containing Qur’aanic Aayaat. In one of their narrations they mention that the final form may be written on white silk on the 14th of Ramadhaan and wrapped in a piece of deer skin. "And this is the sword of the Shaathiliyyah and in it is Ism Allaah Al-A ‘tham (the Greatest Name of Allaah)..."

In many ways, however, it is similar to incantations used by satanic cults in many countries.

Reminder: In Nuh Ha Mim Keller's biography of Ibn Atta', he quoted him saying:

"This path is not monasticism, eating barley and bran, or garrulousness of affectation, but rather perseverance in the divine commands and certainty in the divine guidance."

Is it magic? I only provide the reader with few samples. Their books are filled with many of their so-called invocations which when uttered, are coupled with shaking and dancing moves. May Allaah protect us from the deviant sects.

Ibn 'Ataa' Illaah said describing the knowledge of his master Abul "Abbaas Al-Mursee: "It is the collection of the knowledge in the Names, letters, and circles..."

3-Where and how did they receive such incredible knowledge?

Like many of the established orders of the Sufis they refer to the Prophet [after his death] as one of the major sources of their so-called knowledge or that the Prophet recommended some of their practices or invocations. Other ways include direct revelation from Allaah, Angels, the righteous like Abu Bakr, 'Umar, 'Uthmaan, 'AH, etc. Abul Hasan Ash-Shaaths said regarding the source of his knowledge after the death of his master Ibn Masheesh:

"Now, however, I receive [knowledge] from ten seas, five heavenly, and five earthly. As to the heavenly ones they are Jibreel, Israafeeel, 246 Although his name is mentioned in many books, there is not any authentic narration that 'Uzraa'eel is the name of the Angel of death. Allaah knows best.

Note: Ahmad At-Teejanee (1150/1737-1230/1814) to whom the At-Tareeqah At-Teejaniyyah is attributed, also claimed that their so-called thikr was put forward by the Prophet Muhammad in person!!! Their widely spread form of thikr is called salaat-ul-faatih. Many followers of this order hang it on walls and in some mosques. You may see it written on the wall facing the Imaam. Ahmad At-Teejanee said describing the virtues of this thikr: "The Prophet told him that:'Reciting it once is equivalent to six recitations of the entire Qur'aan. Then the second time he told me that reciting it once equates every tasbeeh that occurred in the Universe, and every thikr; and it is equivalent to every du 'aa' (whose matter is) small or great, and to six-thousand times of recitation of the Qur'aan because it (the Qur'aan) is considered from the Athkaar (Sing. Thikr).'" [See Jawaahir Al-Ma'aanee wa Buloogh Al-Amaanee fee Fayed Seedi Ab ee Al-'Abbaas At-Teejanee, by 'Ali Haraazim (Ahmad At-Teejanee's disciple), 1:114, Daar Al-Jeel, Beirut. 1408/1988, quoted in Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 230.] How many people from those decieved by the mystics know these matters? For those who become aware of it for the first time, I sincerely call upon them to repent to Allaah and to remove these erroneous paths from their hearts and from the walls of their homes and (or) mosques. For those who insist on sticking to the order, I call them to remember the Day when Ahmad At-Teejanee cannot help himself! May Allaah guide us to His Straight Path.

248 Ahmad Ibn Idrees, Abul Abbaas [1172/1758-1253/1837], the "master" and a Qutub of the Ahmadiyyah Tareeqah known in Morocco. He claimed that the Prophets, particularly Ibraaheem, were amazed upon hearing some

Soorat Al-Kahf:

One of Our slaves, unto whom We had bestowed mercy from Us, and whom We had taught knowledge from Us." [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Kahf, 18:65]. His story with Prophet Musa is detailed in the same Soorah. To the mystics, Al-Khidr is one of their major sources of knowledge. Most Sufis consider him alive and that their so-called Awliyaa' meet him when awake building nests of tales about their encounters with him. Some of them consider him human while oftiers see him as a spiritual phenomenon. They differ regarding his status: Some say he is a Waliy, others consider him a messenger, and some say he is a Prophet. Ash-Sha'raanee claims that Al-Khidr told him that he belongs to a rank below that of the Prophets and above that of the righteous.
[See Masaadir At-Talaqee, pp. 256-258.] Ibnul Qayyim said: "All the Ahaadeeth in which the Khidr is stated

continuous living of Al-Khidr and that he died was made by Al-Haafith Ibn Kathir in his book Al-Bidaayah wan Nihaayah, V.I, p. 311, and Al-Haafith Ibn Hajjar in Az-

Abul 'Abbaas Al-Mursee claimed that he acquired from Al-Khidr the knowledge regarding the status of the souls of the believers whether they are blessed or tormented in the Hereafter. On another note Ibn 'Ataa' Illaah relates that Al-Mursee said while pointing to his hand: "Verily! By Allaah, I never shook with this hand except [the hand of] Allaah's Messenger".

According to Yoosuf An-Nabahaanee, the chief of the Shaathili order Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili starved for eighty days whereby he 254 Yoosuf An-Nabahaanee [1265/1350-1849/1932], a Sufi who wrote extensive biographies about the Sufi so-called Awliyaa' filled with lies and fiction-like novels. His writings were characterized with hate of Shaykh-ul-Islam Iba Taymeeyah ant' Ibnul Qayyim Al-Jawziyyah. A typical account of the tales which they call Karaamaat (miracles) compiled in An-Nabahaani's books is that of ['Ali Al-'Umaree, the most famous friend of Allaah of his times who has the greatest number of Karaamaat. In one of his Karaamaat, he disciplined his servant, who is his brother-in-law, by whipping him with his penis which extended to above and beyond his {'Ali's) shoulder!!! After whipping him several times, his penis returned to its normal size.] The details of this story are mentioned by An-Nabahaaneey in his book Jaami' Karaamaat Al-Awliyaa', 2:396. Nun Ha Mim Keller mentioned An-Nabahaanee in his Reliance... and noted his book Jaami' Karaamaat Al-Awliyaa' (Compendium of the Miracles of the Friends of Allaah). Keller listed him (w9.4) as one of the scholars who "had the higher education of Sufism." We leave it for Nuh HaMim Keller to offer a Sufi interpretation of this "Karaamah" This is a degradation of Allaah's Names and Attributes whereby they consider such people as friends of Allaah. Nuh Ha Mim Keller should come out thought he attained something (in their path), only to be insulted by a woman who starved for six months inside a cave!!\textsuperscript{255}

Reminder: They claim that the Sufi order is based upon the Qur'aan and Sunnah and that, "The path is not monasticism!" Nuh Ha Mim Keller said, "The main emphasis of Sufism" is "the attachment of the heart to Allaah" (w9.4, p. 863).

Maybe Nuh Ha Mim Keller would like to find a real interpretation of his master's order, because the non-Sufis are only the people of Ath-Thaahir!!

Just a "mistake": Al—Sha'raani (Ash-Sha'raanee) said describing Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili, "He was of a great status, having a high mark showing the way to others)...Ibn Taymeeyah put the notch of the arrow upon the bow string to shoot him (i.e. Abul Hasan) but he made it come back at him."\textsuperscript{256}

The point to remember here is that Abul Hasan Ash-Shaathili died in 656/1258, five years before Shayekh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah was born (661/1263)! Was this by the way of Kashf? It seems that Ibn Taymeeyah was a constant worry on the minds and hearts of the innovators, may Allaah's Mercy be upon him.

Ibn 'Ataa' Ilaah describes the state of the one, "Who has no choice in saying what he wants in a Sufi thikr." He said: "He may utter (the following) on his tongue: 'Allaah, Allaah, Allaah,' or 'He, He, He,' or 'Laa (No), Laa, Laa,' or 'Aah, Aah, Aah,' or a voice which has no letter(s), or proceeds rashly or at random. The proper manner for him is to submit to whatever comes in (from the thikr)..."

Many similar forms of their athkaar are mentioned in their books. The Qur'aanic and Sunnah-based ways of Thikr are free from the ways of Ibn 'Ata' Illaah and the like from the Sufi orders! All Praise is due to Allaah.

4-One of the Men of Keller's Reliance... Is Always Ready!

One of the men who, "Dedicated himself to Sufism, withdrew from the world and took a wandering life" is Ahmad Zarruq. Nuh Ha Mim described him as, "One of the most renowned sheiks of the Shaathili tariqa." Zarruq's writing according to Keller, "Attest to their author's illumination in the spiritual way."

Ahmad Zarruq described himself in his poem, Al-Manthoomah 'Ala Safeenat An-Najaat, as someone who has been given the "possession of the entire East and West", running the affairs, "giving and taking souls," "bringing life to the dead hearts," and more! After such description, he "offers" his help, saying:

\end{align*}

259 See Nuh Ha Mim Keller's compiled biography of Ahmad Zarruq (x78, p. 1037).
And in case you are in a state of distress, depression and adversity, Then call [saying] "O Zarruq", and I will come in haste.²⁶⁰

Is this illumination or the darkness of Shirk?²⁶¹

Verily, those whom you call upon besides Allaah are slaves like you. So call upon them and let them answer you if you are truthful. [Qur’aan, Soorat Al-'Araaf, 7:194], Ahmad Zarruq wants people to turn to him!

Nuh Ha Mim Keller quoted Ahmad Zarruq's saying that Imaam Maalik said: "He who practices Sufism without learning Sacred Law corrupts his faith, while he who learns Sacred Law without practicing Sufism corrupts himself. Only he who combines the two Drove true."²⁶²

Attributing the above saying to Imaam Maalik is as corrupt as the Sufi concepts. This is evident in the narration by 'Abdullaah Bin Yoosuf

²⁶² Nuh Keller took it from Ibn Ajeeba's Eeqaath Al-Himaam, pp. 5-6. [See section w9.3, p. 862 of Keller's Classical Manual or Reliance...]
At-Tanneesee 263 who spoke about a man from the city of Nasiyeebeen 264 who came to Imaam Maalik and told him about "some people who are called As-Sufiyah " in the city who "when they finish eating, they start reciting poetry and dancing." 265 Maalik exclaimed: "Are they insane?" 266 The man responded: "No." Maalik exclaimed: "Are they boys?" The man replied: "No. They are old and intelligent men." Maalik said: "We didn't hear that anyone from the people of Islaam did like this [what the Sufis did]..." 267

264 Nasiyeebeen: A city on the route of caravans between Al-Moosil (in 'Iraqa) and Ash-Shaam (Syria). There are other cities carrying the same name, one in the vicinity of Aleppo in Syria, and the another on the bank of the Euphrates in 'Iraqa.

265 This is part of their initiation of what they call wqijd. They tune to musica sounds with singing and dancing.

266 Imaam Maalik didn't know what we know now from the book of Nuh Ha Meem that the way of the Sufi disciple starts with madness!

This is one of the Sufi lies about Imaam Maalik. Let us not forget that Nuh Ha Mim Keller considered that Imaam Maalik and Imaam Abu Haneefah ﷺ "had the higher education of Sufism" ²⁶⁸ The response: "Lies on top of Zarruq's fabricated story"! To Allaah we return seeking His help and we seek refuge with Him from the ways of those who distort Islaam and the stand of its reliable scholars.

Keller and the Delusions of the "Would Be Sufis"... Again!

1. 'Abdul Kareem Al-Jeeli. 269

Nuh Ha Mim Keller said, "As no age is without pretenders to Sufism, the following texts will hopefully be useful in letting some principle Sufis describe in their own words the delusions of those who consider themselves 'above the Sacred Law." 270

One of those "principle Sufis" whom Keller referred the readers to is 'Abdul Kareem Al-Jeeli. Keller quoted the following of Al-Jeeli's own words: "...I have traveled to the remotest cities and dealt with all types of people, but never has my eye seen, nor ear heard of, nor is there any uglier or farther from the presence of Allaah than a certain group who pretend they are accomplished Sufis, claiming for themselves a lineal spiritual tradition from the perfected ones and 268 Abdul Kareem Al-Jeeli (d.820/1417) is a Sufi master of the school of Ibn 'Arabi who is considered the greatest mystic by the Sufis.

appearing in their guise, while they do not believe in Allaah, His Messengers, or the Last Day, and do not comply with the responsibilities of the Sacred Law, depicting the states of the prophets and their messages in a manner that no one with a particle of faith in his heart can accept, let alone someone who has reached the level of those to whom the unseen is disclosed and who have Gnostic insight. We have seen a great number of their luminaries in cities in Azerbajjaan, Shirwaan, Jilaan, and Khurasaan, may Allah curse them all."

First: This is a plain statement from a "principle" Sufi that there are members of the Sufi orders to "whom the unseen is disclosed"!!! A reminder that Allaah said on the tongue of the most honourable Messenger ﷺ:

> قَلْ لَا أَمَالُ لِنَفْسِي فَمَا أَكَلْتُ إِلَّا مَآ أَمَسَّاهُ اللَّهُ وَلَكَ مَا وَلَدْتُ أَلْوَاتُ النَّبِيِّ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ عَمَّا كَانَ مِنْ غَيْبَةِ ﷺ

Al-Ghayb

Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): "I posses no power of benefit or hurt to myself except as Allaah will. If I had the knowledge of the Ghayb, I should have secured for myself an abundance of wealth, and no evil should have touched me. I am but a warner, and a bringer of glad tidings unto people Who believe." [Qur'aan, Soorat Al-'Araaf, 7:188].

The so-called "states" of the Sufis contrast with the state of the Prophets regarding the belief in Al-Ghayb and its disclosure! In fact Al-Jeeli's belief regarding the Prophets in general and Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, and the Last Day is stated "in a manner that no one with a particle of faith in his heart can accept."272 In his book Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil (the Perfect Man), 273 he interpreted the saying of Allaah:

"Say (O Muhammad): "Huwa (He) is Allaah, (the) One," as:

وَهُوَ أَنتَ..."

"Say (O Muhammad) that i.e. man (Allaahu Ahad) with the demonstrative letter-refers to the subject of Say and that is you (i.e. Muhammad..."
Accordingly this will read: Say (O Muhammad) Huwa (you) are Allaah, the One."274
This is the philosophy of Al-Jeeli's "Perfect Man" explicitly expressed in the title of Chapter Sixty of the same book:

[Regarding Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil and that he is Muhammad(ﷺ) and that he Corresponds to both, the Truth and Creation: "Know, may Allaah guard and protect you, that Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil (the Perfect Man) is the Qutub (the axis) around which the spheres of existence

272 I put it as in his "own words". The truth, however, is that his writings are filled with Kufr.
273 Like with some of Ibn 'Arabi's works, Al-Jeeli claimed that Allaah commanded him to expose this book of Kufr and heresy: Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil, 1:6
274 Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil, 1:31. [See Al-Fikr As-Su'i, pp. 243-245.]
from beginning to end revolves. And he is one since the being of existence and forever and ever. Furthermore, he takes on various forms and appears in churches...his original name which belongs to him is Muhammad...I met him while he was in the image of my sheikh Sharaf-ud-Deen Ismaa'eel Al-Jhubratee...the secret behind this matter is him being able to take the form of every image...don't you see him when he appeared in the image of Ash-Shiblee ( ), he (Ash-Shiblee) said to his disciple, "I bear witness that I am Allaah's Messenger." The disciple was a man of Kashf, and thus he was able to recognize him; he said, "I bear witness that you are Allaah's Messenger..."

He also said: "And know that Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil by himself corresponds to all of the existing realities." To Al-Jeeli all of the existing realities are Allaah:

"I have attained all kinds of perfection and I am the Jamaal of the Jalaal of the Al-Kull. I am not but He." The hallucinations of Al-Jeeli go as far as describing the following scenes attained by some of the Sufis:

275 is from his words. It means may Allaah be pleased with him. On the other hand, underlining some of the statements is for emphasis.

276 Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil, 2:73. [See Al-Fikr As-Sufi, p. 247 and Kashf, p. 266.]

277 Jamaal (Lit. Beauty): To Al-Jeeli, the Jamaal refers to Allaah's Names and Attributes. [See Abee Khazzam's Mu'jam Al-Mustalahaat As-Sufiyyah, p. 68.]

278 Jalaal (Lit. Majesty): Al-Jeeli considers the general meaning of the Jalaal of Allaah as His Thaat upon His manifestation in His Names and Attributes.

279 Al-Kull (Lit. the whole, all, everything): The Sufis introduced this term to be one of Allaah's Names. They mean that He is one in relation to His Thaat and Al-Kull with respect to His Names. [See Mu'jam Al-Mustalahaat As-Sufiyyah, p. 148.]

280 Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil, 1:31. [See Al-Fikr As-Sufi, p. 244.]
A. The Scene of Being: In which the Sufi witnesses that "Allaah is the essence of what is manifest and that He Himself is the One Who manifests", and that in this scene he "comes to know the secret behind which creatures worshipped other than Allaah"! In this scene "he becomes acquainted with the Divine Secret and thus he intercedes to whomever he wishes from the idolaters and Mushrikeen as well as others from the previous nations and sects. Consequently they will enter the reality of Eemaan before or after death and they will be assembled together with the group of Al-Muwahideen (people of Tawheed)!"

B. The Scene of Takween (Formation) and the Scene of the "Pervading Joy": In these scenes the Sufi would experience the "Divine Joy" which would creep into the entire body. At the end of these scenes, the effect of the spiritual joy experienced by the Faqeer would be felt in the form of ejaculation!!! Far is Allaah above what these Sufis attribute to Him.

C- The Scene of Kun Fayakoon (Be and It Is!):

In this scene, Allaah manifests Himself to the Faqeer in a "Divine Manifestation which will make him gain the full authorization in the entire Universe, the Ghayb and the witnessed. At that time, he will say to a thing be and it is..."

I end this section about Al-Jeeli by referring to his journey which is filled with spiritual Kashf and in which he described the entire lofty and low spheres of the Universe meeting all of the angels, the Prophets, and the Messengers. He comes up with the name of a prophet called Jirjees, and an angel called Tohaa 'eel both residents of the fourth heaven".

Note: And the Sufis say that every reality that is not supported by the Qur'aan and Sunnah is Zandaqah (heresy)!!!

2. Muhammad Ameen Al-Kurdi,\textsuperscript{287} 'Abdul Ghani An-Nabulusi,\textsuperscript{288} & The Naqshbandiawah\textsuperscript{289} Order:

The most dangerous in the concepts of this order is the belief in \textit{Wahdat Al Wujud}. Muhammad Ameen Al-Kurdi reported that Al- Faaaruqi An-Naqshabandi\textsuperscript{290} said: "I found that Allaah is the essence of things as was told by the masters of At-Tawheed Al-Wujudi (those who propagated the concept of \textit{Wahdat Al-Wujud}) from those of the Sufis of the later times..."\textsuperscript{291}

\item \textsuperscript{287}Muhammad Ameen al-Kurdi "was among the greatest Naqshbandi masters of the last century" as Nuh Ha Mim Keller described him in his \textit{Reliance...} (x254, p. 1076). Al-Kurdi is of a Kurdish origin. He studied at Al-Azhar University. Two of his well known books within the \textit{Sufi} circles are: \textit{Tanweer Al-Quloob fee w\textquotesingle t\textquotesingle aamalat 'Allaam Al-Ghuyoub} and \textit{Al-Mawaahib As-Sarmadiyyah fee w\textquotesingle fanaaqib As-Saadah An-Naqshbandiyyah}. Both of these works contain strange stories, corrupt beliefs, and blind following to masters of the \textit{Sufi} orders, samples of which are presented above.

\item \textsuperscript{288}‘Abdul Ghani An-Nabulusi (1050/1641-1143/1733) born and died in Damascus, Syria. Author of many books in \textit{Shares 'ah, Sufism,} and poetry. His concept about die understanding of \textit{Sharee 'ah} is a \textit{Baaini} concept.

\item \textsuperscript{289}According to \textit{Sufi} references, the \textit{Naqshbandi} order is attributed to Muhammad 3aahaa-ud-Deen Shaah Naqshband [717/1317-791/1389] of Bukhaara. It is widespread in the Caucas and Central Asia. For more details about this order see \textit{Abdur Rahmaan Dimashqiiyyah's book "An-Naqshbandiyyah,"} (2nd edition) :409/1988. Al-Kurdi also related the saying of another Naqshbandi by the name of 'Ubaid-ullaah Ahraar who said describing Al- 'Aarifas the one "whose essence and attributes became annihilated in the Essence and Attributes of Allaah such that he possesses neither a name nor a form." 292

Nuh Ha Mim Keller described Al-Kurdi as a scholar "who was among the greatest Naqshbandi masters of the last century." 293 Al-Kurdi reported that the founder of the Naqshbandi order, Muhammad Bahaa'-ud-Deen Shaah Naqshband accompanied a Sufi Dervish who ordered him to serve animals. "I (Naqshband) stayed (serving animals) for seven years, every time a dog meets me on my way I stood until he passes first so that I don't proceed before him. Then he ordered me to honestly and humbly work to serve the dogs of this (i.e. their) Hadrah 294 seeking help through them." He then told him that "You will end up to one of these dogs such that you will attain great happiness by serving him." So he worked hard until "I came to one dog and consequently a great state (i.e. Sufi state) overtook me upon meeting him: I stood before him and I was overwhelmed by intense crying. The dog rolled over on its back and raised his four legs towards the sky. 295 I heard from him a sad and touching voice and moaning. So I raised my hands with humbleness and dejectedness and started saying Aameen, until he turned around and became silent." 296!!!

Remember: The reference on the Naqshbandi order, Muhammad Ameen Al-Kurdi said:
"And know that the way of the Naqshbandi masters is the creed of Ahlu Sunnah Wa Jamaa 'ah and it is the way of the Sahaabah, may Allaah be pleased with them, in its original (way). They didn't add to it nor did they omit from it." 297

The reader is left to contemplate about whether one can rely upon the Reliance... of Nuh Ha Mim.

Al-Kurdi states that if the Mureed: "Truly strives in the Thikr" he would attain a state of observance of Allaah whereby "he would witness [Allaah] without a veil" 298!!!

A Disagreement between the scholars (of Bukhaara) regarding whether it is possible to see Allaah in this life or not occurred. They came to the Sheikh Shaah Naqshband 299 to judge between them. He told those who deny seeing Allaah [in this life],"Stay in my company for three days while you are in a state of Tahaarah (purity). After three days, a strong (Sufi) state occurred to them and they were thrown down 296 An-Naqshbandiyyah, p. 30, quoting Al-Mawaahib As-Sarmadiyyah, pp. 118-119. Al-Kurdi further adds that this founder of the Naqshbandi order found a chameleon whereby he thought to seek intercession through it. He raised his hands and the chameleon turned over on its back and directed itself towards the sky while he was saying: Aameen!!!

[unconscious]. When they woke up they started kissing his honorable foot and said: "We believe that seeing Allaah [in this life] is true. Since then they kept on serving him and kissing his blessed doorstep.\textsuperscript{300}

Like many \textit{Sufis}, Al-Kurdi does not see that man can act by his own choice. Al-Kurdi placed particular emphasis "in his training on the insight that only Allaah Most High has an effect in the world."\textsuperscript{301} He said: "The most perfect state of the \textit{Mutawakkil} (the one who depends upon Allaah) is to be between the Hands of Allaah like the deceased between the hands of \textit{Al-Ghaasil} (the one who performs \textit{ghusl}), he turns him as he wants having neither motion nor planning."\textsuperscript{302} This understanding sharply contradicts the medium course of belief of \textit{As-Salaf As-Saalih} who affirm the \textit{Mashee'ah} (Will) of Allaah and a real \textit{mashee 'ah} (will) for the \textit{'Abd} which is not independent from Allaah’s Will.\textsuperscript{303} Man, to these \textit{Sufis}, is like a feather in the wind. This is not true \textit{Tawakkul} (dependence upon Allaah) it is rather \textit{Tawaakul} (passivity of living) and \textit{Jabr} (man is compelled to do whatever he does and that he has neither the power nor the will to act). Implicit in this corrupt concept of the \textit{Sufis} is that the \textit{Kaafir} had no choice in being a \textit{Kaafir}!! Allaah said:

And say: "The Truth is from your Rabb. Then whosoever wills, let him believe, and whosoever wills, let him disbelieve." [Qur'an, Soorat Al-Kahf, 18:29],

Al-Kurdi relates more stories about the masters of the Naqshbandi order. The following is only a few:

1. Muhammad Al-Ma'sum: The Ka 'bah hugs him and kisses him with perfect eagerness. When he finished making Tawaf of the Hajj, an angel came to him and delivered to him a book from Allaah telling him that his Hajj was accepted! Not only that, but this man spoke about Tawheed when he was three years old, saying , "I am the earth, I am the heavens." 304

At times of distress, people used to call upon him for help. One time a man on a ship that was about to sink called upon Muhammad Al-Ma'sum for help. Al-Ma'sum extended his hand while he was at home with his friends and he was able to lift the ship and save it from sinking. Those sitting around him were amazed to see that his sleeve became wet after he extended his hand in the air!!! 5

This is worse than the Shirk of the pagan Arabs. At times of distress they used to sincerely invoke Allaah but after they were saved they will turn to their idols and worship them besides Allaah. Allaah says:

It is not He [better than your gods] Who responds to the distressed one, when he calls Him, and Who removes evil, and makes you inheritors of the earth, generations after generations. Is there any Ilaah [god] with Allaah? Little is that you remember! [Qur’aan, Soorat An-Naml 27:62].

2. Habeeb Allaah Jaan Janaan: It was said that when this man died, "half of the Qur’aan was lifted up to the heavens and thereupon weakness in the Deen occurred."306

3. Ahmad Al-Faarooqi: So often he goes on a journey that would take him high above the ‘Arsh™

4. Muhammad Ameen Al-Kurdi said: "Some of the sheikhs (i.e. from the Sufis) said, 'Allaah assigns to the grave of the Waliy (Sufi saint) an angel to carry out the requests (i.e. of those who call upon the dead). Sometimes the Waliy gets out from his grave and fulfills the needs by himself."308

The above statements of Shirk (and others below) by Al-Kurdi are found in his book Tanweer Al-Quloob fee Mu’aamalat ‘Allaam Al-

Ghuyoub,\textsuperscript{309} The translation of the meaning of the book's title as Nuh Ha Mim Keller put it, is, "The enlightenment of hearts: on one's dealing with the Knower of the Unseen." He also added that Al-Kurdi "studied Sacred Law and other subjects at al-Azhar, an education he turned to good account in his \textit{Tanwr al-Quloobfi Mu 'amala 'Allam Al-Ghu-youb.}"

Comment: \textit{Shirk} is made an enlightenment to the heart! We seek refuge with Allaah from the ways of deviation.

5. Muhammad Al-Kurdi outlines some of the manners describing the relationship between the \textit{Mureed} and the \textit{Sufi} Sheikh:

(a) The \textit{Mureed} should serve the sheikhs physically and with his wealth and "must not disapprove their deeds, because the one who manifests disapproval of their deeds would not be safe."\textsuperscript{310} He should not object to what the sheikh does even if it appears to be \textit{haraam} (forbidden).\textsuperscript{311} He must not say, "Why did you do such thing? Because the one who says to his sheikh, "Why?" would never succeed, for a situation may arise from the sheikh which would be blameworthy from the outward but inwardly it is praiseworthy. Then he said in a poem:

"\textbf{And be with him} (the \textit{Sufi} sheikh) like the dead before the washer (i.e. the one who washes the dead person prior to burial)..."  \textsuperscript{312}

\textsuperscript{312} \textit{Ibid}, p. 83, from \textit{Tanweer Al-Quloob}, p. 479 and 529.
(b) Part of the manners of the Mureed in his relationship towards his Sufi master is that, "He should not marry his master's divorcée or a woman whom his master was inclined towards marrying her." 313

The masters want to be treated like the special status of the Prophet (ﷺ) with respect to his wives and which was decreed by Allaah ﷻ:

And it is not [right] for you that you should annoy Allaah's Messenger, nor that you should ever marry his wives after him (his death]. Verily! That shall be an enormity in Allaah's Sight. [Qur’aan, Soorat Al-Ahzaab, 33:53].

(c) Seeking a sheikh is the same as seeking Allaah (then he cites the following Aayah as evidence):

The translation of the meaning of fat Aayah is: "Seek Al-Waseetah [the means of approach] to Him."

Al-Kurdi's understanding of Al-Waseelah is, "The company, then the Tareeq (way): He who has no sheikh his sheikh is Shaytaan.." 314 He 313 Ibid, p.86, from Tanweer Al-Quloob, p. 529. Comment: Is this Tanweer (enlightment)?

314 A similar statement is related to Ahmad Al-Rifaa'ee, the master of At-Tareeqah Ar-Rifaa 'iyyah. He added: "Whoever remembers Allaah (through thikr) without a sheikh, he neither attains Allaah or his Prophet; nor his sheikh." [See Kashf, p, 321 quoting from Qilaadat Al-Jawaahir fee Thikr Al-Ghawth Al-Rifaa'ee wa further said: "The sheikh is sought and intended, he is like the Ka'bah which they make Sujood towards it, (yet) the sujood is to Allaah, and such is the sheikh (i.e. with respect to his Mureed)." 315

Is this the Salaf’s Tafseer of the Aayahl Ibn'Abbaas said that Al-Waseelah is Al-Qurbah (drawing near) which means, as Qataadah said, "Seek Him by your obedience of Him and by acting according to what pleases Him." 316 Similarly this was the saying of Mujaahid, Al-Hasan, Abu Waa'il, Ibn Katheer, As-Sadi and Ibn Zayed. The other meaning of Al-Waseelah came in the hadeeth:

"فإنها منزلة في الجنة لا ينبغي إلا لعبد من عباد الله وأرجو أن أكون أنا هو ف준 سال لي الوسيلة نزلت له الشفاعة."

"There is a rank in Al-Jannah fitting for only one of Allaah's slaves, and I hope that I may be that one. So, whoever asks Allaah that I be given the Waseelah, he will be assured of my Intercession [on the Day of Resurrection]." 317

The Founder of the way, sheikh Naqshband, emphasizes that, "From the manners of Thikr is that the Mureed should turn to his sheikh, receiving from him, being certain that he is unable to turn to Allaah except through his mediation."

This is the same Shirk committed by the Christians! Allaah, Most High, says:

And when my slaves ask you [O Muhammad concerning Me, then answer them], I am indeed near: I respond to the invocations of the supplicant when he calls on Me [without any mediator or intercessor]. So let them obey Me and believe in Me, so that they may be led aright." [Qur’aan, Soorat Al-Baqarah, 2:282].

I end this section about Al-Kurdi and his order by quoting from Nuh Ha Mim Keller's biographic notes about this man. He said:

"He authored a number of works in Sacred Law, tenets of faith, and Sufism, and Allah vouchsafed many graces to him during his lifetime, the greatest of which was his firm adherence to the Koran and sunna."

6. ‘Abdul Ghani An-Nabulusi: Many Sufi masters claim that some of their books are directly communicated to them from Allaah. This is the case with 'Abdul Ghani An-Nabulusi's book Al-Fath Ar-Rabbaanee wal Paid Ar-Rahmaanee, in which he introduced the above claim in its introduction.

Like many Sufis, An-Nabulusi classifies the knowledge in Fiqh, Hadeeth, Tafseer, etc. into Thaahirahm and Baatinah (inward) and that the Baatini knowledge is the "one intended by the Ash-Shaari' because it is the means for salvation before Allaah “322

An-Nabulusi follows the Naqshbandi and is on the creed of Wahdat Al-Wujud:

319 According to Nuh Keller's wife, "His (An-Nabulusi's) statement is most likely valid, but not comprehensible or easily explainable except to someone like himself."! From her letter on the Internet: 'Abdul Ghani al-Nabulsi and Akram Safadi, p. 7 obtained as a print communicated via: <uhasan@ee.ic.ac.uk>. Akram Safadi's mail is <a-safadi@nwu.edu>. This is the usual trend of deception by the Sufis. When they cannot defend their masters by the way of false Ta'weel, they claim that someone like the master himself would be able to explain their innovated statements! And in case, "You cannot find someone with training in Sufism and its literature to explain it to you, then don't concern yourself with it, consider that he meant something that is not apparent to you, and stay within the confines of Islaam," as Keller's wife put it. Ibid, p. 8. The confines of Islaam do not condone such baseless defense of mystic ways!

320 Thaahirah is derived from Ath-Thaahir (obvious meaning of an expression).

When applied to the Qur'aanic and Prophetic texts, Ath-Thaahir refers to the obvious, clear and evident meaning as dictated by the context and (or) evidence from other texts of the Qur'aan and (or) authentic Sunnah or the authentically reported understanding of the righteous predecessors (As-Salaf As-Saalih).

321 Ash-Shaari': Usually applied to designate the Prophet (ﷺ) as the legislator who made manifest the laws of Allaah.

322 See Al-Fikr As-Sufi by 'Abdur Rahmaan 'Abdul Khaaliq, pp. 161-162, quoting from Aa-Nabulusi's Al-Fath Ar-Rabbaanee p. 133.
(a) He said concerning the Aayah:

> فَأَمَّا ذُكِرَ عَلَيْهِ فَإِنَّهُ لَا إِلَٰهَ إِلاّ إِلَّهَ إِلَّا أَنتَ أَسَأَلُكَ عَفَوَانِ {١٢}.

that "It means: There is no being except Allaah'." 323

The Salaf's Tafseer of this great Aayah is: "So know [O Muhammad ﷺ] that Laa Ilaaha Illa Allaah: There is not true God worthy of Worship except Allaah." [Qur'an, Soorat Muhammad, 47:19).

(b) Regarding the meaning of Allaah's saying:

> إِنَّ الَّذِينَ بِيَدِكِ بَايِعُونَكَ إِنَّمَا بِيَدِكِ يَبَايِعُونَ اللَّهَ بِذَلِكَ الْإِذْكَارَ {١٠}.

Verily, those who give Bai'a (pledge) to you [O Muhammad ﷺ] they are giving Bai'a (pledge) to Allaah. The Hand of Allaah is over their hands. [Qur'an, Soorat Al-Fath, 48:10].

An-Nabulusi claimed that in this Aayah, "Allaah informed that His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) is Allaah Most Exalted and High is He above every imperfection, the pledge to him is a pledge to Allaah, and that [the Prophet's hand] which was extended to receive the pledge is Allaah's Hand, as you heard from this noble *Aayah." 324

324 Ibid, p. 546 quoting p. 152 in Jawaab 'Abdul Ghani. Shaykh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah explained that Allaah's saying:

> إنَّ الَّذِينَ بِيَدِكِ بَايِعُونَكَ إِنَّمَا يَبَايِعُونَ اللَّهَ بِذَلِكَ الْإِذْكَارَ

[Verily, those who give Bay'ah (pledge) to you (0 Muhammad ﷺ) they are giving Bay'ah (pledge) to Allaah] is not intended to mean that you (Muhammad ﷺ) is Allaah! Rather what He meant is that you are Allaah's Messenger and the one who propagates His commands and prohibitions. Consequently, the one who gives Also when he referred to the Aayaat,

\[\text{وَأَنَا أَحْدَرْكَ فَأَسْأَلِكُمُ الْعُلُوْجَ \[23:13\].}\]

And I have chosen you [O Musa ], so listen to that which is inspired to you. [Qur’aan, Soorat Taaha, 20:13].

An-Nabulusi said "It meant: I have chosen you for Myself such that you be Me and I be you, [so listen to that which is inspired to you]: This is like the talk of the heedless person with his self, he speaks to it and it speaks to him."\(^{325}\) Knowing that the Aayah speaks of an inspired [Musa, a created and distinct being] and the one Who inspires [Allaah], something that affirms the Ghairiyyah, An-Nabulusi resorted to a cool interpretation (i.e. distortion) to fit the mystic concept of 'Unity of Existence," just like he did in "interpreting" the meaning of this concept (Keller, x5, p. 1020)! An-Nabulusi is one of Keller's principle Sufis who "had the higher education of Sufism" (w9.4, p. 863)!

you his pledge, is giving a pledge to Allaah, just as the one who obeys you is obeying Allaah...The Messenger commands whatever Allaah has ordained and thus whoever obeys him (ﷺ) has indeed obeyed Allaah. He did not mean that the Messenger is (himself) Allaah.. Just like the saying of the Prophet (ﷺ):

"من أطاعني فقد أطاع الله ومن عصاني فقد عصى الله ومن أطاع أمري فقد أطاعوني ومن عصى أمري فقد عصاني." [ibn Taymeeyah's Majmu'at Ar-Rasa'il wal Masaa'il, 1:110].

The Criteria Of The Sufi Sheikh And That Of His Mureedl

Nuh Ha Mim Keller presented a special section by Muhammad Hashimi entitled "The Purpose of Taking a Sheikh and a Path." 326 In it Muhammad Hashimi said: "The meaning of a true disciple is one who forthrightly submits himself to a living sheikh who is a guide (murshid) during the days of the journey to Allaah Most High so that 326 Reliance... w9.7, pp. 865-866.

the sheikh may put him through the stages of the journey until he can say to him, "Here you are, and here is your Lord."

Keller commented on the clear words of Muhammad Hashimi saying: "Muhammad Hashimi's above words about submitting oneself to a living sheikh refer to matters within the range of the permissible or recommended, not what contradicts the Sacred Law or beliefs of Islam...for no true sheikh countenance such a contravention, let alone have a disciple do so..."

From what has been presented so far about those whom Nuh Keller considers masters of the path, and judging by the criteria set by Keller and Ibn 'Arabi, one can say without hesitation and by a Sufi judgement, they are not true sheikhs:

327 Keller gives a cross-reference quoting the "Grand Sheikh" of Sufism, Ibn 'Arabi (s4.7, p. 790): "When we see someone in this Community who claims to be able to guide others to Allaah, but is remiss in but one rule of the Sacred Law-even if he manifests miracles that stagger the mind-asserting that his shortcoming is a special dispensation for him, we do not even turn to look at him, for such a person is not a sheikh, nor is he speaking the truth, for no one is entrusted with the secrets of Allaah, Most High, save one in whom the ordinances of the Sacred Law are preserved."

328 Ash-Sha'raanee mentioned that after he received knowledge from Allaah, Ibn 'Arabi traveled into the wilderness until he reached a grave where he stayed for sometime. After that he left the grave and began to speak such knowledge of his. Reported in Ihsaan Ilaahee Thaheer's Al-Tasawwuf, p. 111 quoting Ash-Sha'raanee's Al-Yawaqeet wal Jawaahir, V. 1, pp. 6-7, printed by Mustafa Al-Baabee Al-Halabee, Cairo.

329 This is just for the sake of argument, otherwise, Keller's words are aimed to ease the "unease" of the reader regarding what is said about submission of the disciple to the living sheikh!
1. Is he a true sheikh who takes graves and the dead as sources of inspiration?

2. Is he a true sheikh who considers the Mushriks as people of Tawheed?

3. Is he a true disciple who calls upon the dead sheikhs of the way?

4. Is he a true sheikh who resorts to magic letters and numbers and make that a way on the journey to reach Allaah?

5. Are the ordinances present in the books of the people of the Sufi path preserved by the Sacred Law? And we are not talking about one mistake or two. It is a path and a way!

6. Is he a true sheikh who teaches his disciples to walk in strange ways in the markets in order to lead them to Fanaa'?

7. Is Fanaa' an ordinance preserved by the Sacred Law?

8. Are insanity and spiritual intoxication ways that are prescribed and preserved by the Sacred Law?

9. Are the statements of Kufr present in the books of many of Nuh Ha Mim Keller's masters of higher education of Sufism a criteria that entitles them to be true sheikhs? Imam Ath-Thahabee said regarding the book of Fusools Al-Hikam of Ibn 'Arabi the master and Great Grand sheik of Sufism: "If there is no Kufr in it [Fusoos], then there is no Kufr in this world!" 330

10. Is he a true sheikh who considers Muhammad (ﷺ) that from Muhammad (ﷺ) everything was created? to be Allaah or

11. Is he a true sheikh (not to mention being a Grand Sheikh) who considers Fir'awwn a "believer"? 331

12. Is it right to believe that the world is always run by the so-called Aqtaab (Sing. Qutub) and that they are twenty-five whose names became known to the Grand Sheikh Ibn 'Arabi through a special manifestation from Allaah? 332

13. Is he a Grand Sheikh who fabricates a story and supports its conclusion that Iblees will be saved from the torment in Hell? 333

14. Is he a true sheikh who considers that holding to one creed leads to the loss of abundant good and that the person within himself should be the substance for all forms of creeds? 334

331 He considers that Fir'awwn was completely purified from evil and that he died as a believer. See Fusooos Al-Hikam, 1:201.

333 Ibn 'Arabi (the Grand Sheikh) reported it in Chapter 293 of his Futuhaatin which he claimed that Sahl Bin 'Abdullaah At-Tustaree met Iblees and that Iblees convinced Sahl that he will be saved from torment on the Day of Resurrection. Ibn 'Arabi (d.638/1240) directly relating it to At-Tustaree (d.283/896) without isnaad. See A!-Fikr As-Sufi, pp. 297-298, quoting Al-Yawaaqeet wal Jawaahir, V. 1,p. 60.

334 Ibn 'Arabi in his Fusooos, p. 113: "Be careful not to restrict yourself to a particular (or distinct) creed and deny everything else otherwise you would miss a great deal of good. Rather you would miss knowing the matter as it is. So, be within yourself an Hayouli: A substance for all the forms of creeds, for
15. Is he a true sheikh who thinks that Allaah sends down the matters of Sharee'ah upon the mystic saints (misleadingly called Awliyaa") receiving it by means of a form of Muhammad (ﷺ) or an angel in the form of Muhammad (ﷺ)? Ibn 'Arabi stated this mystic concept and followed it by saying, "And we have taken a great deal of the matters of Sharee 'ah through this form and which we knew not from the way of the scholars nor from the books..." 335

16. Is Khatm Al-Wilaayah (the end of sainthood) 336 something preached by the Prophet (ﷺ) and (or) the Sahaabah This idea was Allaah is Greater than being limited by one creed and excluding another." Then he immediately cited the following Aayah as his evidence:

"So, wherever you turn yourselves or your faces there is the Face of Allaah (and High is He above. Over His 'Arsh)." (Qur'aan, Soorai Al-Baqarah, 2:115). So, according to Ibn 'Arabi, everyone is right in his own creed! One of those who considered Ibn 'Arabi and his followers as misguided and ignorant who exited the way of Islaam is Taqiy-ed-Deen Subke e 683/1284-756/1355) to whom Nuh Ha Mim Keller (x345, p. 1102) refers, and who is certainly not a follower of Ibn Taymeeyah or Ibnul Qayyim Al-Jawziyyah. There is no doubt that he is not a so-called "Wahhaabi"! Perhaps he would have been accused of being so had he been born after the death of Shaykh Muhammad bin 'Abdul Wahaab [See 'Aqeedat Ibn 'Arabi wa Hayaatuh, by Taqiy-ed-Deen Al-Faasee (d.832/1428), checked by Shaykh 'Ali Hasan 'Abdul Hameed, p. 55. Published by Daar Ibn Al-Jawzee, Ad-Dammaam, K.SA.]

335 Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 273 quoting Ibn 'Arabi's Al-Futuooaat, 3:70-71, Daar Saadir, Beirut, Lebanon. Note: Al-Futuooaat is greatly admired by As-Sha'raanee (one of Nuh Keller's men of "higher education" in Sufism).

336 Which means that the Awliyaa' have a "last Waliy," just like Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) is the Last (end) of the Prophets! This corrupt and baseless welcomed by many mystic masters each claiming it for himself. Ibn 'Arab! claimed that:\(^{337}\)

(a) The Messengers receive the knowledge from \textit{Khaatam Al-Awliyaa (the last of the Awliyaa')}.

(b) \textit{Khaatam Al-Awliyaa} directly receives his knowledge from Allaah while Prophets receive by the way of the Angel, thus giving preference to the \textit{Awliyaa}.'\(^{338}\) concept was introduced by Al-Hakeem At-Tirmithe (not the great \textit{Muhaddith Abu 'Eesa At-Tirmithe}). \textit{Imaam} Ath-Thahabee quoted Abu 'Abdur Rahmaan As-Salamee (himself a \textit{Sufi}) saying: They exiled Al-Hakeem from his hometown Tirmith and gave testimony on his \textit{Kufr} because of his books \textit{Khatm Al-Wilaayah} and \textit{'Hal Ash-Sharee 'ah}. They said that he said that "Al-Awliyaa" have \textit{Khaatam} (someone who is last) like the Prophets, they have a \textit{Khaatam}, and that he prefers \textit{Al-Wilaayah} (sainthood) over Prophethood." He left to Balkh (in present-day Afghanistan) where he was welcomed and honored because, "He was on agreement with them in regard to the Muth-hab" as \textit{Imaam} Ath-Thahabee and As-Subkee said. [See \textit{Al-'Alaam}, V. 6, p. 272. and \textit{Tahtheeb Siyar 'Alaam An-Nubalaa}, V. 1, p. 542, #2454.]

In his biography of Al-Hakeem At-Tirmithe (d.320/932?) Nun Ha Mim Keller generalized that, "He was exiled from his native Termez (Tirmith) over a book its inhabitants did not agree with..." without relating the position of the inhabitants as it is related above. He is the author of \textit{Nawaadir Al-Usool fee Ahaadeeth Ar-Rasul}.

\(^{338}\) Abul Mawahib Al-Shaathili, an Egyptian \textit{Sufi} who adopted this concept. See \textit{Taqdees Al-Ashkhaax}, V. 1, p. 83 quoting from \textit{Tabaqaat-T}, V. 2, p. 61. Nuh Ha Mim Keller quoted the same source (\textit{Tabaqaat}, Daar AI-Fikr edition) when he reported the biography of this \textit{Sufi} sage. However, he did not give the reader the information that Abu Al-Mawahib used to have his retreat on the roof of Al-Azhar Mosque and that he used to come down and dance in Al-Azhar Mosque. Question: What Did Nuh Ha Mim Keller think of the readers? The reliance in Nuh Ha Mim Keller's \textit{Reliance...} is-least to say-questionable.
Some of those who claimed to hold the mystic title of Khatam Al-Awliyaa' are:

1. Ibn 'Arabi. Some of the Sufis who came after Ibn 'Arabi considered him as Khaatam Al-Awliyaa.

2. Muhammad Wafa Ash-Shaathili (A Sufi: d.765/1355 in Egypt)

   Ash-Sha'raaneee reported that Muhammad Wafa Ash-Shaathilli said: "The Truth [Allaah] said to me: 'O Special One!...Nothing is like unto you, you are the essence of My Reality..." 339

3. Ahmad At-Teejaani: According to his disciple 'Umar Al-Futi, he was assigned to this status by Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) verbally in wakefulness and not in sleep." 340 Ahmad At-Teejaani said: "My soul

340 Umar Al-Futi (1211/1796-280/1864) was a strong adherent to the Teejaani order in West Africa. After fighting many battles against the pagans of Guinea, Senegal, and Mali, he worked to spread the Teejani order. He studied in Al-Azhar and performed Hajj and stayed in Hijaz for almost ten years. During his stay in Hijaz he met the sheikh of the Teejani order in the east, Muhammad Al-Ghali At-Teejani, who took from him a pledge to spread this Teejani order in West Africa, and he did! [See Daa'irat Al-Ma'aarif Al-IsIaamiyyah, V.5, pp. 432-433, published by Daar Al-Ma'rifah, Beirut, Lebanon; Taqdees Al-Ashkhaas, V.I, p. 85, and Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 200.] Al-Futi asserts that Khaatam Al-Wilaayah does not belong to Ibn 'Arabi but to Ahmad At-Teejani. See Taqdees Al-Ashkhaas, pp. 85-86.

Note: 'Umar Al-Futi related the story of a woman by the name Umm Ahmad Al-Kabeer whom he gave her the Tareeqah At-Teejaaniyyah (the Teejani order). When she got sick she was still calling upon 'Abdul Qaadir Al-Jeelaanee because she was then new to the new order of Teejaaniyyah. While asleep she heard a voice calling upon her to "Leave 'Abdul Qaadir and say: 'O Ahmad At-Teejani!' And Allaah will restore your health." She said that and she recovered at once!!! [See and his (ﷺ) soul are like this (pointing with his index and middle finger); His (ﷺ) soul supports the Messengers and Prophets and my soul supports the Aqtaab, the 'Aarifeen, and the Awliyaa' from eternity to eternity."

(4) Muhammad 'Uthman Al-Meerghanee As-Sudani: This man claimed that he received the title of the so-called Khatm Al-Wilaayah after meeting in a dream with the Prophet (ﷺ) and in the presence of other Prophets and Messengers. He claimed that the Prophet (ﷺ) said (about him): "All the Prophets are only a drop from your light, and that the Awliyaa' are from your light, O Khatm!" Then he told me: "O son! None has established the decree of Allaah amongst the believers after me better than you....Then he called, "O Ridwaan (The keeper of Al-Jannah from the angels)! Build gardens and mansions for my son Muhammad 'Uthmaan and his followers, companions, and the followers of his followers until the Day of Resurrection. Then he called: "O Maalik (the keeper of Hell)!". And he came. Thereupon he

Comment: The Prophet (ﷺ) used to invoke Allaah saying:

"أنت الشافي لا شافي إلا أنت" [Translator's note].

342 Al-Meerghanee: A Sufi and Mufassir, born in Ta'aif (1208/1793). He became a Sufi in Makkah, then moved to Egypt and from there he went to Al-Khatmiyyah south of Kasla in Sudan. The Sufi order of Al-Khatmiyyah is attributed to him. Many of its followers are in Sudan. See Al-'Aliam, V. 6, p. 262. This order established a great deal of Bid'ah and grave-worship in Sudan.
said: "Build in the Fire of Hell places and dwellings for the enemies of my son Muhammad 'Uthmaan..."

Note: This dream was mentioned in his commentary on the Aayah:

And We set for him a light whereby he can walk amongst men.
[Qur'an, Soorai Al-An'aam, 6:122],

The context of the Aayah compares the status of the one who was dead [without Faith by ignorance and disbelief] and then Allaah gave him life [by knowledge and Faith] and set for him a light [of Belief] whereby he can walk amongst men, with that who is in darkness (of disbelief, Shirk, and hypocrisy) from which he can never come out! So, those who knowingly take the people into the state of Shirk and corrupt concepts of belief are in opposition with the essence of Prophet Muhammad's Message of Tawheed!

(5) Ahmad Ar-Rifaa'ee was considered Khatm Al-Wilaayah by his followers:

Some of the Sufi reports give details about this master of the Rifaa'ee order. Here are a few:

344 These points (i-viii) are only a few of the Sufi tales reported in their "authoritative" references some of which are recognized by Nun Ha Mim Keller, like Al-Nabahanee's Jaami' Karaamat Al-Awliya' (y95), Al-Munawi's Al-Kawaakib Ad-Durriyyah fee Taraajim As-Sufiyyah, and As-Saiyaadee's Qilaadat
i) He spoke to his mother while in her womb.

ii) He spoke right after his birth.

iii) During the month of Ramadaan he used to stop nursing from his mother until after the breaking of the fast.

iv) His chest was opened by two angels and a dark spot was removed and washed, like what happened to the Prophet (ﷺ) in his childhood.

v) He received a written assurance from the Prophet (ﷺ) [in a dream] that he is saved from the Hell Fire.

vi) He sold someone a Palace in Al-Jannah together with Al-Hooril 'Een, rivers, trees, etc..

vii) He used to melt like lead and turn to water every time he sat to worship Allaah.

viii) He visited the grave of the Prophet (ﷺ) based upon a call from Allaah. Upon his arrival the grave opened and the Prophet (ﷺ) extended his hand for Ar-Rifaa'ee to kiss and that this took place in front of seventy thousand people including 'Abdul Qaadir Al-Jeelanee and others. Those who deny the story, according to the Rifaa'ee followers, are misguided or hypocrites, and that denying it may lead to an evil end!

Like many Sufis the Rifaa’ee order (and Nuh Ha Mim Keller) claim that Ahmad Ar-Rifaa'ee is descendant of the Prophet (ﷺ), a claim that is strongly disputed by the reliable Muslim historians and Muhadditheen like Ath-Thahabee, Ibn Katheer, Ibn 'Imaad, Ibn Al-Atheer, Shams-ud-Deen Naasir Ad-Dimishqee, and others. Even As-Subuki and Ash-Sha'raanee who are specialized in the biographies of the Sufis did not relate this claim. The only "evidence" for the Rifaa'ee order that Ahmad Ar-Rifaa'ee belongs to the Family of the Prophet (ﷺ) are strange dreams reported by As-Saiyaadee in Qilaadatul Jawaahir. 345 In our times Nuh Ha Mim Keller introduced a person called sheikh Yoosuf Ar-Rifaa'ee as a "descendent of the Prophet; (ﷺ) through the friend (wall) of Allaah Most High, sheikh Ahmad Ar-Rifa'i). 346 Within the Sufi circles, linking "masters of the way" to the Family of the Prophet (ﷺ) is a common habit. They even claimed that 'Abdul Qaadir Al-Jeelaanee, who is of a Persian origin, is a member of the Family of the Prophet (ﷺ). 347

(6) And others!

It is time to apply Ibn 'Arabi's criteria which Nuh Ha Mim Keller used in reference to who constitutes a true sheikh:

"When we see someone in this Community who claims to be able to guide others to Allaah, but is remiss in but one rule of the Sacred Law—even if he manifests miracles that stagger the mind—asserting that his shortcoming is a special dispensation for him, we do not even turn to look at him, for such a person is not a sheikh, nor is he speaking the truth, for no one is entrusted with the secrets of Allaah Most High save one in whom the ordinances of the Sacred Law are preserved."? (From Keller's Reliance..., s4.7). 348

Is Nuh Ha Mim Keller willing to apply the above criteria upon the mystic sheikhs mentioned above? May Allaah guide Nuh Keller to the truth and bestow upon him the courage to denounce what he wrote and what he propagates.

A Special Case: Ash-Sha'raanee and Nuh Ha Mim Keller

In the Biography of Ash-Sha'raanee, Nuh Ha Mim Keller said: "He was also a sheikh and adept in Sufism, among its outstanding Arab spokesmen showing unity between law and way (i.e. Sufi path) in works that have remained popular to this day." 349

348 Ibn 'Arabi claimed that Al-Futoohaat Al-Makkiyyah was "Divinely dictated" to him. [See Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 277 quoting from Ibn 'Arabi's Al-Futoohaat Al- Makkiyyah 3:456.]

349 Keller's Reliance..., x!7, p. 1023.
One of the most popular references in the world of Sufism is Ash-Sharbeeenee's book Lawaaqih Al-Anwaar Fee Tabaqaat Al-Akhyaar best known as At-Tabaqaat Al-Kubra. Ash-Sharbeeenee described it by saying: "This is a book in which I have summarized the biographies of a group Tabaqaat (successive generations) of Awliyaa' who are examples to be followed on the way of Allaah ﷺ.

Is this true? The following are only few of Ash-Sharbeeenee's Sufi "Examples":

1. Muhammad Ash-Sharbeeenee:
   - When his son Ahmad became weak and was about to die, and when 'Uzraa'eel came to seize his soul, the sheikh (i.e. Ash-Sharabeeenee) told him (i.e. 'Uzraa'eel), "Go back to your Rabb (Allaah) and review the matter with Him because the decree [of his death] was abrogated. 'Uzraa 'eel returned and Ahmad recuperated and lived for thirty years after that."

2. 'Abdullaah Al-Basri:
   - Whenever he left his khalwah (spiritual solitude) and passed by a dry [leafless] tree or by someone affected with a disease except that the tree leafed and the person recovered.

350 A Sufi mystic who, according to Ash-Sharbeeenee, was fluent in all languages. He died in 920/1514. [See Taqdees Al-Ashkhaas, V. 1, p. 148, quoting from Tabaqaat-T;]

351 Abu Muhammad Al-Qaasim Bin'Abdullaah Al-Basri, one of the "Sufi sheikhs" from 'Iraaq. Ash-Sharbeeenee described him as the man qualified to do strange and amazing things. Ibid, pp. 148-149, from 1:128 in the Tabaqaat-T. Note: Ahmad At-Teejani states that the Sufi Waliy after reaching the state of falh, "Not only renders the leafless tree leafy but if he wishes he may make it produce at once." According to the "great master" At-Teejani, the same thing applies to the dead; if he (the Sufi Waliy) wishes he may give life to the dead and may call upon the dead (body) and it will quickly respond to him even if it were decayed. [See Taqdees Al-Ashkhaas, V. 1, p.150 and 153, quoting JawaahirAl-Ma'aani Fee Paid Abee Al-
3. Ash-Shuwaymee granted ten years of his age to his Sufi companion Abu Madyan (a Sufi Ghawlh praised by Ibn 'Arabi). When he died, Ash-Shuwaymee came and spoke to him while he was laid on the washing stand, saying: "How did you die? By the Might of my Rabb had I been present with you, I would not have let you die!" 352

4. Ibraaheem Aj-Matbuli 353 interceded for someone with his dead father. The son and 'sheikh' Al-Matbuli stood by the father's grave and Al-Matbuli called upon the father in his grave. "When he stood up straight, the 'sheikh' told him, 'The fuqaraa' came interceding seeking your pleasure to be bestowed upon this son of yours. Thereupon he said, 'I make you to be witnesses that I am pleased with him'."354

5. 'Abdul Azeez Ad-Deereenee 355 one day received "sheikh" 'Ali Al-Mileejt. 356 Ad-Deereenee slaughtered one of his chicken and his wife

When the meal was presented, "sheikh" 'Ali said [to the chicken]: Hish! And behold! The chicken jumped running. Thereupon he said: "The soup should be enough for us. Don't be disturbed."] 357

Allaah, Most High, says:

أو أتخذوا من دون أن آتىهم ملكاً أو ملكيتاً، فإن الله هو شريكهم، وهو الذي يعطي الحياة إلى الموت والموت، وهو قادر على كل شيء.

Or have they taken [for worship] Awliyaa' besides Him? But Allaah, Alone, is the Waliy [Protector, etc.,] and it is He Who gives life to the dead, and He is Able to do all things. [Qur'aan, Soorai Ash-Shura, 42:9].

The Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said:

الحبة السوداء شفاء من كل داء إلا السام

"The black seed is healing for all diseases except As-Saam" 'Aa'ishah said, "What is As-Saam" He (ﷺ) said, "Death." 358

Many people swear by him, call upon him at times of distress, and make tawaaf around his grave especially when they celebrate his birthday. He died in 675/1276, and was buried in Tanta (Egypt). One Sufi order known as Al-Ahmadiyyah is attributed to him. It is not the same Ahmadiyyah Al-Idreesiyyah which is attributed to Ahmad Bin Idrees (d.1253/1837 and was buried in Jeezan, Arabia). [See Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 68.]

357 Taqdees, V. 1.p. 153, from Tabqaat Ash-Sha'raanee, 1:172.

358 An agreed upon Hadeeth from the way of Abu Hurairah. The text is from the narration of Aa'isha has in Saheeh Al Bukhaaree, V. 7, #591. In Many texts from the Qur'aan and Sunnah besides the two mentioned above clearly state that death has no cure and nothing can ward it off when it approaches. These texts do not contradict the Sign which Allaah assigned to 'Eesaa in support of his Messengership to the Children of Israel:

> And will make him (Eesaa) a Messenger to the Children of Israel [saying]: "I have come to you with a Sign from your Rabb (Allaah), that I design for you out of clay, as it were, the figure of a bird, and breath into it, and it becomes a bird by Allaah's Leave; and I heal him who was born blind, and the leper, and I bring the dead into life by Allaah's Leave. [Qur'aan, Soorat Aal-'Imraan,l-A<)}.

'Eesaa never claimed that he had a constant ability and self-existing powers to execute some of the cases mentioned In the above Aayah, All are restricted by the clear statement, "By Allaah's Leave". Many Sufis claim to have reached levels in their sainthood in which they possessed the power to give life to the dead and that they do it whenever they wish! Also, the Sign of giving life to the dead was special to 'Eesaa and it is not an inheritable matter. In addition, the Signs bestowed upon him were of limited nature aimed at establishing the evidence against the denial by the Children of Israel. Add to this the fact that in these Signs there was a response to the challenge by the Children of Israel and hence a victory to the truth of Tawheed. In no way could the special case of 'Eesaa be compared with the aimless and self-oriented acts claimed by the mystic so-called Awliyaa'.

Considering the Khawaariq as the basis upon which someone is qualified to be a Waliy is wrong, because not all of the Khawaariq are Karaamaat? It is known that the Shayaateen (Sing. Shaytaan) are keen about diverting people to worship other than Allaah. These use many Khawaariq in order to deceive people in the process of spreading Shirk in all of its forms. Priests and monks are assisted by Shayaateen and perform "Khawaariq" on T.V.! Perhaps they would love to get some of these mystics as "honourable guests" on their shows.

359 At the time of Prophet 'Eesaa, people were good in Medicine. Allaah, the All-Mighty, gave 'Eesaa the ability to cure people by wiping his hand on them. Not only that, but he was able by Allaah's leave to bring life to the dead by speaking to them. There is no Medicine that can stand to face such miracles. That is why the miracles given to 'Eesaa were suitable to the attitude of people at his time. In the time of Prophet Musa however, magic was widespread. That is one reason why Allaah gave Musa some miracles the effects of which looked like magic in order to defeat the magicians and hence the arguments of those who supported them. The pagan Arabs, on the other hand were proud of their eloquence and fluency in the Arabic language. They considered eloquent speech to be the greatest quality of a person. Muhammad (peace be upon him) came with Allaah's revelation, the Qur'aan, as a challenge to the masters of the Arabic language and speech. All praise is due to Allaah. [See Tafseer Ibn Katheer (SooratAal-'Imraan^o.y), Aayah 49. See also Shaykh Ibn 'Uthaymeen's BaoM/-Ma//oo/j#l6, pp. 8-9.]

360 Khawaariq: That which transcends the conceivable or the rational.

361 Karaamaat: Noble miracles with good objective (s) bestowed upon a righteous Muslim fortified with correct 'Aqeedah, free from innovations, having true 'Eemaan and piety. See Al-Falaawaa, V. 14, p. 314, by Shaykh-ul-Islaam ibn Taymeeyah and Al-Minwaafaqaat, V. 2, p. 262 by Imaam Ash-Shaatibee; Published by Daar Al-Ma'rifah, Beirut, Lebanon.
6. Some Sufis believe that their Awliyaa' have the ability to guide the hearts of people just by looking at them.

Ash-Sha'raanee related that most of the teachings of one of his “sheikhs”, Muhammad Ash-Shinnaawi, were done by means of his sight. When the "sheikh" would pass by a highwayman, he would look at him, and right away he would follow the sheikh, being unable to pull himself away from him.

Ash-Sha'raanee relates the ability of the mystic "sheikhs" to take away the Eemaan from the hearts?

1-One Sufi by the name of Ibn Labbaan defamed Ahmad Al-Badawi (the 'great' Sufi Waliy). As a result he was deprived of the Qur'aan and the knowledge he possessed. He kept on seeking the help from the Awliyaa” but in vain. They took him to Yaaqut Al-'Arshee, one of the students of Abul 'Abbaass Al-Mursee Ash-Shaathili (mentioned earlier). The latter went to Ahmad Al-Badawi's grave and spoke to him, asking him to restore the man's capital [Qur’aan and Knowledge]. Al-Badawi conditioned his approval on the man's repentance. He repented and consequently he restored to him his capital!

2-A man rejected the yearly Mawlid (Birthday) celebrations organized for Ahmad Al-Badawi. As a result Eemaan was taken away from him.

See Taqdees Al-Ashkhaas, V. I, p. 163, quoting Tabaqat-T, 2:115. Al-Futi At-Teejaani claimed that there are those from the Awliyaa' whom, "If he would look at you with one look of satisfaction, you would enjoy a state of happiness after which there would never be any misery."! Ibid, p. 164. On the other hand, Abu Madyan claims that Allaah has promised him that whoever looks at him or whomsoever is in the range of his sight, Allaah would forbid his body from the [torment] of Hell Fire! Ibid, p. 164, quoting from Jawahir Al-Ma'aanee, 2:108.
He sought the help of Al-Badawi who requested that he should repent and never return to stand against the Mawlid. The man repented and Eemaan was restored to him. When Al-Badawi asked him about the reason behind his rejection of the Mawlid, the man complained about the mixing of the sexes by the site of the grave (where they perform Tawaaf)! Al-Badawi "justified" the matter by saying that, "This kind of mixing occurs in the Tawaaf and nobody stops it." 363 Then he said, "By Allaah's Might none who commits sin in the celebrations of Mawlid except that he repents and his repentance becomes a good one." 364 He further added, "Knowing that I am able to take care of the beasts [in the land] and fish in the sea and protect them from one another, would Allaah then render me unable to protect those who attend my Mawlid (Birthday celebration)?" 365

Ash-Sha'raanee relates that Ibraaheem Al-Matbuli 366 "used to grab his beard and say, 'How terrible the suffering of Egypt will be after this beard: (For) I am a security for it (Egypt)." 368

363 Such a justification by the grave-worshippers is wrong because it is obligatory that women have their own Mahaarim when they set for Hajj and (or) Umrah. Such a condition is not met by those who visit the graves and make tawaaf around them.

364 This is an open call to commit sins and wrong-doings in the so-called Mawlid because they claim that repentance is accepted on this occasion.

365 Ash-Sha'raanee relates stories centered around graves and worshipping the dead and which are plain Shirk! The dead have power, able to take care of the animal kingdom, and want people to turn for them seeking refuge and help! Allaah is above what these mystics say. He is the One Who deserves to be worshipped Alone. He has no partners or associates, to Him belongs the Commandment and Creation.

366 The Egyptian Sufi of his times (d.877/1472).
Ash-Sha'raanee's "sheikh", 'AH Al-Khawwaas 369, said: "If the Qutub and his group cease to bear the calamities for the world, it would be annihilated in a moment."!

Ashb-Sha'raanee related that a group of Sufis came asking for a miracle from 'Abdul Azeez Ad-Deereenee who responded by saying, My Sons! Is there a miracle greater than the one by which Allaah made us grasp the earth causing it not to sink." 370

Allaah says:

367 Meaning after his death.
368 Taqdees, V. 1, p. 173, quoting from Tabaqaat-T, 2:76.
369 As-Sha'raanee spoke about 'All Al-Khawwaas Al-Barsalee, his illiterate "sheikh," as one who, "Used to speak precious words about the meaning of the Qur'an and Sunnah which baffled the scholars." Ash-Sha'raanee stayed ten years in his sheikhs company. Taqdees, V. 1, p. 63 quoting Tabaqaat-T, 2:130-146, and Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 184. Ash-Sha'raanee asked Al-Khawwaas about the Sufis who do Khawaanq yet they don't pray nor fast. He replied; "Those have specially designated places where they perform Salaat, like the Ar-Ramlah Mosque, Al-Quds, the mountain of Qaaf(), and other honored places." The reader is called to imagine how they "move" between these places, and when it conies to the mountain Qaaf, may be Nuh Ha Mim Keller, as a defender of mysticism, could provide an answer regarding mountain Qaaf.
370 Taqdees, p. 174, from Tabaqaat-T, 1:172.
Verily! Allaah grasps the heavens and the earth lest they move away from their places, and if they were to move away from their places, there is not one that could grasp them after Him. Truly, He is Ever Most Forbearing, Oft-Forgiving. [Qur’aan, Soorat Faaiir, 35:41].

Ash-Sha'raanee and Yoosuf An-Nabahaanee reported that right after the Sufi master Yoosuf Al-'Ajmee Al-Kuraanee left his retreat, he saw a dog. Consequently all the dogs became under its leadership and it took care of their needs. When that dog became ill the other dogs gathered around him crying in sadness. When it died, the dogs cried and kept on visiting its grave until they all died! No comment!

Ash-Sha'raanee and An-Nabahaanee related that the mystic scholar 'Eesaa Bin Najem stayed on one ablution for seventeen years: One day he made Wudu' before Salaat Al- 'Asr and asked that nobody wake him up. He woke up after seventeen years and performed Salaat with that Wudu. 372

They [Ash-Sha'raanee and An-Nabahaanee] also reported that "sheikh" Hussein Abu ‘Ali who is "one of the perfected 'Aarifeen used to go into a great deal of "changes/development": "Sometimes you visit him and you see him a soldier, then you enter and you find him a lion, then you come again and you find him an elephant, then a young boy, and so forth. He stayed for forty years in a retreat with a blocked door and one window allowing air in!" One of his companions, known as "sheikh 'Ubayeed", was able to pull out a boat from the midst of mud after pulling it with a rope tied to his testis!

They reported the case of Muhammad Al-Hanafee, the man of "Karaamaat and one of the most noble "sheikhs of Egypt," as they described him: Before his death he asked Allaah, Most High, to try him with, "Lice, sleeping in the company of dogs, and to die by the side of the road." According to the report, his request was granted!

The following stories of the Sufî Awliyaa' are according to Ash-Sha'raanee and (or) An-Nabahaanee:

1-'Abd Ar-Rahmaan Al-Majthoob, a Shaathili Waliy, cut his penis in his early state of Jathb (see earlier), and used to sit on sand in the summer and winter.

2-Ibraaheem Al-'Aryaan (d.930Hj?) used to "Mount the pulpit giving sermons while being naked ...He used to fart in the presence of the respected elders of the Sufis, swearing that it was the fart of such and such."!

3-'Ali Waheesh one of the Majaatheeb (who experienced the state of Jathb) used to stand in front of a whore house interceding for the male-sinners; he would hold some of them until his intercession is accepted! It is even reported that this man used to engage in shameful acts with donkeys! 377

4-Sheikh Muhammad Al-Hadaree used to give many Friday sermons in many places at the same time. One time, and after praising Allaah and magnifying Him, he said, "And I bear witness that there is no Ilaah for you but Iblees, may the Salaat and Salaam be upon him!" 378

Comment: In his biography it is mentioned that when his haal (a Sufi state of sainthood) intensifies, he used to say terrible words about the Prophets and others that no one could stand to hear!

5-Sheikh Jaakeer would not take the covenant with any Mureed (disciple) until, "I see that his name is recorded in the Preserved Tablet..." 379

The Sufis assert that the Sufi Qutub, Ghawth, etc. posses the ability to know matters of Al-Ghayb, run the affairs, grasp the universe, see through the inside of the earth, know the thoughts of people, and even "they are preserved" from committing acts of disobedience. Practically, this means 'Ismah (Infallibility). The origin of this concept is embedded in the essence of Shee'ism. The following section, therefore, is allocated to this issue.

Special Section: Sufism and Shee'ism

1-Some of the Sufis use the word عصمة 'Ismah: infallibility” and others say, حفظ hifth: preservation” from committing acts of disobedience, but as Ash-Sha'raanee put it, "The difference is in the wording not in the meaning." 380

Sa'eed Hawwaa, a known Sufi who died recently in Jordan, said: "Some of the Sufis consider the Karaamah (miracle) evidence for Wilaayah (sainthood), and that the Wilaayah is an indication of 'Ismah-even if they assign the meaning of "preservation" for 'Ismah.

380 Ash-Sha'raanee's Al-Jawaahir wa Durar, p. 127, Al-Matba'ah Al-Azhariyyah, Cairo, 1306/1888, quoted in Taqdees, pp. 221-222.
Accordingly, they based upon this concept the obligatory adherence to, and consultation with the \textit{(Sufi)} sheikh in all affairs, making it binding to stick to whatever he says, taking from him \textit{fatwaa}, and way of conduct regarding every matter...” \textsuperscript{381}

Al-Qushairee stated in \textit{Ar-Risaalah Al-Qushairiyyah}, that, "Know that one of the most majestic miracles which belong to the \textit{Awliyaa’} is the constant success to conduct acts of obedience and a disposition that prevents disobedience and violations." \textsuperscript{382} Further in his definition of the \textit{Waliy}, Al-Qushairee said, "Allaah does not Create \textit{Al-Kuthlaan} for him (i.e. the \textit{Waliy}): Which is the ability to disobey." \textsuperscript{383} So, according to Al-Qushairee, he is created with the inability to disobey.

In the same book, however, Al-Qushairee contradicts the above statements by saying, "It is not proper for the \textit{Mureed} to believe in the \textit{‘Ismah} of the \textit{mashaayikh} (Sing, sheikh), it is rather dutiful to leave them to their \textit{Ahwaal} (Sing, haal)." \textsuperscript{384}

On the other hand, Abu Bakr Al-Waasitee (d.320/932), one of the companions of Al-Junayd and one of those who shared in laying down many of the foundations of \textit{Sufism}, classified the \textit{Sufi Awliyaa’} into three ranks:

1 -Those having \textit{‘Ismah} from \textit{Kufir}, \textit{Shirk}, and \textit{Nifaaq} (Hypocrisy).

\textsuperscript{381} Sa'eed Hawaa's \textit{Tarbiyatuna Ar-Ruhiyyah}, p. 219, Daar Al-Kutub Al-'Ilmiyyah. 1979; from \textit{Taqdees}, p. 226.
\textsuperscript{383} \textit{Ibid}, from \textit{Ar-Risaalah}, p. 420.
\textsuperscript{384} \textit{Ibid}, p. 238, from \textit{Ar-Risaalah}, p. 743.
2-Those possessing 'Ismah from major and minor sins. 3-Those with 'Ismah from corrupt and evil thoughts!

It is important to remember the strong relationship between many of the Sufi concepts and those of the Shii ‘ah, including:

a) The dogma of 'Ismah.

b) The classification of every Islamic text into Baatin, and Thaahir and that the former is the Haqeeqah (Lit. "reality" or "truth") which is the esoteric "truth" understood by the special. The latter is the "exoteric" element referred to as the Sharee 'ah aimed for the common Muslim. Consequently, this paved the way to the distorted concept of Tahreef (distortion) mildly referred to as Ta’weel: Allegorical or symbolic interpretation of the Qur'anic and Sunnah texts. Such a phenomena is common amongst all the Baatini sects. Take for example Ibn 'Ataa' Illaah relating the interpretation of one his Sufi "masters" to the following Aayaat (from Soorat Ash-Shura, 42:49-50). 385

\text{یَبَٰہُ لَمْنُ یَشَاءُ اِنَّاثًا}

He bestows female [offspring] upon whom He wills.

The Sufi master of Ibn 'Attaa' Illaah said: "It means: the good deeds!"

\text{وُهَبَ لَمْنُ یَشَاءُ الذَّکُور}

And bestows male (offspring) upon whom He wills.

The Sufi master said: "It means: Knowledge!"

385 See Ihsaan Ilahe Thaheer's At-Tasawwuf, p. 253.
And He renders barren who He wills.

The Sufi said: "It means: Neither knowledge nor good deeds!"

And this is only one form of the Baatinee distortion of the texts and which is also widespread in the books of the Shee 'ah!

c) Like the Shee 'ah, many celebrated Sufis link their chain of Awliya' to 'Ali Bin Abee Taalib ☪. Interestingly, As-Sha'raanee related that one of the Sufis said that: "'Ali Bin Abee Taalib ☪ was raised up (unto Allaah) like 'Eesaa ☪, and he will descend like the case of 'Eesaa ☪." Ash-Sha'raanee added: "The same was said by my sheikh 'Ali Al-Khawwaas..." 386 He, As-Sha'raanee, also related that Abul 'Abbaas Al-Mursee stated that the Sufi path goes all the way to Al-Hasan Bin 'Ali ☪. 387

c) Like the Shee'ah Imaams, the Sufi masters claim that they receive the Al-Wahiy, speak with Allaah and Allaah Speaks with them without a screen, Wilaayah is higher in rank than Prophethood, know the Ghayb, etc. Ash-Sha'raanee relates through his Sufi sources that whenever "sheikh" Taaj-ud-deen Bin Sha'baan (a Sufi adept) was

asked about certain things he would respond by saying, "Wait until Jibreel comes!" 388

e) The Shee'ah believe there must be an existing Imaam (hidden or known) whose presence stabilizes the earth, establishes evidence and without him Allaah would not be worshipped on earth. Doubting or ignoring this principle is disbelief. Many of the celebrated Sufis share the same concept but they call him the Waliy. They also make it incumbent on every disciple to have a living sheikh otherwise he would go astray and misguide others.

f) The Shee'ah and the Sufis so-called Awliyaa', understand the tongues of humans, jinns, and animals! 390 Ash-Sha'raane related that their sheikh Abu Ya'za stayed fifteen years in the wilderness with the birds and lions visiting him, executing his commands, and consulting with him regarding their affairs. When he was visited by Abu Madyan (the celebrated Ghawth), he told him, "These beasts and birds found comfort in being close to me and hence they tolerated the pains of hunger for my sake." 391

388 Ibid, p. 164, quoting Al-Akhlaaq Al-Matbuliyyah by Ash-Sha'raanee, V. I, p. 454, published by Matba'at Hassaan, Cairo. For the details documenting the Sufi resources regarding the qualities of their Awliyaa' Ihsaan's At-Tasawwuf, pp. 159-179, and 186-196.

g) The basics of the Shee'ah concept of Al-Haqeeqah Al-Muhammadiyyah 392 were adopted by the Sufis, like Ibn 'Arabi, Al- Jeeli and others. This concept is that Muhammad being the perfected manifestation of the Greatest Name of Allaah, the first of creation who manifests himself in the form of Adam, Noah, Ibraheem and all of the Prophets, and finally as the last [end] of them all. The Sufis and the Shee'ah attributed to their Awliyaa' the ability to manifest themselves in different forms. Ash-Sha'raanee related that one Sufi, "Appeared to his enemies in the form of a big lion." 393 He also related that Ibraheem Ad-Dusuqi 394 as being Musa 'Ali Bin Abee Taalib  and the one in whose hands are the doors to Hell and Al-Jannah, etc. He claims, "Whoever visits me I shall make him enter the Paradise" h) The Sufis adopted the concept of Taqiyyah from the Shee'ah. This concept stands for concealing beliefs, principles, knowledge, and secrets about Allaah which Allaah Himself bestowed upon their special Awliyaa'. 395

Nuh Ha Mim Keller provides a definition title for the Sufi sheikh (w9.6) given by Ahmad Zarruq (see page 111):

The conditions of a sheikh to whom a disciple may entrust himself are five:

(a) sound religious knowledge;
(b) true experience of the Divine (!)
(c) exalted purpose and will;
(d) a praiseworthy nature;
(e) and a penetrating insight.

Someone with all five of the following is not fit to be a sheikh:

(1) ignorance of the religion;
(2) disparaging the honor of the Muslims;
(3) involvement in what does not concern him;
(4) following caprice in everything;
(5) and showing bad character without a second thought.

Ahmad Zarruq did not mention the corner stone of the relationship between the Mureed and his sheikh. Al-Ghazaalee puts it very clearly that the Mureed must "consign his entire affair to his sheikh." 396

Ash-Sha'raanee said, "If it is not possible to attend the Jum 'ah prayers with his sheikh, the Mureed should imagine being with him in whatever mosque he prays." 397

Some of them describe the status of the true disciple like the dead with his washer!

Ibraaheem Ad-Dusuqi said, "It is necessary that the Mureed should be careful not to make Ta 'weel of the obvious meaning (Ath-Thaahir) of the words of his sheikh if he commands him to do something. Rather

he should immediately carry on his command without Ta 'weel [of its meaning]." 399

Allahu Akbar! How daring! The words of the sheikh should not be subject to Ta'weel, but Allaah's Sifaat (Attributes) should be interpreted through figurative and metaphorical distortions!!!

Do you remember the words of Ar-Rifaa'ee regarding the consequences of remembering Allaah without a sheikh? He said, "Whoever remembers Allaah [through Thikr] without a sheikh, he neither attains Allaah or his Prophet, nor his sheikh." 400 Compare this with the meaning of Shirk

As-Sha'raanee said: "I heard my brother Afdal Ad-Deen,الله ﷺ، saying: "The true love of the sheikh is to love and hate things for his sake, just as it is the case with the love of Allaah ﷺ." 401

He related the manners of the Mureed towards his sheikh as laid down by Ad-Dusuqi:

1. He should be like the dead, motionless and speechless!
2. He cannot speak before him without his permission.

399 This is also common with the elders of Jamaa 'at At-Tab'eegh who follow four Sufi orders! You would not catch the scene of the Sufi pledge until you spend some years with them and until they trust you. One of their orders is An-Naqsbandiyyah!

400 See Ftn. #314.

401 Kashf, from Al-Anwaar Al-Qudsiyyah, 1:169.
3. He cannot do anything without his leave including marriage, travel, entering or leaving a place, seeking knowledge, reciting Qur'aan, making Thikr, service in the Zaawiyah etc.

Comment: The Ta 'weel of Nuh Ha Mim is requested!!!

"It is from the good manners of the Mureed to believe not that his dead sheikh does not hear him when he comes to visit him in his grave! Rather, for him to receive his sheikh's blessing, it is the good manner to believe that he is in his live state of the Barzakh, because when the slave visits the Waliy and remembers Allaah at his grave site, it is certain that the Waliy sits in his grave and remembers Allaah together with him (the visitor), as we have quite often witnessed this," Ash- Sha'raanee said.

The sheikh of Ash-Sha'raanee, 'AH Al-Khawwaas, said: "The 'sheikhs of the (Sufi) folk' used to answer their disciples from their graves, unlike the sheikhs of the fuqahaa' (scholars of fiqh) in matters of fiqh, because of the truthfulness of the faith of the disciples regarding their sheikhs; unlike the fuqahaa' Had the faqeeh been truthful with respect to his sheikh, Imaam Ash-Shaafi'ee would orally answer him and talk to him (i.e. from his grave)."

It is from the Ijmaa' (consensus) of the Sufis that:

402 Zaawiyah: Lit. a corner. In the Sufi terminology, it is their meeting place in which innovated practices of thikr, hadrah, and Sufi-dancing are conducted. It may also be a room set by or on the tomb of a Sufi saint from an established mystic order.

404 Kashf, p. 322, from Al-Anwaar Al-Qudsiyyah, 1:161.

405 Reported by Ash-Sha'raanee in his Tabqaal-M, 2:154. See Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 197.
(1) One of the conditions of loving the sheikh is that the Mureed, "Plugs his ears on the road so as not to hear anything except the words of his sheikh...and that if he remains away from the food and drinks for days, he would substitute for that by "looking at his sheikh because he is imagined in his memory."! 406

(2) "It is incumbent upon the Mureed to submit himself to his sheikh and with him he should be like the dead with his washer." 407

It is reported that 'Abdul 'Azeez Ad-Dabbaagh 408 related that one sheikh asked his Mureed, "Do you love me?" He said, "Yes, my master!" The sheikh said, "If I order you to get me the head of your father, would you obey me?" The Mureed said: "Why shouldn't I?" The Mureed left to his parents' home and found them amidst their legal sexual activity. The Mureed did not wait until they finished. He cut off his father's head and brought it before the sheikh. The sheikh said: "Woe to you! You brought me your father's head!" The Mureed said: "O Master! Yes, I did!" The sheikh responded: "Woe to you! I was only joking!" The Mureed said, "To me, however, all of what you say has no joke in it!" 409

408 An illiterate Sufi born in Fez (Morocco) in 1095/1684.
409 Reported in Al-Ibreez, p. 210, which was written by Ad-Dusuqi disciple Ahmad Bin Al-Mubaarak (1090/1679-1156/1743) who claimed to have reached the state of Ijtihaad See Al-'Alaam, 2:201-202. [See Taqdees, p. 364.]
Ibn 'Ajeebah, an educated master of Sufism, presented the etiquette followed by the disciples on their visits to the sheikh at his residences. It includes:

1. Raising their voices with Takbeer (saying Allahu Akbar) and Tahleel (saying La Ilaaha Illallaah) until they reach the Zaaawiyah.
2. Kissing the sheikh’s hand then his foot, if it is the habit of the Fugaraa’, for it is from the best [acts] of glorification.
3. Sitting before him in a state of tranquility and reverence, with their voices, and gaze lowered, and with their heads bowed.
4. They should not initiate talking with him until he does so. 410
5. Special case: If the Mureed is unable to come to his sheikh because of an illness or some other reason, "He should imagine the sheikh in his real form and descriptions before his eyes and complain to him [his case], and he will recover by Allaah's leave..." 411

Ahmad Al-Faaruqee As-Sarhindee (d.1034/1625), a Sufi from the Naqshbandee order, said, "The first Fanaa' is the Fanaa' in the sheikh, and this Fanaa' is the means to the Fanaa' in Allaah." 412

It is clear from the aforementioned statements that the Sufi sheikh as described does not lead to Allaah but to the Shaytaan. The Muslim seeks the knowledge with the scholars who abide by the teachings of 410 Ibn 'Ajeebah in his Al-Futoohaat Al-Ilaahiyyah, pp. 308-309.

411 Ibid, p. 339. A similar etiquette was set by 'Abdul Majeed Muhammad Al-Khaanee An-Naqshbandee. He added that the Mureed should continue his connection with the sheikh (present or absent, dead or alive, in the east or the west), "Until he annihilates his thaat and sifaat (qualities) in the form of the sheikh.. " As-Sa'aadah Al-Abadiyyah, pp. 22-23 as quoted in Kashf, pp. 22-23.
As-Salaf As-Saalih and he accepts what is proven by the Daleel (evidence) and respects their opinions but does not obey them blindly in what is right and what is wrong! Even the common Muslim who is unable to seek knowledge should receive it from the ones who adhere to the Salaf’s path. Those who grew up on following a Math-hab are called to adhere to the evidence from the Qur'an and authentic Sunnah and abandon the position of the Math-hab if it contradicts the evidence. This is the true respect for the sayings of the four Imaams: Maalik, Ahmad, Abu Haneefah, and Ash-Shaafi’ee, may Allaah's Mercy be upon them all, who called the Muslims to adhere to the authentic Sunnah. All Praise is due to Allaah for making the way that leads to Him easy, clear, and upright.

Al-Junayd, Ibn 'Arabi, and Nuh Ha Mim Keller's Defense of the So-called Sufi Sciences

Al-Junayd, one of the early Sufis, is considered by the Sufis of the later times as the Master of the Way. Many of them attributed to him many strange statements some of which are cited in the text above. It has been authentically transmitted that Al-Junayd stressed the principle of adherence to the Qur'an and Sunnah and pointed to the fact that all the ways (of the traveler) are blocked except that which follows the way of the Prophet Muhammad. The true way of following Prophet Muhammad is to dissociate from any saying that opposes his teachings. The statement reported by Al-Junayd in Taareekh Baghdaad is in line with the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) and, accordingly, it is accepted. Any statement that opposes it must be rejected, whether it came from Al-Junayd or anyone else.

Nuh Ha Mim Keller and Ibn 'Arabi

Nuh Ha Mim Keller and many other Sufis consider Ibn 'Arabi the Greatest sheikh and the symbol of the concept of Wahdat Al-Wujud. They consider him a friend of Allaah. Those who defend his statements of plain Kufr (Nuh Keller included: x265) often resort to the following argument laid down by Ibn 'Arabi himself:

We are a group whose works are unlawful to pursue, since the Sufis, one and all, use terms in technical senses by which they intend other than what is customarily meant by their usage among scholars, and those who interpret them according to their usual significance [which is understood by the scholars of Ilm Ath-Thaahir] commit unbelief. This is a false and dangerous argument because:

413 See an authentic transmission of his position in Taareekh Baghdaad, by Al-Khateeb Al-Baghdaadee, V. 7, pp. 241-249, Daar Al-Kutub Al-'Ilmiyyah, Beirut, Lebanon.

414 The statement between parentheses is reported by As-Syuti in his book Tanbeeh Al-Ghabee Bitabri'at Ibn 'Arabi where he related that Al-Ghazaalee stated the above statement of Ibn 'Arabi.

415 See Keller's Reliance... x265, p. 1080.
1. The books are not just a collection of technical terms, or few strange words said in states of spiritual intoxication, but rather a way and a methodology. In some places they use clear terms and in other places they state things which explain each other. It is also true that there are certain terms which the Sufis themselves do not know their meanings. Furthermore, there are magical numbers, circles and terms known only to Iblees (Satan) and his soldiers!

What is technical in the words, "He (i.e. Allaah) is the Essence of what is manifested"?

What is technical in the statement describing the 'Aarifas the "One who sees the Truth [Allaah] in everything, rather he sees Him the Essence of everything"?

What is technical in the statement: "Nothing encompasses the Absolute Ilaah because He is the Essence of things and the Essence of Himself."?

What is technical in the words: "(He: Allaah) is the Essence of existence?"

2. When Ibn 'Arabi does not want us to restrict ourselves to a particular creed then why should he bother about the misinterpretation of his "Sufi technical terminology? Remember what he said in his Fusools: "Be careful not to restrict yourself to a particular [or distinct] creed and deny everything else otherwise you would miss a great deal of good. Rather you would miss knowing the matter as it is. So, be within yourself a Hayuola (Hayuola: a substance) for all the forms of 417 Hayuola: This word is derived from the Greek (hyle) and it has found its way into Arabic as Al-Hayotila which means substance [also called Al-Jawhar (Lit. the creeds, for Allaah is Greater than being limited by one creed and excluding another."

3. When the writing of books is going to raise doubt regarding 'Aqeedah, cause fitnah, and impute Kufr (even to scholars) then:

(a) Why should they be written in the first place?
(b) Why to waste time and energy in acts that may count against the author on the Day of Resurrection? We know that the (true) Waliy does not waste his time nor does he mislead others!

4. If it is a Sufi fact that Sufi knowledge cannot be acquired through books but through kashf, hunger, sleeplessness, wandering, etc., then why should they indulge in writing?

418 Ibn Khaldoon ('Abdur Rahmaan Ibn Muhammad Ibn Muhammad, Abu Zayed), the famous historian (732/1332-808/1406) stated that the Sufi books of Ibn 'Arabi, Ibn Sab'een, Ibn Barrajaan, Ibn Al-Faarid, Al-'Afeef Al-Tilmisaanee and the like which "are filled with plain kufr" are "Tawaaleef (bad, worthless, good-for-nothing)" that should be "burned with fire and then washed with water to eliminate the trace of the inscription." He stressed that, "The elimination of such misleading creeds" should be done "for the general good of the Deen." This was reported by Shaykh Taqiyy-ed-Deen Al-Faasee (The imaam, historian, and student of Ibn Khaldoon) in his book Al-'lqd Ath-Thameen Fee Taareekh Al-BaladAl-Ameen, V.2, pp. 178-181, published by Muassasatur-Risaalah, Beirut, 1406/1986. Verily, those who disbelieve (Kafaroo)

Ibn 'Arabi said \(^{420}\) in his interpretation: "Those who concealed their love."

It is the same to them whether you [O Muhammad] warn them or do not warn them, they will not believe.

Ibn 'Arab! said, "It is the same to them whether you warn them or you do not because of what we made with them: neither to believe in you nor to take from you. Rather they surely take from Us."

Allaah has set a seal on their hearts and on their hearings.

The Greatest Sheikh concluded, "Theirs will be a great 'Athaab" and he commented, "meaning from 'uthoobah." The word 'uthoobah means pleasure!

6. Like other Sufi writers, Ibn 'Arabi claims that his books were approved by Allaah and (or) His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)! Does Allaah or the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) approve books that are filled with Bida', Kufr, and hallucinations? Ibn 'Arabi said regarding his book Al-Futoohaat Al-Makkiyyah, "By Allaah! I have not written a single letter of it except by way of Divine dictation and Ilqaa Rabbaanee (i.e. Allaah putting it into my heart), and Spiritual Inspiration into my heart. In summary, this has been the case; though we are neither legislating-Messengers nor Prophets under legal obligation." 421

Imaam Ath-Thahabee, رحمه الله تعالى said: "This man (referring to Ibn 'Arabi) adopted sufism, went into seclusion and into states of hunger and sleeplessness; certain things that were blend with the world of imagination, thoughts, and meditation, opened up for him. Such a state intensified until he saw, through the power of imagination, things which he thought to be externally existing (i.e. real). He heard an address from his light intellect which he believed to be from Allaah. It never really existed in the outside. He even said, 'The Truth (Allaah) did not acquaint me with His writing to make my Wilaayah {to be in charge) over the universal affairs realized until He told me that I am the Khaatam Al-Wilaayyah Al-Muhammadiyyah, and that was in Fez in 559/1164. On one night of a Thursday in the year 630/1233, the Truth [Allaah] acquainted me with His Authorization (written) on a white paper and I copied the text [which stated]: "This is a Noble Authorization from the One Who is Full of Kindness and Most Merciful to Fulaan (i.e. Ibn 'Arab!)..." At the end it read: "The Wilaayah should not distract him (Ibn 'Arabi) from reporting, monthly, before Our Hands until the end of his life span...!'" 422 Imaam Ath-Thahabee then reported some of Ibn'Arabi's poems in which he clearly states the concept of Wahdat Al-Wujud, for example:

Creatures have held [certain] tenets regarding the Ilaah And I have believed in all of what they have believed in .423

Comment: Remember the Hayoutal

422 This account was heard by Al-Faasee from his Shaykh Al-Haafith Ibn Al-Muhib, Muhammad Bin Muhammad (731/1331-788/1386), who in turn heard it from his Shaykh Imaam Ath-Thahabee. Taqiy-ed-Deen Al-Faasee said that Ath-Thahabee reported it in his book Taareekh Al-Islaam. [See Al-I'qd Ath-Thameen, V. 2, pp. 188-189.] Later I found the same report in Ath-Thahabbe's Taareekh Al-Islaam, the forty sixth generation who died in the period of 631-640HJ, pp. 354-355, published by Muassasatur-Risaalah (4th edition), 1418/1988. It is interesting to note that Imaam Ath-Thahabee himself confirmed that Al-Haafith Ibn Al-Muhib directly heard Ibn 'Arabi's biography from him (i.e. Ath-Thahabee) (p. 359).

Al-Qaadee Badr-ud-Deen Bin Jamaa'ah described chapters in Ibn 'Arabi's book Fusoos Al-Hikam as: "Bid'ah, Dalaalah, abominable, and an ignorant thing..." He then added, "Far is the Messenger of Allaah from approving, in a dream, what disagrees with and opposes Islaam. Rather what is [mentioned] in these chapters is from the Wasaawis Ash-Shaytaan (whispers of the Devil), his affliction, deceit, and fitnah..."

7. What is technical about Al-Jeeli (a "principle Sufi") seeing in the seventh heaven a prophet whose name is Jirjees?

8) What is technical regarding the Sufi Mi'raaj (journey to the seven heavens) of the Sufi "scholar" Ibn Qadeeb Al-Baan in which he 425 The response of Ibn Jamaa'ahh is documented in Al-Faasee's Al-'lqd Ath-Thameen, V.2, pp. 171-172.

426 Interestingly, modern day cultists like those of the "Order of the Solar Temple," "Heaven's Gate," etc. look for spiritual infusion and enlightenment from the heavens or "celestial beings or objects" in the "Next Level"! Also, there is a striking similarity in some of the rules governing the relationship between the leader and members of his cult and those between the Sufi muree'd and his mystic sheikh. For example in matters of blind following, full surrender, secrecy, etc. See Newsweek, Int'l edition, issue of April 7, 1997,pp. 18-27, and that of April 14, 1997, pp. 13-18.

427 Abdul Qaadir Bin Muhammad, Abul Paid (971/1563-about 1040/1630), was born in Hamaah, Syria and traveled to Makkah and Cairo. He wrote Al-Futoohat Al-Madaniyyah in the manner of Ibn 'Arabi's Al-Futoohaat Al-Makkiyyah, Al-Mawaaqif Al-Ilaahiyyah and other books. [See 'Alaam, V. 4, p. 44.]
was able to penetrate all the veils and meet Allaah ﷺ? He even described Allaah as being like "ice" and that he was able to kiss Him! All of this was in the presence of the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ)!

According to the Sufis, the non-Sufis may be unable to understand these words and consequently level accusations of Kufr against the person who utters them! Maybe the Sufi "possessors of Knowledge" who know the "Science of the Inward" will come for the rescue! Allaah is High and Above what the unjust say.

9) What is technical about the Sufi understanding of the term Athwaal This is a major source of Talaqee (acquisition of knowledge) within the Sufi higher ranks. The term Atthwaaq, the plural of Thawq, is a so-called Sufi state (haal) of direct experience of the Divine (Allaah) which strikes the heart of the Sufi enabling him to differentiate between the truth and falsehood without resorting to books or other means. According to the Sufi-Athwaal extraordinary states are revealed, and one perceives what the insight of others is blind to. The non-Sufi scholars are unable to understand what the Sufis gain from their states of Athwaal Al-Ghazaalee claims that the reality of Prophethood and its particularity can be realized through Thawq and that this cannot be achieved except through the Sufi ways. The state of Thawq can judge but it cannot be judged.

From the Athwaal of Ibn 'Arabi:

a) Saying that Adam ﷺ, "Knew all of Allaah's Names by means of Ath-Thawq," based upon his interpretation of Allaah's saying:

428 Ibn Qadeeb Al-Baan in Al-Mawaaqif Al-Ilaahiyyah, pp. 171-172 with the full account being quoted in Masaadir At-Talaqee, p. 303.
429 Masaadir At-Talaqee, pp. 542-543.
"And Allaah taught Adam the names of everything..." [Soorat Al-Baqarah, 2:31].

Ibn 'Arabi said, "It means the Divine Names which were directed at creating the realities of existence. Amongst them were those directed at bringing the angels into being..." 430

b) Addressing Prophet Muhammad(ﷺ), Allaah, Most Exalted, says:

\text{لَعَفَّرَكَ عَلَى مَا أَفَاتَكَ مِنْ دُنْيَا وَمَا آتَيْتَ...} \quad \text{[التثنى من الآية 2]}.

That Allaah may forgive you your sins of the past and the future. 431 [Soorat Al-Fath, 48:2].

Ibn 'Arabi's "direct experience" led him to the following conclusion: It is the Ummah of the Prophet Muhammad(ﷺ) that is addressed in the above Aayah! The phrase "of the past" meant the Ummah of the Prophet(ﷺ) from the time of Adam till the advent of the Prophethood of Muhammad(ﷺ), while the phrase "and the future" refers to the Ummah from the Prophet's time till the Day of Resurrection! 432 He claimed that the Ummah of Prophet Muhammad(ﷺ) extends from the 430 Al-Futoohaat Ai-Makkiyyah, 2:120 and 2:71, quoted in Masaadir At-Talaqee, p.597.

431 In the hadeeth reported by A!-Mugheerah, the Prophet(ﷺ) used to offer night prayers till his feet became swollen. Somebody said to him, "Allaah has forgiven you your faults of the past and the future." On that, he(ﷺ) said: "Shouldn't I be a thankful slave of Allaah?" [Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. 6, #360.]
432 Al-Fuioohaat Al-Makkiyyah, 2:138-139.
time of Adam till the Day of Resurrection and that the Prophet (ﷺ) directed the prophets before him to convey the Da'wah to the people because he (ﷺ) was [present as] a Prophet "when Adam was [in a stage of formation] between that of water and clay"!!! 433

These are fabricated lies, because:

i) They contradict the Qur'aan and authentic Sunnah. We read in the Qur'aan that Allaah, Most High, said:

\text{And ask forgiveness for your sin, and also for [the sin of believing men and women.} \quad \text{[Soorat Muhammad } 47:19].

In fact, when the Aayah signifying: "That Allaah may forgive you your sins of the past and the future..." was revealed, the Sahaabaah said: "Congratulations and happiness for you, but what reward shall we get? So, Allaah revealed:

433 So, if you read that Ibn 'Arabi believes that Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) was "Sent to all mankind entirely (ila jamie' al-nas kaffatan)" as in the Reliance ..., x265, p. 1081, then be aware that, according to Ibn 'Arabi, "all mankind entirely" is mankind since Adam until the Day of Resurrection.

434 See Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. 5, Hadeeth #490
ii) It is a fact that Allaah does not forgive the entire sins of the Ummah of Muhammad(ﷺ). This is confirmed by many texts in the Qur’aan and Sunnah and it is a matter of unanimous assertion.

iii) The Prophets before Muhammad(ﷺ) were not his representatives. The Sufis like Al-Jeeli, Ibn 'Arabi, and the rest who follow their path assert the baseless concept of Al-Haqeeqah Al-Muhammadiyyah, and that he (ﷺ) is Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil comprising all the Divine Names. It is not strange for them, therefore, to claim that all the prophets were representatives of the Prophet Muhammad(ﷺ) iv) Prophets were specially assigned to their respective nations. We read in the Qur’aan:

And verily, We have sent among every Ummah (nation, community) a Messenger [proclaiming]: "Worship Allaah [Alone] and avoid [or keep away] from At-Taaqhut (all false deities)." [Soorat An-Nahl 16:36]. The Prophet (ﷺ) clearly stated this fact in the hadeeth that was related by Anas Bin Maalik in which the Prophet (ﷺ) described his Israa (Night Journey) to the seventh heaven. He(ﷺ) said:

... ثم انطلقنا حتى انتهينا إلى السماء السادسة، فأتيت على موسى - عليه السلام - فسلمت عليهَ، فقال: مرحبا بالأخ الصالح، والنبي الصالح، فلما حاوزته، بكى، فنودي: ما يبكين؟ فقال: هذا

"...Then we traveled on till we reached the sixth heaven and came to Musa عليه السلام and I greeted him and he said: 'Welcome unto righteous brother and righteous Prophet.' And when I passed [by him] he wept, and a voice was then heard saying, 'What makes you weep?' He said: 'My Rabb [Allaah], he is a young man whom You have sent after me [as a Prophet], and the number of those who will enter Al-Jannah from his Ummah is greater than those who will enter it from my Ummah...'. 435

The Prophet ﷺ explicitly stated this matter in another hadeeth that was related by Ibn 'Abbaas

The Prophet(ﷺ)said: "Nations were displayed before me, one or two Prophets would pass by along with few followers. A Prophet would pass by accompanied by nobody. Then a big crowd of people passed in front of me and I asked, "Who are they? Are they [followers] from my Ummah?' It was said, 'No. It is Musa and his followers.' It was said to me, 'Look at the horizon.' Behold! There was a multitude of people filling the horizon. Then it was said to me, 'Look there and there about the stretching sky!' Behold! There was a multitude filling the horizon. It was said to me, 'This is your nation out of whom seventy thousand shall enter Al-Jannah without reckoning...'. " 436

v) Finally, the statement that Muhammad (ﷺ) was an existing Prophet when "Adam was [in a stage of formation] between that of water and clay" is a fabricated hadeeth. Another related hadeeth stating that, "I (i.e. Muhammad (ﷺ) was a Prophet when neither Adam, nor water or clay were in existence," is also fabricated.437

The above are only samples of the so-called Sufi Athwaaq: "States arising from direct experience."

Such concepts have alarming consequences. Anyone could come up with any false creed claiming that it came to him through "direct experience". People have different Athwaaq. So, according to whom things should be judged? Those who believe in Wahdat Al-Wujud, have their own Athwaaq as to their creed. Christians have their own Athwaaq according to their beliefs and their ways of meditation and self-discipline. Similarly the Buddhists, Krishans, cultists, etc.

437 Adapted from Shaykh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah's Majmoo' Al-Fataawaa, V.10, pp. 313-316. Ibn Taymeeyah checked these statements and declared that they are fabricated. His judgment was further confirmed by Az-Zarkashe, Ibn Hajar, As-Sakhawee, As-Syuti, Az-Raqaanee, Al-Albaanee and many other Muhadditheen. [See Shaykh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah wa Juhooduhi fit Hadeeth wa 'Uloomihi, by Dr. 'Abdur Rahmaan Al-Faryawaa'ee, V. 2, pp, 449-453 (1st edition), 1416/1996, published by Daar Al-'Aasimah, Riyaadh, KSA-]
According to Ibn 'Arabi: "It is unlawful to read [the Sufis'] books unless one attains to their level of character and learns the meaning of their words in conformity with their technical usages, neither of which is found except in someone who has worked assiduously, rolled up his sleeves, abandoned the wrong, tightened his belt, filled himself replete with the outward Islamic sciences, and purified himself from every low trait connected with this world and the next. It is just a person who comprehends what is being said and is allowed to enter when he stands at the door." \(^{438}\)

According to Nuh Keller, these "existential qualifications" are also needed on top of the "hermeneutic [interpretive, explanatory] requirements" in order to be able to comprehend the works of Ibn 'Arabi.

However, what is the benefit of his works if their "outward meaning" is not what is intended? Such complexities contradict the essence and the objectives of our Deen.

What is the benefit of being replete with "outward Islamic sciences" when all that is required to attain the "special Sufi knowledge" is some of the Baatinee states of Kashf, Athwaaq, Wajd, etc. Remember that, according to Ibn 'Arabi, scholars of the "outward Islamic sciences" who interpret the Sufi works according to their "usual significance" commit Kufr!

Does the Ummah need such a mystic "knowledge" which, least to say, casts doubt on its holder? In this regard, Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar considered that introducing Ibn 'Arabi's concepts (from Al-

\(^{438}\) Reliance..., x266, p. 1082.
Into Al-Fairuz-abaadee's book "Sharh Al-Bukhaaree" was dishonoring to the reputation of the book. Does Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar fit the "hermeneutic and existential qualifications" of Ibn'Arabi?

But Nuh Ha Mim Keller and defenders of Ibn 'Arabi and his Sufi cult emphasize that without a "guide in reading the sheik's thought, one is adrift of one's own guesswork." and that one needs to travel the way of Ibn 'Arabi and see what Ibn 'Arabi sees, otherwise the "fact remains that one does not see."

Perhaps Nuh Keller forgot to add: "Unless one receives a state of "direct experience"!

One of the "guides" whom the defenders of Ibn'Arabi consider to be "interpreters" of his works is the "Waliy" 'Abdul Wahaab Ash-Sha'raanee!

Comment: The aforementioned works of Ash-Sha'raanee speak for themselves! They constitute a basic reference to the Sufis.

What about a Sufi guide to read the following "Prophetic encounter" reported by one of the close students of Ibn 'Arabi by the name of As-Sadr Al-Konawee? He said:

439 The linguist, Majd-ud-Deen Muhammad Bin Ya'qub Al-Fairuz-abaadee (d.817/1411), the author of Al-Qaamoos Al-Muheet, 441 Reliance..., x265, p. 1080.

442 See Al-Munawee in Shatharaat Ath-Thahab, V. 5, pp. 192-193.
"Our sheikh Ibn 'Arabi was able to meet whichever he wished from the souls of the Prophets and those of the awliyaa' who passed away. Then he mentioned three ways for conducting such meetings:

(1) The Prophet's soul taking an ideal form similar to the one in which the Prophet took when he was in this world.
(2) If Allaah wills, He would make the Prophet appear to Ibn'Arabi during his sleep,
(3) If Allaah wills, Ibn 'Arabi would slough off his haikal (form) to meet the Prophet.

Nuh Keller introduced a contemporary specialist on Ibn'Arabi works and thoughts by the name of Mahmud Mahmud Ghurab.

443 Muhammad Bin Ishaaq Al-Konawee Ar-Rumi (d.673/1275), one of the close students of Ibn 'Arabi. He lived for more than sixty years. He was born in Konya, Turkey, where he also died. He willed to be buried with his sheikh Ibn 'Arabi. [See Tabaqaat Al-Awliyaa' by Ibn Al-Mulaqin, #152, pp. 467-468, published by Maktabat Al-Khanjee, Cairo, 1393HJ. See also Al-'Alaam, 6:30.]

444 See M-Munaawez in Shatharaat Ath-Thahab, V. 5, pp. 196,

445 The Sufi defenders of Ibn 'Arabi (like Ash-Sha'raanee, Al-Kawtharee, Al-Ghurab, Keller, etc.) claim that the corrupt beliefs of Ibn'Arabi were inserted in his books by his foes and (or) by the Jews. The fact, however, is that: a) The statements of kufir in his works as in the Fusoos and Al-Futoohaat are defended by the Sufis as something which the scholars of the "outward Islamic sciences" do not understand! The advocates of the concept of Wahdal Al-Wujud confirm it as it came in Ibn 'Arabi's work and criticize those whom they classify as "scholars of sharee'ah" (like Ath-Thahabee, Ibn Hajar, Ibn Taymeeyah, Ibn Katheer, and many more) who rejected this kufir! Their basic argument is that his concept could only be understood by those who qualify in understanding the mystic "inward" knowledge as has been discussed above. In this regard, Ahmad Bin Kamaal Basha (d.940/1533), a defender of Ibn 'Arabi, states that, "Unlike the people of kashf and baatin (Inward), people of the "Outward" are unable to comprehend the intended meaning of some of issues in Al-Fusoos and Al-Futoohaat." He then concluded that, "In this respect, the one who does not know the intended meaning must keep silent, because Allaah, Most High, said:

> وَلَا تَفْسَفْ مَا لَمْ تَحْيَى بِهِ عَلَمَ ِإِنَّ السُّمَوَّاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَالْمَاءُ وَالْمَوْؤُودُ ِكُلُّ أُولِي الْقُرْءَانِ كَانُوا عَنْهَا مُسْتَوِيٌّ

The hearing, and the sight, and the heart, each of those you will be questioned
[by Allaah]. [Soorat Al-Israa', 17:36],

The people of Alh-Thaahir neither wrote nor propagated the corrupt thoughts and concepts of Wahdat Al-Wujud. Those great scholars of Islaam who exposed such false concepts should, according to Ahmad Basha, have kept silent! This is a great misguidance.

c) A striking attestation by the Faqeeh, writer, and Hanafee scholar, Shaykh 'Ali Tantawi states that his grandfather copied Ibn 'Arabi's own handwritten manuscript of Al-Futoohaat in Konya before he moved to Damascus in 1250/1524. Shaykh At-Tantaawi, together with his uncle 'Adbul Qaadir At-Tantaawi, checked the published print of Al-Futoohat against his grandfather's copy, page by page, and both were the same. Shaykh At-Tantaawi admits that he is not proud of his grandfather's mistake. Also he admits that he spent a lot of time on reading Sufi books and that he asks Allaah's forgiveness for that. This attestation came in response to a letter that was sent by this Mahmud Mahmud Al-Ghurab defending Ibn 'Arabi and the Sufi gnostic knowledge which Al-Ghurab describes as "Knowledge of the Secrets" which is exclusive to its people from the so-called Sufi awliyaa [See Fataawaa 'Ali At-Tantawi, pp. 77-85, published by Daar Al-Manaarat, Jaddah, KSA (4th edition), 1411/1991.] So, Al-Ghurab, who Nuh Keller introduced as a "specialist" on Ibn 'Arabi's thoughts, is a contemporary advocate of "Secret Knowledge".

d) In a conversation between Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar and his Shaykh Al-Haafith M- Mujtahid Sirraaj-ud-Deen 'Umar Bin Raslaan Al-Bulqeenee (724/1324-805/1403), about Ibn 'Arabi and Ibn Al-Faarid (another mystic believer in Wahdat Al-Wujud.

d.632/1235), Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar did not see any difference between their paths or Damascus-based "specialist" published more than twelve books on the sheikhs thoughts.\textsuperscript{446} The fact, however, is that he reiterated many of the same corrupt concept of mysticism. The following are only samples of Al-Ghurab's defense of Ibn 'Arabi's thoughts and of mystic sufism. I present it so that the reader be aware of the common misleading concepts of the mystics [Ibn 'Arabi and the like] which they always defend by saying: "Without a master with whom to read these texts..., one is in danger of projecting one's limitations into the author."\textsuperscript{447} Let's examine a "specialist" reference accepted by Nuh Keller, i.e. Mahmud Al-Ghurab.

1. He stated that, "The majority of the Scholars were drowned in the "Seas of Mystical Sciences"\textsuperscript{448} brought forth by Ibn 'Arabi. They have

\begin{itemize}
  \item[446] He also worked to interpret the Sufi terminology and compiled in this regard a book entitled \textit{Sharh Kali/naat As-Sufiyyah Wa-Rrad 'Ala Ibn Taymeeyah}. He came up with strange concepts and interpretations. a sample of which is presented above.
  \item[447] \textit{Reliance...}, *265, p. 1081.
  \item[448] In the world of sufism, such Sciences ('Uloom) pertain to the \textit{ma'rifah} (knowledge through direct experience) of Allaah (His Thuaf, Sifaat, Af'aal), and of matters beyond the ordinary range of perceptions (e.g. secrets of the self, the heart,...). Such a Sufi insight is attained through successive states (ahwaal) and maqaamaat (stations) all the way to \textit{fanaa'}. Elements of this \textit{ma'rifah} include Muhaadarah (Being in the presence of Allaah), Mukaashafuat, Fuloohaat (disclosures of the hidden), Thawq (immediate experience of the Divine), Wajd (ecstasy), etc. According to Al-Ghazaalee the successful are those who "perceive lost their way while attempting to undo and explain the symbols of his indications and allusions pertaining to the "Sciences of Athwaaq".

2. This man's understanding of the Shares 'ah is strange. He defined the Sharee'ah as, "Specific Laws and different mathaahib" and that. "Allaah did not put an end to the differences in matters of the Outward Law (Al-Hukm Ath-Thaahirif' due to a, "Hikmah (Wisdom) known to Allaah and as a Mercy bestowed upon His slaves."

Accordingly, Al-Ghurab deduced that, "The disagreement between the Sufis and their opponents will not be abolished until the Day of Resurrection." He argues that its elimination is inconceivable because it deals with the "interpretation of 'Uloom Al-Athwaaq whose meanings are neither defined by the meanings of words and numbers, nor are they distinguished by the aspiration of souls and imaginative thoughts."

First: It is true that the sharee 'ah contains specific Laws, but the mathaahib have never been a shares'ah. The mathaahib and their Imaams رحمهم الله تعالى are mujtahideen and the sharee 'ah has its rule regarding the mujtahid. The Prophet ﷺ said:

matters through a Divine Noor (Light) not through the samaa' (traditionally transmitted knowledge from the Qur'an and Sunnah)" In case the disclosed realities of things disagree with what is stated through samaa' then, according to Al-Ghazaalee, they [the successful] will subject the texts to ta'weel. Seelhyaa'. V. 1.p. 104.

"If a judge gives verdict according to the best of his knowledge and his verdict is correct (i.e. agrees with Allaah and His Messenger's verdict), he will receive a double reward, and if gives a verdict according to the best of his knowledge and his verdict is wrong (i.e. against that of Allaah and His Messenger) even then he will get a reward.\(^{451}\)

Second: What is this 'Ilm whose meanings cannot be defined by words and numbers...? Is it the "combined structures" which we cited earlier? Is it something which the Prophet (ﷺ) and his companions understood? The truth is that he (ﷺ) did not teach this Ummah an 'Ilm which constitutes a dispute and which is inconceivable to put an end to. Allaah said:

> [O you believe! Obey Allaah and obey the Messenger (Muhammad (ﷺ)), and those of you who are in authority; and if you dispute concerning any matter, refer it to Allaah and His Messenger (ﷺ), if you believe in Allaah and in the Last Day. This is better and more suitable for final determination. [Soorat An-Nisaa; 4:59].](#)\(^{452}\)

\(^{451}\) Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V. 9, Hadeeth #450.

\(^{452}\) Allaah did not signify: "Refer it to Athwaaq, Kashf, Wajd..."
So, the way to deal with disputes is stated clearly in this Aayah: Refer all matters of dispute to Allaah and His Messenger. Any other way of reference is rejected because it falls under the general decree of the Prophet (ﷺ):

"He who does an act which our matter (i.e. our religion) is not in agreement with, will have it rejected. 453"

Certainly the Prophet (ﷺ) dealt with matters of 'Aqeedah and Ahkaam (Laws) but not with symbols, experiential indications, Wajd, etc.

Third. Had the Sufi l’Im of Al-Athwaq been something that will lead the traveler to Allaah, the Prophet (ﷺ) would have clarified what it takes to attain it and understand it. He would not leave it for the different tastes and experiences of people to define.

Fourth: What is the benefit in writing books explaining the works and words of sufism by Al-Ghurab when meanings cannot define them and when the elite understand them only through direct experience (Athwaq)! It is a circle of deception which starts, as one Sufi put it, with madness. May Allaah save the Ummah and those who are entering the Deen of Allaah from the path of mystic sufism.

3. Al-Ghurab states in his introduction to Sharh Kalimaat As-Sufiyyah...that the kufr which is understood by those who do not understand the technical terms of the Sufis is indeed, 'the 'kernels' of 453 Saheeh Muslim, V. 3, Hadeeth #4266.

Tawheed ⁴⁵⁴ and from the secrets of Ruboobiyyah intended for the elite..."

What is the point behind introducing terms that may lead people astray? Is this a wise move? Anyone who introduces anything into this Deen which may cause fitnah is to be rejected.

4. He relates the statement of Ibn 'Arab! that some of the Sufi masters and their followers, "Preserved the Prophetic state, the Divine Knowledge and the Divine Secret." ⁴⁵⁵

5. While the Prophet (ﷺ) says that, "The Angels were created from light," ⁴⁵⁶ Al-Ghurab states that Ibn 'Arabi said, "Angels were created from the Anfaas (Sing. Nafas: breath) of the children of Adam." ⁴⁵⁷ Is this from 'Uloom Al-Athwaal

6. Al-Ghurab, knowingly or unknowingly, reiterates one of the claim of the shee 'ah that 'Ali ﷺ had, like other members of the Prophet (ﷺ) family, special Divine Knowledge which was hidden in his chest.

⁴⁵⁴ This is the Sufi Tawheed!
⁴⁵⁷ Sharh Kalimaat As-Sufiyyah..., p. 22, quoting Ibn 'Arabi's Al-Futoohaat, part 2, p. 256.
⁴⁵⁸ Ibid, p.211.
Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar clearly stated that, "Some of the Shee’ah claimed that the Prophet's family, especially 'Ali had some revelations from Al-Wahiy which the Prophet specifically devoted to them!" Al-Haafith reported many narrations from 'Ali in which he denied such claims.\(^{459}\)

7. Al-Ghurab claims that Al-'Aarifun billaah (the Gnostics by Allaah) know of a person more than he knows of himself. According to him, "They have eyes in their hearts that are turned opened by the way of ma'rifah. They see through what is in you what you know not in yourself, because you do not have such eyes."\(^{460}\) Al-Ghurab is trying to explain what he attributed to Al-Junayd: "The 'Aarif (Gnostic) is the one who reveals your secret while you are silent."

8. Al-Ghurab follows Ash-Sha'raanee's style in relating stories from the world of Sufism. In one case he related (without Isnaad)\(^{461}\) that Al-Junayd and a group of Sufi masters took a state of wajd on Mount Sinai. A monk from a nearby monastery heard them and asked them whether what they were doing under the influence of wajd (dancing, screaming, etc.) was special to some people from the Ummah of Muhammad? In his answer, Al-Junayd emphasized that what the monk saw was something specific to the elite of this Ummah. The monk stated that Al-Junayd was saying the truth. This surprised Al-Junayd who asked the monk, "How did you know that I was truthful?" The monk replied, "It is because I have read in the Injeel that was revealed to 'Eesa Ibn Mariam [Jesus, son of Mary] that the people of distinction amongst the Ummah of Muhammad (m) wear Al-Khirqah, 462 eat chunks of bread, live at ease on what is adequate, fear Allaah, turn to Him..."

9. Al-Ghurab tells stories that there are special Sufi saints called Rijaal Al-Maa' (Lit. The Men of Water), they live under water at the bottom of seas and rives, not everyone knows about them. 463

The Prophet(ﷺ) said in the Hadeeth reported by Jaabir.

> "The throne of Iblees is upon the sea and he sends detachments [to different parts] in order to put people to trial and the most important figure in his eyes is one who is most notorious is sowing the seed of dissension." 464

462 Khirqa: (Lit. a rag, a tatter), A piece of cloth or a piece torn off a garment.. A ragged garment continuously patched as it wears and particularly worn by a Sufi disciple as a sign of poverty and renunciation of the world. Al-Ghurab, like many Sufis, claim that 'Umar Bin Al-Khattaab *4fe used to wear a garment having thirteen patches. (Ibid, p. 328). This is a false and fabricated report as Ibnul Jawzee and As-Syuti reported. [See Ibnul Jawzee's Al-Mawdoof ‘aat, 3:49-50, and As-Syuti's ^/la ‘alaa’ Al-Masnoo ‘ah Fil Ahaadeelh Al-Mawdooh ‘ah, 2:264-265.]

463 Sharh Katimaal As-Sufiyyah..., p. 275.

464 Saheeh Muslim. [See English Translation, V. 4, hadeeth #6754, p. 1472.]
In the introduction of his book Sharh Kalimaat As-Sufiyyah, Al-Ghurab took it upon himself to follow the method of "scholarly research" in his approach to explain the sufi technical terms.

10. Al-Ghurab tries to explain a fabricated hadeeth: "Allaah created Himself by saying that: "All of the minds rejected this transmission because of the lack of understanding of what it means."

According to Al-Ghurab, each person having a certain maqaalah (doctrine) regarding Allaah, Most High, conceptualizes something as being Allaah. Consequently, he or she worships this something, and, according to Al-Ghurab, this something is nothing else but Allaah because Allaah Alone is the One who created that conceptualized something. 465

Whether a hadeeth is fabricated or inauthentic is irrelevant to the Sufis because their awliyat may receive revelation while present in a state of Tajalee in which Prophet Muhammad (ص) and Jibreel (ص) are manifested. In such a state, the Waliy is certain of the authenticity of any particular narration. To put it simply: They receive in a state approved by Allaah. According to Al-Ghurab, such Sufis are called Anbiyaa' Al-Awliyyaa' (The Prophets of the Awiyaa'). 466 Ibn 'Arabi claims to have presented all of the Ahaadeeth before the Prophet (ص) in a state of wakefulness and that he (ص) said regarding certain 465 Sharh Kalimaat As-Sufiyyah..., p. 351. Imaam Ibnul Jawzee said:

"Undoubtedly, this hadeeth is fabricated, and a Muslim would not compose something like this! It is one of the weakest and most inconsistent of the fabricated narrations because it is impossible, since the Creator does not create Himself." [See Ibnul Jawze Al-Mawdoo'aat, 1:105-106.]

466 Al-Figh 'Inda Ash-Sheikh Al-Akhbar, p. 28. One of the matters of Fiqh which Ibn 'Arabi declared to be waajib (obligatory) is the Hajj on every Muslim and non-Muslim! Ibid. p. 326.
Ahaadeeth which were reported to be authentic by the way of hadeeth science: "I did not say them!" Regarding other narrations which were determined to be weak by the way of critical studies of the transmissions, he (whoever) said: "I said them."

This contradicts the essence of the claim that sufism is based upon the Qur'aan and Sunnah. Sufism that adopts the path of Al-Hallaaj and Ibn 'Arabi is a mystic path ruins the belief and way of thinking of the individual. It is certainly beautified in the eyes of its followers because it is something that lblees likes.

11. Al-Ghurab dedicated one of his books to Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) describing him as Qutb ul-Arwaah (The Axis of The Souls) and Rooh ul-Mawjoodaat (The Soul of Beings), and Al-Insaan Al-Kaamil (The Perfect Man).  According to Al-Ghurab, "The Muhammadee Soul has defined manifestations in the Universe. The most perfect of which are in Qutub Az-Zamaan (The Axis of Time); in the afraad (Sing.fard), in the Khatm Al-Wilaayah (The end of the Sufi Sainthood) and in Khatm Al- 'Aammah (The end of the 'common people') who is 'Eesa (Jesus)."

12. Then he specifies one of the functions of the Perfect Man. According to Al-Ghurab,'The Perfect Man is 'Amad As-Samaa' (The...
Support of the Heaven) through whom Allaah withholds the very being of the heaven from falling on the earth..." 471

13. According the mystic Al-Ghurab, the angels are forever in a state of continuous prostration to the Perfect Man.472

14. The responsibilities of preserving the faith, sainthood, prophethood, and the Message of the Deen are specifically distributed amongst Prophet Idrees, Prophet 'Eesa, Prophet Ilyaas, and Al-Khidr, each of whom is a Qutub!!473

15. According to Al-Ghurab there is something called Al-Khalwah Al-Ilyaahiyyah Bil Ghawth (The Divine Soltitude with the Sufi Succor) and that this Divine Soltitude is from the special mystical secrets. 474

There are other hallucinations, false reports, strange names, unknown names of angles, assistants and deputies to the Qutub, fabricated Ahaadeeth, and many cases of this Sufi mystical "knowledge" presented by this "specialist"! A Word From Ibn Taymeeyah

472 Ibid, p. 18.
473 Al-Ghurab in his Al-Qutub Al-Ghawlh Al-Fard, p. 5.
He wrote an important treatise entitled Ibtaal Wahdat Al-Wujud (Invalidating the Concept of Unity of Existence) in which he said: 475

"The objective [of his treatise] is to refute these sayings [supporting Wahdat Al-Wujud] and distinguish the guidance from misguidance. As to the repentance of those who uttered this concept and whether they died in a state of Islaam, it is a matter which rightfully belongs to the King, the All-Knower. He [Allaah] accepts the repentance from His slaves and Forgives sins. It is a possibility that the majority of those who uttered such concepts had repented and Allaah, Most High, is the One Who Forgives sin, Accepts repentance, and Who is Severe in punishment..."

Nuh Ha Meem Keller and his Distortions Regarding the Path of the Salaf and the Stand of Ibnul Qayyim & Ibn Taymeeyah

Know, may Allaah's Mercy be bestowed upon you, that there were and still there are many deviations from the Salaf's Path. They manifest themselves in different ways including:

1. The Scholastic and Philosophically-oriented sects.

476 One of those modern centers interested in propagating scholastic theology is HIT (International Institute of Islaamic Thought) in Herndon, Virginia, USA. This institution recommended Nuh Ha Mim Keller's Reliance... its notes, commentaries, appendices, etc. Similarly, Al-Azhar recommended the book because of the Ash'arite orientation of the people of influence in these institutions. The truth, however, is that Nuh Ha Mim, HIT, and the Azhar are Ash'arites when it comes to the tenants of faith. Hence, they are in agreement and it is not surprising that Taha Jaabir Al-'Alwani, president of HIT recommended the book which contains the basics of the Ash'arite thoughts of Al-Ghazaalee and others. The irony is that the founder of the Ash'arite scholastic school, Abul Hasan Al-Ash'aree abandoned it and took the creed of the Salafis firmly established in the last book he wrote Al-Ibaanah.

The HIT claims that it is set to promote the Islaamic Da 'wah according to sound knowledge. Given the research capabilities committed to the people working in HIT, it would have been sound to refer the Reliance... for a review of its matters of 'Aqeedah and mysticism! This was not done.

On the other hand, Muslims are to be cautioned against the indiscriminative and generalized attacks against Al-'Ilm Al-Mawrouth, lit.. The Inherited Knowledge, championed by Taha Jaabir Al-'Alwaanee and the so-called modernists like Famhi Huwaiidee, Fathee 'Uthmaan, Raashid Ghanushi and others. These people consider the Inherited Knowledge as a "poisonous obstacle" against Islamic Renaissance. The objective is to set their rationale as a substitute! Their generalized attacks call for complete liberation from the Inherited Knowledge and substituting for it what they call Al-Mashroo' Al-Hadaaree (The Civilized Project)! The need to present something acceptable to the West has its toll on the way of thinking of these think tanks and their sponsors!

The response to this approach is that their generalization includes the Inherited Knowledge of the Sahaabah, and the scholars who followed them. The So/a/and their followers challenged and continue to challenge the inherited obstacles of the innovators, scholastic theologians, philosophers, orientalists, and the Ash'arite, Mu'tazilite, Matureedile sects and their followers from the so-called modernists!
2. Blind imitators of the Mathaahib.

3. The mystic sects and their disciples including Al-Qubooriyyun (who call upon the dead, ask for their intercession and take their graves as sites of worship).

4. The so-called modernists who give precedence to the human rationale over textual evidences.

5. Those who don't take by Sabeel Al-Mu 'mineen (the Prophet ﷺ and those who follow his path from the Sahaabah and from those who came after them until the Day of Resurrection) in the understanding, deductions, and applications pertaining to all aspects of Deen.

6. Those who closed the door of Ijthaad thinking that the Ummah, after the four Imaams, have no qualified scholars who are able to deduce rulings based upon the general guidelines of Islaamic fundamentals.

The followers of the Salaf from the learned scholars of hadeeth continue their efforts to protect the Sunnah from the weak and fabricated-hadeeth and stories. Under the pretext of civilization and modernization, men and women are allowed to mix, Christians and Jews are brought in to the twentieth century theater of "inner faith dialogue" in which everything that is common between them and us is discussed and stressed except for Tawheed: It is considered controversial and divisive!!! We seek Allaah's help against such corrupt concepts and approaches reminding them of the authentic hadeeth of the Prophet (ﷺ); "He who follows a way other than ours is not from us!" [Saheeh Al-Jaami', #5439]. I ask Allaah ﷺ to guide to His Straight Path those who are deceiving themselves and others, and to make us hold strong to the path of the righteous predecessors. 411 Imaam Maalik, Imaam Abu Haneefah, Imaam Ahmad, and Imaam Ash-Shaafi'ee, may Allaah's Mercy be upon them.
7. Those who want to turn the Muslims into democratic parties in order to share in the so-called legitimate games of modern politics raising its banner: "We are looking for coalitions! We have no enemies and we don't have any animosity towards anyone."478

8. Those who raise the banner of Takfeer 479 without proper understanding of the matters of faith and what contradicts it. This leads to blood shed and murder in the name of Islaam! It also paves the 478 This is the basic move of some Islaamic political organizations. They raise such banners in order to fit in with the trend of elections and win more votes. When they win seats in the parliaments, they say we have the legitimacy of the masses and that the masses are the source for every authority! Upon examining their literature one sees that it does not base itself on the doctrines of the Islaamic creed. They see that the difference with the Shee'ah is only "political"!!! This is what happens when politics blind the sight. An executive director of one of these organizations said regarding the interactions with non-Muslims: "It means that the separation between the Muslim and die non-Muslim should be in feelings only." ['Abdur Rahmaan AI-'Aamoodi, interviewed in the Kuwaiti magazine Al-Mitjam', #1187, 17thRamadaan 1416HJ/6-2-1996]. That is why it is okay for many who are influenced by such misconcepts to "join hands" with anyone irrespective of their creed and Minhaaj. I call upon the leadership of such organizations to study Islaam very well before rushing to the political scene. The "good" politics is based upon the good understanding of the Islaamic creed and the Minhaaj of the Prophet (ﷺ)in propagating Islaam. We can propagate Islaam without isolating ourselves from our creed nor compromising our principles. We can still do that in a good way and gain respect. The objective of influencing the political decisions cannot be achieved except when we stand on strong grounds: Good 'Aqeedah and cooperation on the truth. When we propagate the true message of Islaam that was propagated by the Sahaabah then, by the will of Allaah, we will succeed on all levels and in all walks of life. But when we tend to twist the texts to fit the wave of looking good according to culture and not Islaam, then we will "succeed" in a purely political sense! This turns the energy and mechanism of work into an apologetic and often compromising methodology even before we want to present Islaam to others who are far more technologically advanced than us!

way for the corrupt regimes to eliminate any good Islamic work under the pretext of "relieving the society from the Fundamentalists."

One case that is most directly related to the topics of this book is the stand of the innovators against the Salafee principles of Shayekh-ul-Islam Ibn Taymeeyah and Imaam Ibnul Qayyim Al-Jawziyyah. This stems from the fact that these two great scholars of Islam stood up firmly against the innovations of scholastic theology, and mysticism. Nuh Keller's biography of Ibnul Qayyim is just one sample of distortions against the true Salafee principles of Ibnul Qayyim and his Shayekh, Imaam Ibn Taymeeyah. He said: 480

1. "His most significant contribution however, was his editing and preparing for publication the writings of Ibn Taymeeyah, whose devoted pupil he was."

Response: This is only apart of the efforts of Ibnul Qayyim who has his own contributions and distinguished works. The known publications and the available manuscripts of Ibnul Qayyim exceed ninety eight. 481 Many of his works were burned by the enemies of the Salaf's path, especially from the supporters of the Sufi mystic Ibn 'Arabi.

480 Nuh Ha Mim Keller in the Reliance..., x!74, p. 1057.

2. That Ibnul Qayyim supported Ibn Taymeeyah "in what is right and what is wrong"...and that he followed him in "innovations (bida') in tenets of faith..."

Response: The fact is that Ibnul Qayyim was not a copy of Ibn Taymeeyah. True he stood up in support of the beliefs of the Salaf which Ibn Taymeeyah defended against the scholastic and philosophical approaches of the Mu'tazilah, Ashaa'irah, etc. True he was influenced by the way of exposing the falsehood of such sects which Ibn Taymeeyah laid down. All of that was not a blind imitation but with conviction and evidences. Imaam Ash-Shawkaanee said: "He has nothing but the Daleel (evidence) to rely upon. Rarely he would tilt towards the Math-hab's [position] not daring to ward off [the] established evidence...In most of his research, he was characterized with justice, taking by the Daleel as it fits...And [in his research] he brought forth [explanations] which others didn't [discuss] and provided a context which delighted those who want to establish their way according to the Daleel..." 482 It suffices to know that:

(a) Ibnul Qayyim had his own great collection of resources. In fact, he loved collecting books and he enriched his writings by his good use of these resources. Just examine one of his books and you will find his own research evident over the entire book. Had he been a copier of someone else, there would be no need to spend the time, money, and effort on other resources!

(b) There are topics and research work covered by Ibn Taymeeyah which are not covered by Ibnul Qayyim and vice versa. Consider just one great example: The book of ZaadAl-Ma'aad(The provision for the return) by Ibnul Qayyim. Is there a book by Ibn Taymeeyah like it?

482 Ash-Shawkaanee's Al-Badr At-Taali', 2:144-145, A reprint of the 1st editon, Daar As-Sa'adah, Egypt, 1348/1929.
(c) Those who have read some of the works of these two great scholars of Islaam know well that Ibnul Qayyim disagreed with Ibn Taymeeyah on many issues, including some aspects of the Hajj, some Tafseer, and other matters of fiqh. 483

3. That Ibnul Qayyim's poem An-Nooniyyah is "filled with corrupt suggestions about the Attributes of God, which Imaam Taqiy-ed-Deen Al-Subkee analyses in detail in his al-Sayf al-saqil (The burnished sword) giving the verdict that the poem's anthropomorphism of the Divinity are beyond the pale of Islam." He added that "The poem could not be openly circulated in Ibn al-Qayyim's lifetime but only secretly..." 484 Nuh Ha Mim went then on a lengthy deception considering that Ibnul Qayyim, like Ibn Taymeeyah, are Mushabbiha (liken Allaah to His Creation) because they affirm the Attributes of Allaah (like eyes, hands, face, etc.) without Ta'weel (figurative interpretation) according to the Ash'arite and Matureedite sects! (see x174 and x178).

484 It was famous and known. Imaam Ibn Rajab Al-Hanbalee heard it from Ibnul Qayyim a year before the latter’s death.
Response: The Salaf’s guidance to the understanding of the Sifaat (Attributes) of Allaah is a continuation of the original teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) absorbed and transmitted by the best of generations:

"77ie 6es/ of people are my generation then those who come after them, then those who come after them." 485

All other approaches to the understanding of Islaam in general and articles of faith in particular must be referred to the Path of those with whom Allaah is pleased. This is referred to in the Qur'aan as Sabeel Al-Mu 'mineen from the Sahaabah and those who follow their path:

And whoever contradicts and opposes the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) after the Right Path has been shown clearly to him, and follows other than Sabeel Al-Mu'mineen (the believers' way). We shall keep him in the path he has chosen, and burn him in Hell-what an evil destination. [Qur'aan, Soorat An-Nisaa',4:115].

485 Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V, 8, Hadeeth #652 and Saheeh Muslim, V.4, Hadeeth #6150-6159- It is also reported by Ahmad and At-Tirmithee.
And the first to embrace Islaam of the Muhaajireen\(^{486}\) and the Ansaar\(^{487}\) and also those who followed them exactly in faith. Allaah is well-pleased with them as they are well-pleased with Him. He has prepared for them Gardens under which rivers flow [Paradise], to dwell therein forever. That is the supreme success. [Qur'aan, Soorat At-Tawwbah, 9:100].

The exact Faith and Path of the believers did not indulge in philosophical, mystical, and scholastic disciplines or ways in order to achieve better guidance regarding the understanding of the meaning of the Sifaat of Allaah.

Abul 'Abbaas Al-Maqreezi\(^{488}\) said: "There is no report of any kind of narration whatsoever, authentic or inauthentic, from anyone of the Sahaabah رضي الله عنهم irrespective of their different ranks and great numbers- that he asked Allaah's Messenger about the meaning of anything with which He described His Noble Self in the Noble Qur'aan or on the tongue of His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ).

486 Those who emigrated from Makkah to Madeenah in compliance with a permit from Allaah to His Messenger (ﷺ) after the persecution of the believers by the Mushrikeen in Makkah intensified.

488 Abui 'Abbaas Ahmad Bin 'AH Bin 'Abdul Qaadir Taqiy-ed-Deen Al-Maqreezee (766/1365-845/1442), the famous Egyptian historian; born, lived and died in Cairo. He was appointed to lead the Hisbah: Enjoining the good when people neglect it and forbidding the wrong when it is manifested. An Imaam and a historian well remembered for his book: Al-Mawaa 'ith wal I'tibaar bi Thikr Al-Khilat wal Aathaar shortly referred to as Khitat Al-Maqreezee. [See Al-Badr At-Taali'1:79.]
In fact they knew the meaning of that (i.e. His Sifaat) and did not indulge in discussing them. They affirmed whatever Allaah designated to Himself from [the Attributes] of Face, Hand, and so forth, negating any resemblance to any created thing. They affirmed [the Sifaat] without Tashbeeh, far above any imperfection and without Ta'teel. None of them approached the Sifaat with any kind of Ta'weel. Unanimously, they held the position that the Sifaat should be accepted as they have come (i.e. in the Qur'aan and authentic Sunnah) ...And none of them knew anything about scholastic theological ways or philosophical matters."

489 They didn't ask about the Kayfiyyah (the how) of Allaah's Attributes. They knew the meaning, affirmed it, and believed it to be true without any resemblance to anything. On the other hand it is well known that the Sahaabah asked about the meaning as well as the "how" of many aspects of Salaat, Siyaam, Zakaat Hajj, and so forth. Al-Maqreezee commented: "Had any person asked him about the Divine Attributes, it would have been related to us as it is the case with the Ahaadeeth reported from him in matters of halaal and haraam, targheeb and tarheeb, the conditions of the Hereafter, battles and afflictions and so forth from what is contained in the books of Hadeeth..." See ref. below.

490 Many times we read that the Salaf say: "We believe in the Sifaat as they have come." Certainly they came in words that have intended meaning. Otherwise it would be an insult to Allaah to suggest that they were merely "expressions" without meanings! Does Allaah Say Words that have no meaning? Far is Allaah removed from every imperfection. Those who consign the meaning to Allaah are wrong because Allaah wants to be known by His slaves so that they worship Him properly. How would we know of Allaah if His Great Sifaat are words without meaning? The Sifaat have true and apparent meanings, however, the manner of such meanings is only known to Allaah, Most High. When Allaah describes Himself as having a Face. The obvious meaning of the Face is known, but the manner of the Face is known only to Allaah, Most Exalted, and His attributes cannot be likened to the attributes of His creation.

It is clear, therefore, that the best of generations did not resort to the Ta'weel of the Sifaat. They were the best of this Ummah in terms of the understanding of Deen and the Arabic language.

Contrary to the claims of Al-Subki [As-Subki], Nuh Ha Mini Keller and all of the scholastic theologians, Ibnul Qayyim, Ibn Taymeeyah and As-Salaf including the four Imaams, affirm the Divine Attributes of Allaah as they came in the Qur'aan and (or) authentic Sunnah without:

Tahreef (distortion of their meaning, e.g. Pleasure is an affirmed Attribute of Allaah To say that it means reward is a distortion), Ta'teel (negating their real meaning, e.g. denying the Attribute of Pleasure), Takyeef (assigning a manner to any attribute; only Allaah knows the "how" of His Sifaat), Tamtheel (drawing parallels to Allaah, e.g. to say that His Pleasure resembles such and such), or Tafweed (consigning the meaning of the Sifaat to Allaah maintaining that it is not the Thaahir (obviously-understood meaning) which is meant. The obvious meaning of Pleasure is known. The manner of Allaah's Pleasure, however, is consigned to Allaah). 492

Imaam Abu Haneefah (d. 150/767) said: "It is not proper for anyone to say anything about Ath-Thaat (the Essence) of Allaah, but 492 It was the Ashaa 'irah of the later times who wrongly ascribed the Tafweed to the Salaf. The Salaf approved the meanings of the Sifaat as befits the Majesty of Allaah ﷺ.

493 Abu Haneefah is An-Nu'maan bin Thaabit At-Tameemee Al-Kufi, the Imaam Al-Faqeeh. The first of the four great and renowned Imaams (80/670-150/767). He was known for his piety and Zithd. Like all other Imaams, he called upon the one must describe Him as He described Himself. He must not say of his own opinion anything about Him; Exalted, and Most High is the Rabb of Al- 'Aalameen.”

He also said: "Allaah is not to be described by the qualities of creation; His Anger and Pleasure are two of Allaah's Attributes without Kayf. This represents the saying of Ahlu Sunnah wal Jamaa'ah. He gets Angry and becomes Pleased, and it is not Muslims to follow the authentic Sunnah and stay away from blind imitation. He said: "When a hadeeth is found to be Saheeh, then that is my Math-hob," [See Ibn 'Aabideen in Al-Haashiyah 1:63.] This and other similar sayings by this Imaam are in direct opposition to the position of many blind imitators of Mathaahib.

Shark Al-'Aqeedah At-Tahaawiyyah, 2:427, checked by Dr. 'Abdullah At-Turkee and Shu'ayeb Ama'ut, Muassasatur-Risaalah. 1416/1995.

May Allaah's Mercy be upon Imaam Abu Haneefah. He affirms Allaah's Attributes without Takyeef as he said: "Without Kayf" which means that believers affirm the Thaahir (obvious meanings) of the attributes as they befit Allaah realizing that they do not ask "how" they are. The Thaahir (apparent) meaning of Anger and Pleasure are known, but how is His Anger or Pleasure is an unknown to us. His Anger and Pleasure as well as all of His Attributes are Perfect and best fits Him. None is like unto Him in His Anger and Pleasure as well as in all of His Attributes.

The readers should be cautioned that some writers consider the concepts of belief of Abul Hasan Al-Ash'aree (260/874-324/936) in their former state represent the Creed of Ahlu Sunnah wal Jamaa 'ah. Imaam Al-Ash'aree renounced almost all of his original beliefs regarding the Names and Attributes of Allaah and which largely were based upon scholastic theological grounds. In fact, the beliefs of Ahlu Sunnah, including those of the four honourable Imaams, are free from philosophical and scholastic rhetoric. Nuh Ha Mim Keller, the mystic Sufi of the Shaathilee Tareeqah, in his work on the Reliance... propagated many of the former beliefs of Abul Hasan Al-Ash'aree claiming that they represent the creed of Ahlu Sunnah (See sections w57.0; x291).
befitting to say that His Anger means His Punishment and that His Pleasure is His Reward." 497

Imaam Abu Haneefah affirmed the Attributes of the Hands, Face, Self, and so forth:

"He [Allaah] has a Hand, Face, and a Self as Allah stated in the Qur'aan. Whatever Allaah mentioned in the Qur'aan from the Face, Hand and Self, are Sifaat without Kayf and it must not be said that His Hand is His Ability or Ni'mah because this is an Ibtaal (nullification) of the Attribute..." 498 And when asked about the Attribute of Nuzool: Allaah descends to the lower heaven every night, Abu Haneefah 497 See I'tiqaad Al-Aa'imak Al-Arba'a, pp. 9-10, Daar Al-'Aasimah, Riyadh, 1412/1992, and Usool-ud-Deen 'Inda Al-Imaam Abu Haneefah, p. 311, Daar As-Sumayee'e, Riyadh, 1416/1996, both by Dr. Muhammad Bin 'Abdur Rahmaan Al-Khumayyis. Again, the Imaam is affirming the true and real meaning of the Attributes of Anger and Pleasure and negating the Tahreef (distortion) through metaphoric interpretation of the Sifaat which is wrongly called Ta 'weel by Ahlul Kalaam (people who follow scholastic theology) and those who are affected by this approach. The Anger and Pleasure of Allaah is not like what is attributed to the created as Abu Haneefah emphasized in the beginning of the above quoted statement. Had the Magnification of Allaah been linked to Ta 'weel, Abu Haneefah would have been the first to adopt it. Certainly Allaah gets Angry and becomes Pleased as He wishes and that does not necessitate that we liken Him to His creation when these Attributes are affirmed.

said: "He descends without Kayf." 499

"His Attributes are unlike those of the creatures: He Knows not like our Knowledge; He is Able, not like our ability; He Sees, not like our seeing; He Hears, not like our hearing; And He Speaks, not like our speaking." 500

This is exactly the position of Ibn Al-Qayyim and Ibn Taymeeyah regarding all of the Sifaat. Nuh Ham Mim Keller asserts in his own way that this was not the early position of the Muslims and that it represents a blameworthy innovation on the part of Ibnul Qayyim and Ibn Taymeeyah that "appeared more than seven centuries after the time of the Prophet (ﷺ)." (x174).

According to Nuh Ha Mim and his supporters from the Mutakalimeen (scholastic theologians) one should consider the words of Abu Haneefah and the rest of the Salaf to mean Tashbeeh and innovation because they affirm the Attributes of Allaah including His Hands and Face, which constitute a would-be dilemma as Nuh Ha Mim considers them! The words of the Salaf are an explanation of the great Aayah in Soorat Ash-Shu'ara (42:11):

500 Ibid, pp. 11 and 302, respectively, quoting Al-Fiqh Al-Akbar, p. 302. Also reported in Sharh At-Tahaawiyah p. 85, quoting Al-Fiqh Al-Akbar-Sharh'Ali Al-Qaari, pp. 15,31,32.
There is nothing like unto Him and He is the All-Hearer All-Seeer [Qur'aan, Soorat Ash-Shura, 42:11].

So, He ☻ Knows but not like us; He Speaks, but not like us; He Descends to the lowest heaven, but there is nothing like unto Him in His Descent; He Hears, but not like our hearing; He Sees, but not like us; He has a Face, but not like us; He Has Hands, but not like our Hands, and so forth. In the above Aayah, Allaah ☻ negates the likeness to anything but then He ☻ affirms that He is qualified with the Attributes of Hearing and Sight. Does this mean that He is like creatures that posses hearing and sight? Nay, the negation came in the first part of the Aayah. Nuh Ha Mim Keller cited the negation part and stopped short from quoting the affirmation part which is evidence against his delusions. It is also a solution for his "would-be dilemma"! Contemplate the following:

First: Allaah affirmed the Names and Attributes to Himself and negated the likeness of anything unto Him. Had the affirmation necessitated Tashbeeh, then it would imply contradiction in the Speech of Allaah and that its parts refute one another. 501 Far is Allaah above what Nuh Ha Mim and his associates claim.

Second: It is not necessary that agreement in name or in an attribute between two things obligates likeness between them. Indeed you see two people in a state of agreement where each is a hearing, seeing, and speaking human. In no way this necessitate likeness in the human values nor in the hearing, sight, and speech. You see that animals have hands, legs, and eyes. This kind of agreement does not necessitate that their hands, legs, and eyes are like each other. If this distinction in the agreement in names and qualities amongst the created things is clear, then the distinction between the Creator and the created thing is greater and more evident.\textsuperscript{502}

The meanings of Allaah's \textit{Sifaat} are true and known. When Imaam Maalik (d. 179/796, \textsuperscript{502}Ibid, pp. 46-47. The approach of those who deny the true meaning of the \textit{Sifaat} is contradictory: For example, while they say we defend the position that Allaah is not like His creation, they refuse to affirm the Face as one of Allaah's \textit{Sifaat} claiming that it should be interpreted in such a way that does not imply that He has a true Face, otherwise He would be like us! However, when it comes to the Attribute of Hearing, they affirm it saying that it is not like the hearing of the created! The path of the pious predecessors, however, is to affirm all the Attributes that Allaah affirmed to Himself in the Qur'aan or on the tongue of His Prophets believing that nothing is like unto Allaah in His Names and Attributes.

that He (Allaah)

hakeematan Istawaa (truly and really ascended) His 'Arsh...they, however, did not know \textit{كيفية الاستواء} the \textit{Kayfiyyah} (i.e. the "how") of His Istawaa' because the nature of the \textit{Kayfiyyah} is unknown. Imaam Maalik said: \textit{Istwa'} is \textit{Ma 'loom} that is, its linguistic meaning is known as Al-Qurtubee exactly stated in the Arabic text), and the Kayf is Majhool (unknown) and asking about it (i.e. about its Kayf} is an innovation'.

The same holds true with all of the other Attributes: The Face is not unknown (i.e. in its meaning), the how of it is incomprehensible, and believing that Allaah has a real Face that befits His Majesty and does not resemble or look like anything of His creation ("Nothing is like unto Allaah") is obligatory. \textit{This is the true Path of the Salaf}

The affirmation of Allaah's \textit{Sifaat} on their \textit{Thaahir} (apparent meaning) without Tamtheel was the norm until the horns of Bid'aa projected in the third century of Hijrah in the form of Ta 'weel.

The renowned \textit{Imaam Ibn 'Abdul Barr} said: "\textit{Ahlul Sunnah} agreed upon affirming the \textit{Sifaat} that came in the Qur'aan and Sunnah, believing in them and that they are to be taken on their Haqeeqah (real and true meaning) and not according to Majaaaz (metaphoric interpretations)."

Imaam Ash-Shaafi’ee (d.204/820) said, "The saying of the Sunnah which I hold to and which I found those whom I have seen holding like Sufyaan, Maalik, and others is testification that none has the right to be worshipped but Allaah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allaah, that Allaah is above His 'Arsh over His heaven, He draws near to His creation as He wishes and :

Yoonus Bin 'Abd Al-'Alaa said: "I heard Imaam Ash-Shaafi’ee ‘...Affirming these Attributes [of Allaah] repudiating any relation to Tashbeeh as Allaah negated the resemblance of all other things to Himself in His saying:

509 Ibid, p. 177.
In his book As-Siyar, Ath-Thahabee reported that Imaam Ash-Shaafi‘ee said: "We affirm these Sifaat which came in the Qur'aan and in the Sunnah and we repudiate the likeness of anything to Himself as He negated it in His saying:

There is nothing like unto Him and He is the All-Hearer AH-Seer [Qur'aan, Sooral Ash-Shura, 42:11].

The position of the Imaam of Ahlu Sunnah, Imaam Ahmad Bin Hanbal (d.241/855) was very well manifested in his stand against the Jahmiyyah who nullified the Names and Attributes of Allaah imputing Tashbeeh on anyone who affirms the Sifaat as Allaah and His Messenger (ﷺ) affirmed. He said, "Jahm Bin Safwaan claimed that whoever affirms the Sifaat with which He has qualified Himself with or relates (the Sifaat) with which His Messenger qualified Him, then he is a Kaafir and he is from the Mushabbiha." 512

Amazing! Reading the words of Nuh Ha Mim Keller and associates and comparing them to the position of those who consider the Muslims 511 The followers of Jahm Bin Safwaan, the student of Al-Ja'd Bin Dirham, both of whom were executed for their apostasy. Their doctrine represented a denial of the Attributes of Allaah. The Jahmiyyah also declared that the Qur'aan was created and not the literal Words of Allaah. The Jahm denied that Allaah spoke to Musa.

who affirm the Sifaat of the Hands, Face, Nuzool, etc. without Tamtheel, as Mushabbiha, we find a striking resemblance!

Imaam Ahmad Bin Hanbal's position is the same as that of the early three great Imaams. He said, "Ascribe to Allaah the Attributes with which He qualified Himself, and deny those which He denied with His Self." 513

"...These are the Sifaat of Allaah with which He qualified Himself, and we neither reject nor deny." 514

"Allaah shall be qualified only with those Sifaat with which He has qualified Himself or His Messenger has qualified Him. Nothing should be said beyond the Qur'aan and the Hadeeth." 515 Imaam Ahmad affirmed the Sifaat of the Hands, Face, Fingers, Nuzool, Kalaam (Speech with a Voice), Foot, and so forth which came in the Qur'aan and authentic Sunnah without Ta'teel, Ta'weel, or Tashbeeh, and without Kayf. 516 affirm the Sifaat on their Thaahir which fits the Majesty of Allaah without likeness to His creation, nor Ta 'eel, or Takyeef (stating the manner of the Attribute).

Nuh Ha Mim Keller defends blind Taqleed (imitation) of the Mathaahib and tries to justify that one may not follow other than the four schools (b-contents, b7.6) and that it is even obligatory to accept the authority of qualified scholarship (bl.l-Al-Buti) and that it is "forbidden to follow rulings from schools other than those of the four Imaams (b7.6-Ba'aliwi)." The four Imaams are described by Keller (bl.2) as having "absolute *Ijtihaad." Given these positions, and knowing that Keller chose a book of Fiqh to represent the Shaafi'ee school of thought (see his Introduction), then it is all the more reason to follow the Imaam of the school in matters of 'Aqeedah and accept his clear position about the Attributes of Allaah. The position of the four Imaams are clearly distinct from the approach of the scholastic theology which is largely based upon the Greek philosophy and which was absorbed with varied degrees by the Mu 'tazilah, Al-Jahmiyyah, Al-Ash'aree (before his return to the way of As-Salaf), and the later of the Ash'arite and Maturidite schools who alternate in their Ta 'eel (nullification) of the Sifaat between Ta 'weel and Tafweed. As a matter of fact, Imaam Ash-Shaafi'ee stood firmly against scholastic theology which nullifies the Attributes of Allaah. Is Keller aware of Ash-Shaafiee's position? Indeed he is (a4.2 of Reliance...).

Imaam Abul Hasan Al-Ash'aree affirmed the Attributes of the Hearing, Seeing, Eyes and Face, Istiwa', Nuzool (Descent to the lowest heavens) without a Kayf (i.e. without explaining "how" are His hands, "how" is His Face, "how" does He Hear, See, Descend, etc.). He rejected the "metaphoric" interpretation of these Attributes by the deviant sects, like Al-Jahmiyyah and A-Mu 'tazillah and without having to face the "dilemma" which some of the later Ashaa’irah (Keller included) put themselves in. 517

It is worth reminding Nuh Ha Mim Keller of the words of one of the people he trusts, Shu'ayeb Arna'ut (x331). After he mentioned the importance of the issue of the Sifaat in 'Aqeedah, Shu'ayeb gave the different positions of understanding of this matter stating that there are those who:

1. Generally affirmed the Names but denied the Sifaat.
2. Affirmed the Names and Sifaat, but denied the apparent meanings of the Sifaat and subjected them to Ta 'weel, changing their Thaahir (obvious meaning);

3. Took the position that it is obligatory to believe in all of the Names and Attributes which came in the Book of Allah and in the authentic Sunnah, accepting them 'Alaa Thawaahiriha (according to their obvious meanings), negating the Kay/iyyah (their states) and Tashbeeh (resemblance to anything). The people who take by this saying are the ones who are called As-Salaf and Ahlu Sunnah. 518

517 Al-Ibaanah ‘an Usool ad-Diyaanah, pp. 120-140, reviewed by Fawqiyyah Husein Mahmood, 1397/1977, Daar Al-Ansaar, Cairo. The second print of Al-Ibaanah is by Da'irat Al-Ma'arif Al-Uthmaaniyyah, India, 1400/1980 as quoted by Dr. 'Abdur Rahmaan Bin Saalih Al-Mahmood in his book Mawqif Ibn Taymeeyah minal Ai-Ashaa 'irah. In the Indian copy the same topic is discussed on pages 45-46 and 51-58. See also Al-Asha'ree's book Maqaalaat Al-Islamiyy-een, p. 345, reviewed by Muhammad Muhye-ed-Deen 'Abdul Hameed.

Shu'ayeb agrees with the affirmation of the haqeeqah of the Sifaat' favor of Allaah and that, "As-Salaf As-Saalih who represent Ahlu Sunnah wal Jamaa 'ah affirmed the basic known meaning of the Sifaat in the Qur'anic or the Prophetic text and halted from trying to busy themselves in determining the Mutashaabih, which is the Kayfiyyah (the manner of the Sifaat)... Then he strongly criticized the position of those who were influenced by the scholastic theology and their deviation from the Path of the Salaf. He stated their perplexity and their wish to return to the truth so that this becomes, "an admonition and an example for those who are in the beginning of their following of the Khalaf's Math-hob, defending it, turning away from the Salaf's Math-hab, warning from it and labeling its adherents with Murooq (renunciation of the Deen) and Tashbeeh.”

Shu'ayeb then cited the return of Imaam Abul Hasan Al-Ash'aree, the founder of the Ash'arite school, to the Salaf's path exemplified by Imaam Ahmad. The position of the father of Imaam Al-Haramayn, Shayekh 'Abdullah Bin Yoosuf Al-Juwaynee, is another classical case of those who were in perplexity regarding the matter of Ta 'weel (figurative interpretation) of the Sifaat. He called upon the Shaafi'ee fuqahaa' who resorted to Ta 'weel to re-examine their stand and take by the Salaf's way of affirmation without Ta 'weel, Ta 'teel, or Tamtheel. He affirmed that the texts of the Sifaat have true and real meanings (Haqaa'iq) and that there was nothing in the sayings of the Prophet (ﷺ) to indicate that he needed to comment on the obviously understood meanings of the Sifaat or change their Thaahir by means of Ta’weel, noting that amongst those who used to attend his meetings were the bedouin, the learned, the ignorant, etc. He pointed that the problem with the people of false Ta’weel is that they, "Did not understand the Sifaat of Allaah except in favour of the creatures," meaning that the first thing that comes on their mind once they deal with Allaah's Attributes is creation! This led to either total denial, negation, or diverting the Thaahir of the Sifaat via Ta’weel under the pretext of negating Tashbeeh.\(^{522}\)

Keller knows well that the most scholastic theologian of the Ashaa’irah, Al-Fakhr Ar-Raazi, who spent almost his entire life in the wilderness of scholastic rhetoric and whose books are taken as a reference by the later of the Ashaa’irah, stated, "I wish I did not work with 'Ilmul Kalaam (scholastic theology)" and he cried.\(^{523}\)

\(^{522}\) Ibid, pp. 16-20.

\(^{523}\) Reported by Ibn As-Salaah as quoted by Shaykh-ul-Azhar Mustafa 'Abdul-Raazik in his introduction to Ar-Raazi's book Itiqaadaal Flraaq Al-Muslimen wal Mushrikeen, p. 20 and p. 22. It is important to remember that Imaam Al-Haramayn, Al-Juwaynee (d. 478/1085) رحمه الله, who is said to have been the first to resort to Ta’weel of the Sifaat, retracted from the figurative interpretation of the Sifaat. He however, retracted from this position, but like many of the late Ashaa’irah, he resorted to Tafweed'. consigning the meaning of the Sifaat to Allaah claiming that the Thaahir (obviously-understood meaning), is not the intended meaning, something which they erroneously attributed to the Salaf. The truth, however, is that the Salaf affirm the obviously-understood meaning of the Attributes of Allaah, but they consign the manner (i.e. the "how") of the Sifaat to Allaah. Imaam Ath-Thahabee reported that before his death, Al-Juwaynee denounced scholastic theology and fully supported the position of the Salaf. See Ath-Thahabee's*’Ulw (Beirut, Lebanon: Al-Maktab Al-Islami, 2nd edition, 1412/1991, checked by Ash-Shaykh Al-Albaanee*), p. 175.
Had his path been the same as that of As-Salaf he would have not retracted from it.

I end this section by two statements which illustrate the middle course of the Salaf with regard to the Magnificent Attributes of Allaah, the Most High:

Nu'aym Bin Hammaad, the Shayekh of Imaam Al-Bukhaaree, who said:

Shu'ayeb correctly observed that the author of Aqaaweel Ath-Thiqaat did not comment about some of the statements in his book which doesn't represent the path of the Salaf (including Tafweed). He also pointed that Imaam Ibnul Jawzee's position pertaining to the Sifaat was "inconsistent: Sometimes he takes by the Salaf’s way of affirmation, and sometimes he opposes them by resorting to Ta 'weel, being influenced by his Shaykh Aba Al-Wafaa' Ibn 'Uqail who associated with the Mu'tazilah, approving some of their views." Ibid, p. 23. In many of his commentaries on the book of Aqaaweel Ath-Thiqaat, Shu'ayeb refers to Shaykh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah for presenting the correct position regarding the understanding of the Sifaat. See pp. 30,47,49,50, 82, i04, 118, and 124. It remains to be seen, however, whether Shu'ayeb who appears to know Nuh Ha Mim Keller (xI33), is aware of what the latter has done by adopting the same misleading views of Zaahid Al-Kawthari (d.1371/1951) and Hasan As-Saqaaf (a close associate of Nuh Ha Mim) regarding the Salafee positions of Ibnul Qayyim, and Ibn Taymeeyah. The envy and hatred colors the words of these people. What would you think of someone who called Ibnul Qayyim, "Donkey, billy goat, liar, cursed, has no Deen nor rationale, ignorant, Khaarijee (following the path of the Khawaariji), impudent, stupid, foolish, innovator ..."? He accused him of Zandaqah, Kufr, and other things as well, all in Al-Kawtharee's commentary on As-Subkee's As-Sayf As-Saqil fee Ar-Rad 'ala Ibn Zafil, calling Ibnul Qayyim by Ibn Zafil which is invented by Al-Kawtharee as being Ibnul Qayyim's maternal grandfather. See "Ibnul Qayyim Hayaatuwhu wa Aatharuhu, and Mawaariduh, by Shaykh Bakr Bin Abu Zayed, pp. 32-33.

324 He stood firm against the Fitnah doctrine of the Mu 'tazilah and was imprisoned for refusing to accept it. He died in his jail in 229/844 at an age of eighty years. [See Ath-Thahabee's Al- 'Uluw] p. 184.
Whoever likened Allaah to His Creatures, he has committed Kufr, and he who denied the Attributes by which Allaah qualified Himself, then he has also committed Kufr. The Attributes by which Allaah qualified Himself and those that were narrated about Him by His Prophet (ﷺ), will not be called Tashbeeh or Tamtheel.” 525

Shaykhu-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah;

"Ahlu Sunnah wal Jamaa'ah do not deny the Attributes with which Allaah has qualified Himself, nor do they commit Tahreef on the basis of reasoning by different statements, nor do they indulge in wrong Ta 'weel (distortion of the obvious meaning by various interpretations) of the Names of Allaah and His Aayaat, nor do they liken His Attributes to those of His creatures and nor do they describe their states (Takyeef), because there is nothing is in the likeness of Allaah, nor is anything comparable or partner to Him. Not to follow analogy from amongst His creatures to demonstrate likeness and comparability with Him.” 526

525 Ibid, p. 184. Shaykh Al-Albaanee said that the Isnaad of the narration from Hammad is saheeh. After reporting the above statement of Hammad in Siyar 'Alaam An-Nubalaa, Ath-Thahabee commented, "This statement is true..." and further explained the rejection of the two extremes: Those who deny and (or) distort the literal wording of the Sifaat by means of false Ta 'weel (distortion or alteration), and those who exaggerate in affirming them thinking that they are of the same kind as those of the creature, i.e. people of Tashbeeh.

526 Al-'Aqeedah Al-Waasitiyyah by Shaykh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah, p. 35, English translation by Daar-us-Salaam Publications, Riyaadh, K.SA. Such clear words by Ibn Taymeeyah are considered Tashbeeh by Nuh Ha Mim Keller and associates (x 174).
1. Ahlu Sunnah affirm the Sifaat as they came in the text (s).
2. Ahlu Sunnah affirm that the meaning of the Sifaat is obvious and naturally fits the context of the text (s). The meaning varies in accordance with the context.
3. They affirm that nothing is like unto Allaah's Thaat, His Names, Attributes and His Actions.

In the Qur'aan, the Hand, one of Allaah's Attributes is used in the following Aayah:

\begin{align*}
\text{"Verily, those who give Bai'ah (pledge) to you (O Muhammad) they are giving Ba'iah to Allaah. The Hand of Allaah is over their hands."} \\
(Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Fath, 48:10).
\end{align*}

The Hand of Allaah is affirmed, nothing is like Him in His Hand.

The obviously-understood meaning is that the Prophet (ﷺ) directly took their pledge, and not Allaah. But since the Prophet (ﷺ) is a Messenger of Allaah who relates His Message, therefore, giving a pledge to him, is a pledge for the One Who Sent Him, i.e. Allaah. Allaah says in a similar meaning:

\begin{align*}
\text{He who obeys the Messenger (Muhammad, has indeed obeyed Allaah.} \\ (Qur'aan, Soorat An-Nisaa', 4:80).
\end{align*}

527 See Al-Qawaa'id Al-Muthlaa by Shaykh Muhammad Bin Saalih Al-'Uthaymeen, p. 54.
Secondly, the Hand of Allaah is true and real in the manner that suits His Majesty and it is above them, because it is an Attribute of Allaah Who is High above His creation, ascended His 'Arsh. The apparent meaning holds. It does not necessitate that Allaah's Hand is directly touching their hands. Can't you see that the obvious meaning in saying, "the sky is over us" does not mean that it necessarily touches us? To Allaah belongs the most Exalted example.

Then we read in the Qur 'aan that:

\text{وَقَالَتْ الْيَهُودُ إِنَّ رَبِّنَا كَفَيْكَ مدْنَانَا وَلا تَكُونِيْنَا مِنَ الْمَآثِرِ}

[Qur'aan, Soorat Al-Maa'idah5:64],

"The Jews say: "Allaah's Hand is tied up (i.e. He does not give and spend of His Bounty). Be their hands tied up and be accursed of what they uttered. Nay, both His Hands are widely outstretched. He Spends Of [His Bounty] as He wills.""

The obviously-understood meaning in their saying "Allaah's Hand is tied up" is explained in the context of the Aayah when He says: "He spends of [His Bounty] as He wills." "He proves liberality for His Self, that is, His both Hands are open to grant and to be generous." The Hands are affirmed and the Thaahir (obvious) meaning is evident.

Also we read the Aayah:

\[528\] "Shark Al-Waasitiyyah, by Muhammad Khaleel Harraas, English translation, p.79."
"[Allaah] said [what means]: "O Iblees! What prevents you from prostrating yourself before that which I have created with Both My Hands."
[Qur'aan, Soorat Saad 38:75].

It is impossible that "Both My Hands" means "with My power," because the cursed Iblees was also created by Allaah's Power, nor does it refer to His Ni 'mah (Favour), because of the Tashdeed. 529

The grammatical form asserts two real Hands. It is not fit to use in the sense of power or favor, because it is not right to say that Allaah created Adam with his two powers, or two Favours! He, Allaah, created Adam with both His Hands. The Command, the Will, and the Hands of Allaah all were combined in the creation of Adam and in the manner that suits His Majesty.

"Do not they see that We have created for them of what Our Hands have created, the cattle so that they are their owners." [Qur'aan, Soorat Yaaseen, 36:71],

What is the apparent meaning of the Aayah? Does it mean that Allaah has created the cattle by His Hands as He has done in the creation of Adam? Or that He referred the "creation" to His Hands meaning Himself? The first is not the obvious meaning because the Arabic tongue does not denote it:

529 Tashdeed: The characterizing of a letter by a lengthened equivalent in grammatical analysis and in prosody to doubling, denoted in writing by the sign called Shaddah, i.e. by the sign over that letter. See Lane's Lexicon, V.2, p. 1518.
"And whatever of misfortune befalls you, it is because of what your hands have earned." [Qur'an, Soorat As-Shoora, 42:30],

Does the meaning refer to the earning of the hands or the earning of man? It certainly includes what is done by other than the hands. Compare it, however, with:

"Then woe to those who write the Book with their own hands (بأيديهم), and then they say: 'This is from Allaah,' to purchase with it a little price."
[Qur'an, Soorat Al-Baqaraa, 2:79],

This is a clear reference to the direct handling of things. Had the meaning been that Allaah has created the cattle by His Hands as in the case of Adam, the text would have been: "We have created by Our Hands, the cattle...!" Allaah does not intend confusion for His slaves. All Praise is due to Him 🙏

A False Report

Nuh Ha Mim reported (w6.2) that Al-Ghazaalee said: "I have heard some members of his (Imaam Ahmad's) school say that he forbade metaphorical interpretation of all but three expressions, namely the Prophet's having said (ﷺ):

1. "The black Stone is the right hand of Allaah in His earth."
2. "The heart of the believer is between two of the fingers of the Merciful."

3. "Verily, I find the Nafas (see below) of the All-Merciful from the direction of Yemen."

First: Shayekh-ul-Islaam Ibn Taymeeyah said: "This story is a lie falsely ascribed to Ahmad." ⁵³⁰

Second: The first hadeeth is false: Ibnul Jawzee said, "It is inauthentic," and Ibnul 'Arabi (not the infamous Ibn 'Arabi) said, "hadeeth baatil (untrue)." Shayekh-ul-Islaam said: "Its isnaad is not established.

حَدَّثَنَا زَهَيرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ وَأَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ كَبْنِيَّ عِلْبَةَ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ زَهَيرُ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُرْسِلٍ اَلْمُقْسِرِيِّ قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا حَبْشُوُةُ أُحْمَرْبَيْنِ أَبُو هَارِيَةَ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ الْحَلْبِيَّ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَفْوِرَةَ بْنِ أَبِي إِسْحَاقِ يَوْقَتُ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ: "إِنَّ قُلُوبَ بَنِي آدمَ كَلَّمَهَا رَبُّهُمُ نِّعْمَةً صَرَفَ فَلْوَنَا عَلَى طَاعَتِكُمْ". [رواه سلم]

The Prophet (ﷺ) said: "All the hearts of the offspring of Adam are between two fingers of Ar-Rahman's Fingers as one heart, He turns it [in any direction] as He wills." Then Allaah's Messenger (ﷺ) said: "O! Allaah, the One Who Turns the hearts, turn our hearts towards Your obedience."

⁵³⁰ Al-Fataawaa, V.5, p.m.
Shayekh Muhammad Bin Saalih Al-'Uthaymeen said: "The Salaf, Ahlu Sunnah took by the Thaahir (obvious meaning) of the hadeeth saying that Allaah has true Fingers which we affirm to Him as affirmed by His Messenger (ﷺ). The hearts, being between two of Allaah's Fingers, does not necessitate that they are in contact with the Fingers so that the hadeeth instills the delusion of hulool, and that the Thaahir, therefore, must be changed! Nay! The clouds are held between the sky and the earth and it does not come in contact between either one. It is also said: "Badr is between Makkah and Madeenah" although it may be at a distance apart from either one. So the hearts of Banee Aadam are all between two of Ar-Rahmaan's Fingers is true and real in meaning and that this does not obligate neither contact nor hulool". 531

The state in which the hearts are between Allaah's Fingers is unknown. The manner suits His Majesty.

Third: The third hadeeth was reported by Ahmad in his Musnad. It is also reported by others as well. He (ﷺ) said:

"إِنِّي أَجِدُ نَفْسَ الرَّحْمَنِ مِنْ فِلِ الْيَمِنِ.

"Verily, I find the Nafas (see below) of the All-Merciful from the direction of Yemen."

The word Nafas is an quasi -infinite noun of the verb Ngaffasa (past tense), Yunafis (present verb), Tanafess (infinitive noun) as the lexicologists said in the Qaamus, the Sihaah, Al-Misbaah, Maqaayees

Al-Lughah, and An-Nihaaya.\textsuperscript{532} [See also Lane's Arabic English Lexicon, p. 2826, #2). It means everything by which grief, sorry, or anxiety is removed or cleared away. In the \textit{Qaamus} it is said: He (Allaah) removed, or cleared away, his grief, or sorrow, or anxiety." Accordingly, Shayekh Al-'Uthaymeen said: "The hadeeth is to be taken on its \textit{Thaahir}, meaning that, 'Allaah removes or clears away the grief and unease of the believers by means of the people of Yemen." Shayekh-ul-Islaam said in his \textit{Fataawaa}, V. 6, p. 398: "The saying of the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ}\), "From the direction of Yemen," clarified what is intended in the \textit{hadeeth} for it is obvious that Yemen has no relation to \textit{Sifaat} of Allaah  تعال. It is from Yemen, however, that came the people who love Allaah and Allaah loves them. They were the people whom Allaah addressed:

\textit{Ya a'lima adhinn 'anhawa min yarrada?}{ }\textit{Baann} min ummima fi waati ilahya lillahi yasassumu bihuwa wa jumhurituhum.\textsuperscript{532}

"O you who believe! Whoever from among you turns back from his \textit{Deen} (Islaam), Allaah will bring a people whom He will love and they will love Him." [\textit{Qur'aan}, Soorat Al-Maa'idah, 5:54].

And it is narrated that when this \textit{Aayah} was revealed, he \(\text{ﷺ}\) was asked about such people and he mentioned that they were the people of Abu Musa Al-Ash'aree (i.e. people of Yemen)...They were the ones who fought Ahlur-Riddah (those who turned away from Islaam after the death of the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ}\)) and took over their towns. A Call To Those Who Believed Nuh Ha Meem! 534

It is not easy for anyone to stand against the way of the truth. The struggle between the path of falsehood and that of the truth will continue until the time when the Hour will be established. What is important is that the Muslim dies on the Sunnah and not the Bid'ah. He, therefore, should seek the truth to succeed in this life and in the next to come.

One of the forces of Bid'ah is mysticism which is a strange body that feeds on ignorance. Ignorance is the fertile soil for the growth of deception, which is the main weapon of the mystics. Knowledge, however, is the impenetrable barrier that stands to protect the Muslim against all forms of evil forces. It exposes the deception and its people.

Nuh Ha Mim Keller compiled subjects in the Reliance... which are blind imitations of the mystic Sufi path and promotion of deviant distortions of the Islaamic creed regarding the Names and Attributes of Allaah. The book could be very deceptive for those who are not aware of the true nature of mysticism and of the various deviant sects whose thoughts continue to exist [and are also taught] in many parts of the Muslim world.

534 The case of Nuh Ha Mim Keller is very much representative of those who follow the late Ash-’arie scholastic theology and share a brand of mysticism and blind imitation of Mathaaahib. The dangerous aspect is the deception approach which is used by those who hold to such concepts. In this regard, one does not see a great deal of difference between the concepts and approach of Nuh Ha Mim and those of another person by the name of Hamzah Yoosuf. In fact, this work has covered many thoughts which are shared by both. I ask Allaah, the Most High, to protect the Muslim brothers and sisters from all forms of corrupt creeds and methodologies, and to guide all Muslims to the truth.
Also the reader is cautioned not to be misled by having some of the Mathhab-based fiqh material presented in Nun Ha Mim Keller's Reliance... One truly benefits from the fiqh that is supported by authentic evidences. This does not negate the presence of overall sound judgements by the Shaafi'ee faqeeh Ibn Naqeeb Al-Misri in the Reliance... However, the sound part of the fiqh matters are mixed with the poison of corrupt concepts of belief and mysticism propagated by Nuh Ha Mim Keller in the book. This is the danger which is wrapped in nice words, like: "Our way is based upon the Qur'aan and Sunnah."

Nuh Ha Mim Keller used the weapon of deception. Seeking Allaah's help in the first place, I put an effort that came in the form of this book to expose a major part of his deception and that of his school of mysticism. Insha' Allaah the light that has been shed is enough to expose the English-speaking Muslim community world-wide to the truth. I ask Allaah to bestow his guidance on Nuh Ha Mim Keller and to grant him the right way out of mysticism. Allaah is the All-Hearing, All-Able.

I call upon the publisher of the Reliance... to re-examine his position towards the book and correct what has been done. I trust that he was not aware of the seriousness of the matter. What is presented in this book did not cover all aspects of Nuh Keller's distortions. There are many things that need to be addressed. So, I hope that the publisher commits himself to the spread of the Da 'wah of the Salaf by publishing their works. It is certain that all of us will be asked about what we do!
MODERN LOOKS DO NOT CHANGE REALITIES

Today mystic Sufis attempt to influence the Muslims, especially in the West, by presenting themselves as followers of "mainstream or traditional Islaam," and that those who expose the corrupt doctrines of esoteric Sufism are named 'the extremist Salafis." They strive to look on media channels as "lovers of humanity," and stress the call for "Unity with diversity," meaning that the Muslim should "understand and tolerate" the different philosophies amongst Muslims misleadingly claiming that the basic foundations of the creed ('Aqeedah) are agreed upon by all Muslims but there is diversity in the branches of the religion! According to these mystics, those who expose the corrupt philosophies of mysticism, Shee 'ism, scholastic theology, and so forth, are against the unity of the Ummah and that they are the extremists.

Those who propagate the mystic orders are trying to revive the doctrines of the mystic Ibn 'Arab! whose words about "diversity" is the essence of the "modern mystic unity":

"Be careful not to restrict yourself to a particular (or distinct) creed and deny everything else otherwise you would miss a great deal of good. Rather you would miss knowing the matter as it is. So, be within yourself an (Hayouli: A substance) for all the forms of creeds, for Allaah is Greater than being limited by one creed and excluding another." 536 Now try to contemplate the following statement made by a leading mystic of the Naqshbandi order by the name of Hisham Kabbani. When asked about the "greatest daa'ee (caller) he has known, he flashed a broad smile and excitement shone in his eyes, "The greatest da'ee we are now seeing in the entire world is Mawlana Shaykh Nazim Adil al-Haqqani, to whom the people are running in droves...from every corner of the U.S., from as far away as Australia, they are running to Shaykh Nazim, because his heart is so open to all people—it is like an ocean." When asked what he meant by "an ocean," he answered: "An ocean of Allaah's Love for all humankind, His Creation" 538 Does Allaah love the unbelievers and the hypocrites from the humankind? Allaah is far removed above what these mystic ascribe to Him. Also the fact that humans are Allaah's Creation does not necessarily mean that He loves them. The mystics do not differentiate between Allaah’s Kawnee (universal: pertaining to creation) and Shar’ee (legislative) commands. Under His Kawnee command, submission is common to all of the creation, none of them being able to escape it. Under the Kawnee command, Allaah creates what He wills but he does not necessarily like what He willed to pass. He willed for Iblees to exist and He hates him. Under His Shar’ee commands, Allaah ordered mankind and jinn to worship none but Him. His command may or may not be executed. He loves those who submit to His command and worship none but Him, while He hates those who reject it and associate partners with Him in worship. May Allaah, the Most High, guide those who were deceived by the mystic paths to the truth.

537 See pages 117-119, 121 and 128 for a summary of their doctrines on Wahdatul Wujud and some of their mystic ways.

A Summary of Matters That Oppose the Path of As-Salaf As-Saalih

The following characteristics are in opposition to the path of As-Salaf As-Saalih;

1. Denying that Allaah ascended His 'Arsh (Throne) above the seven heavens in the Most Majestic manner that suits Him, and that He is distinct and separate from His Creation.

2. Denying, altering, or insisting on figuratively interpreting the Names, Attributes and Actions of Allaah.

3. Denying, or altering the actual meaning of Ru'yah: The Seeing of Allaah by the believers on the Day of Resurrection.

4. Making analogous comparisons between Allaah and His Creation, leading to Tashbeeh (making parables) or Ta 'teel (denying or 539 We ask Allaah's Forgiveness for some of the great scholars of Ahlu Sunnah (e.g. Al-Haafith Ibn Hajar, Imaam An-Nawawee, and others) who may have indulged in figurative interpretation of some of Allaah's Sifaat (Attributes). On the other hand it is not right to exaggerate in rejecting all of their works. They have great contributions which enriched the understanding of the Sciences of Hadeeth, Fiqh, Usool, Tafseer, etc. While they may have been influenced by some aspects of the late Asha'rite school, they are not considered to be followers of the systematic methodology of this school. And Allaah knows best. See the Introduction in Ar-Rudud Wat-Ta'qeebaal 'ala ma Waqa'ah HI Imaam An-Nawawee Fee Shark Saheeh Muslim Min At-Ta 'weel Fee As-Sifaat...' by Shaykh Mashoor Bin Hasan Aal Salmaan. suspending the obvious meanings) of the Names, Attributes, or Actions of Allaah.

5. Complete or partial denial of the intercessions approved by Allaah, or confirming intercessions not approved by the Sharee 'ah.

6. Complete, partial denial, or figurative interpretations of revealed information on matters of Al-Ghayb like As-Siraat, Al-Meezan, the Prophet's Hawd, the Torture or Bliss in the grave, the Angels, the Signs of the Hour, etc.

7. Denying the Kalaam (Speech) of Allaah.

8. Saying that the Qur'aan is not the Word of Allaah, but a creation of His!

9. Insisting that Eemaan is an uttering on the tongue only!

10. Denying that deeds fall under the meaning of Belief.

540 As-Siraat: The Bridge over the midst of Hell; It is extremely slippery. On it there are hooks, claws, and barbs. Over it mankind will pass. The believers, as Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) explained, "Will pass like the blink of an eye, like the lightning, like the wind, like the birds, and like the fast horses and camels. Some will be saved, some will be lacerated then set free, and some will be thrown into the Fire..." [See Saheeh Muslim, V. Hadeeth #352.]

541 Al-Meezaan: The Scale set up on the Day of Resurrection for weighing the deeds of men.

542 Hawd: The Pool of Allaah's Messenger ﷺ. He ﷺ said: "The size of my Pool is like what is between Jerusalem and San'aa in Yemen and it has drinking cups like the number of stars in the sky." [See Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree, V.8, Hadeeth #582.] It is referred to in the Qur'aan (Sooarah 108) as Al-Khawther in At-Jannah.
11. Denying that Eemaan increases with obedience, and decreases with disobedience.

12. Denying that Allaah's Actions are linked to His Wisdom.

13. Denying the Foreknowledge and the Writing of all measures and preordainment in the Allawh Al-Mahfooth (The Preserved Tablet).

14. Saying that man creates all or some of his own deeds.

15. Saying that man has no choice.

16. Contradicting the principles of Tawheed by offering any form of worship to other than Allaah.

17. Saying anything about Allaah or about His Messenger (ﷺ) without knowledge.

18. Arguing about the Qur'aan and Hadeeth, following what is not entirely clear to some, instead of referring it to the clear texts and (or) those learned scholars who follow the Salaf's Path thus eliminating any misunderstanding.

19. Complete or partial denial of the validity of the authentic Sunnah.

20. Resorting to Baatini interpretations of texts saying that the texts have an outer aspect and an inner (Baatini) aspect!

21. Exaggerating in matters of Deen, e.g. easily declaring that such and such is a Kaafir.

22. Exaggerating about the status of certain men, making of them holly, infallible, etc.
23. To hold sacred certain places like tombs, clothes, etc.

24. Innovation in Deen: Adding to, or deducting from the prescribed matters of Islaam. Introducing innovated celebrations and declaring them holly.

25. Laying basics and rules related to the understanding of Islaam without resorting to the Qur'aan, authentic Sunnah, & the Salaf's path.

26. Insulting the Sahaabah (The Prophet's companions) or declaring that most of them as Kuffaar as the Raqfidah (Receptionists) of the Shee'ah sect do.

27. Insulting The Salaf from Ahlul Hadeeth and their followers.

28. Making mockery of the Muslims who adhere to the authentic Sunnah.

29. Giving allegiance to groups and (or) parties irrespective of their creeds and (or) methodologies in the name of "uniting the Ummaah". This kind of "unity" which is not based on the true belief in Tawheed and on the way of the Salaf exemplified by the saying of the Prophet ﷺ: "My way and the way of my companions," keeps

30. Magnifying the civilization of the Kuffaar under the pretext of modernization and development! The injustice inflicted on some Muslims in their countries should not be the driving force for judging other societies. This may overshadow the Islaamic stand towards the Kuffaar.

31. Dissent against the Muslim rulers, even if they are ruthless, or oppressors. Islaam calls for patience under such conditions. The believer may give advice to the best of his ability, and deny the wrong in ways that may not lead to more evil. The confrontations with such rulers led and continues to lead to bloodshed, divisions, and a bad reputation that hinders the Da 'wah for Allaah. This does not mean the acceptance of wrong, neither it is a baseless excuse for advocating the munkar.

32. Following scholastic and philosophical ways, making them the reference for understanding the revealed texts.

33. Taking a strange stand towards the Bid'ah and the Mubtadi 'ah (innovators), by ignoring their Bida' for worldly or political gains!

The above positions may exist with varied degrees amongst those who follow any of them. And Allaah Knows best!

The deviation from the Minhaaj of As-Salaf is a very serious matter. Muslims know well that the split of this Ummah into many sects is real and that the protection from this is possible-by Allaah's will- once we take by the command of the Prophet(ﷺ): "My way and the way of my Sahaabah." It is Sabeel Al-Mu'mineen (The Way of the Believers) whom Allaah was pleased with and they were pleased with Him.

All Praise is due to Allaah, the Exalted. Any success in this work is from Allaah and any mistake is from me and shaytaan, and I ask Allaah to forgive me and to guide me and the reader to the path of As-Salaf As-Saalih and make us die on it. I thank Him for enabling me to finish this work and I ask Him JU; to accept it from me.

May Allaah, the Most Merciful, forgive me and my parents, my entire family, and the rest of the Muslim Ummah.

A REMINDER

• Allaah(א"א) said:

[Arabic text]

It is not for a believer, a man or woman, when Allaah and His Messenger have decreed a matter that they should have an option in their decision. And whoever disobeys Allaah and His Messenger he has indeed strayed in a plain error. [Qur’aan, Al-Ahzaab, 33:36].

• The Prophet(ﷺ) said: "It was the duty of every Prophet Allaah sent to guide his nation to the best of what he knew and to warn them of the evils of what he knew.” [Reported by Muslim].

• He (ﷺ) said: "The best speech is the Book of Allaah and the best guidance and example is that of Muhammad. And the worst of all things are the newly invented things (in religion), for every innovation is error and misguidance" [Reported by Muslim] and in another narration, "every newly invented matter (in religion) is bid’ah and every bid’ah is dalaalah (going astray) and every dalaalah is in the Fire." [Reported by At-Tirmithee and it is saheeh].

• In another warning, the Prophet(ﷺ) said: "Whoever introduces into this affair of ours something that we have not commanded it is to be rejected." [Reported by Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim].

[Reported by ibn Al Jawzee in Tablees Iblees and Al-Laalikaa'ee in Sharoo Usooli 'Itiqod Al Ahl us-Sunnah].

• The innovators are friends of Shaytaan because, as Imaam Sufyaan Ath-Thawree explained, "Innovation is more beloved to Iblees than sin, since a person makes repentance from sin but does not repent from innovations (because he thinks bid'ah is from the religion). " [Al-Laalikaa'ee in As-Sunnah (no.238)].
