Introduction:

O Allah, bless the most noble of Your creation, Muhammad, and to Allah be praise, and that is all that need be said, and peace be upon His servants whom He has chosen. I bear witness that there is no god but Allah alone, He having no associate, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and His messenger.

Allah Almighty said: "O you who believe, guard your duty to Allah, and speak words truthful and He will put to rights your works for you and will forgive your sins." (The Chapter of the Clans 33: 70-71)

And the Almighty said: "Unto Him goodly words ascend, and the pious deed does He exalt." (The Chapter of the Creator 35: 10) And the Almighty said: "Therefore remember Me, and I shall remember you, and give thanks to Me." (The Chapter of the Cow 2: 152) And the Almighty said: "Remember Allah with much remembrance." (The Chapter of the Clans 33: 41) And the Almighty said: "And men and women who remember Allah much." (The Chapter of the Clans 33: 35)

And the Almighty said: "Those who remember Allah, standing, sitting and reclining." (The Chapter of the Family of 'Imran 3: 190) And the Almighty said: "when you come up against a group (of fighting men), hold firm and remember Allah much." (The Chapter of the Spoils of War 8: 45)

And the Almighty said: "And when you have completed you devotions, then remember Allah as you remember you fathers or with a more intense remembrance." (The Chapter of the Cow 2: 200) And the Almighty said: "Let not your wealth nor your children distract you from remembrance of Allah." (The Chapter of the Hypocrites 63: 9) And the Almighty said: "Men whom neither commerce nor sale beguiles from remembrance of Allah and the performance of prayer and paying Zakat1 to the poor." (The Chapter of the Light 24: 37)

And the Almighty said: "Remember your Lord within yourself humbly and with awe, without raising your voice, at morning and evening. And be not you to neglectful." (The Chapter of the Heights 7: 205)

Footnote:

1. Often rendered as 'alms tax' or 'poor dew', it is a tax levied on man's wealth and distributed among the poor.
1. The Merit of Remembrance

1) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

"Shall I not inform you of the best of your deeds, and the most pure in the eyes of your King, and the loftiest of them in your grades (of merit), (deeds) that are better for you than the spending of gold and silver, and better for you than meeting you enemy and striking their necks and they striking your necks?" They said: Yes indeed, O Messenger of Allah. He said: "The remembrance of Allah."

(Related by at-Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah)

2) The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

"The mufarridun\(^1\) (devotees) have surpassed (others)." They said: And who are the mufarridun, O Messenger of Allah? He said: "The men and women who remember Allah much."

(Related by Muslim)

3) Abdullah ibn Busr mentioned that a man said:

O Messenger of Allah, the revealed laws of faith have become too many for me, so tell me of one thing to hold fast to. He said: "Let your tongue continue to be moist with the remembrance of Allah the Almighty."

(Related by at-Tirmidhi)

4) On the authority of the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) who said:

"The likeness of him who remembers his Lord to him who does not remember his Lord is as the likeness of the living to the dead."

(Related by al-Bukhari)

Footnote:

1. Those who isolate themselves and devote themselves to the praise of Allah
5) From the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), who said:

“He who sits down without remembering Allah the Almighty has committed an omission which Allah the Almighty will hold against him, and he who lies down without remembering Allah the Almighty has committed an omission which Allah the Almighty will hold against him.”

(Related by Abu Dawud)
2. The merit of tahmid, tahlil, and tasbih

6) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

“He who says: There is no god but Allah alone, He having no associate, He has dominion, and thanks are due to Him and He is able to do all things - a hundred times a day - will have the reward equivalent to manumitting ten slaves. He will have written for him a hundred good deeds and will have erased for him a hundred bad deeds. He will have sanctuary from the devil for that day of his until he enters upon the evening, and no one will have brought anything better than he has, except for a man who has done more than he.”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

7) And he said:

“Whoever has said subhana 'llah wa bi-hamdih (How far is Allah from every imperfection! - and praise is due to Him) a hundred times in a day, his sins will be taken from him even if they are as the foam of the sea.”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

8) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

“(There are) two phrase that are light upon the tongue, heavy in the Scales, beloved of the Merciful: subhana'llah wa bi-hamdih (How far is Allah from every imperfection! - and praise is due to Him) and subhana'llah al-Azim (How far is Allah the Great from every imperfection!).”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

Footnote:

1) Tahmid: To say “al-hamdu lillah.”
2) Tahlil: To say “la ilaha illa’llah.”
3) Tasbih: To say “subhana’llah.”
9) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

“For me to say subhana ‘llah (How far is Allah from every imperfection!), al-hamdulillah (Praise be to Allah), la ilaha illa’llah (There is no god but Allah), and Allahu akbar (Allah is greatest) is dearer to me than that over which the sun comes out.”

(Related by Muslim)

10) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

“The phrases most dear to Allah the Almighty are four, and it matters not to you which of them you begin with: subhana ‘llah (How far is Allah from every imperfection!), al-hamdulillah (Praise be to Allah), la ilaha illa’llah (There is no god but Allah), and Allahu akbar (Allah is greatest).”

(Related by Muslim)

11) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

“Is any one of you incapable of gaining each day a thousand good deeds?” One of those who were sitting with him asked him: How does one us of gain a thousand good deeds? He said: “He says subhana’llah (How far is Allah from every imperfection!) a hundred times and there is written for him a thousand good deeds, or there are taken from him a thousand sins.”

(Related by Muslim)

12) On the authority of Juwayriyah, Mother of the Believers¹ (may Allah be pleased with her), that the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) went out from her home early in the morning when he had performed the dawn prayer, while she was in her place of prayer. Then he returned after the morning had come, and she was sitting down. He said: “Are you still in state in which I left you?” She said: Yes. Then the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

“After (leaving) you I said four phrases three times. Were they to be weighed against what you have said today they would outweigh them: I glorify Allah as many times as the number of His creatures, I glorify Allah as much as it pleases Him, I glorify Allah with a weight like that of His throne, I glorify Allah with (a quantity like that of) the ink (required) for His words.”

Footnote:

1) i.e.: The wife of the Prophet

13) He (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said to an Arab of the desert:

"Say: I glorify Allah, there is no god but Allah alone, He having no associate, Allah is truly the Greatest and much praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds, there is no strength nor power except through Allah, the Mighty, the Wise." He said: "Say: O Allah, forgive me, and have mercy on me, and guide me, and keep me in health, and provide for me."

(Related by Muslim)

14) On the authority of Abu Musa al-Ashari (may Allah be pleased with him), who said that the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said to him:

"Shall I not direct you to one of the treasures of Paradise?" So I said: Yes indeed, O Messenger of Allah. He said: "Say: 'La hawla wa la quwwata illa billah' (There is no strength or power except through Allah)."

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)
3. Remembrance of Allah the Almighty at the two ends of the day

Allah the Almighty has said: "O you who believe, remember Allah with much remembrance, and glorify Him morning and evening." (The Chapter of the Clans 33:41) And the Almighty has said: "And remember your Lord within yourself humbly and with awe, without raising your voice, morning and evenings. And be not you of the neglectful." (The Chapter of the Height 7:205) And the Almighty has said: "And extol the praise of your Lord at fall of night and in the early hours." (The Chapter of the Forgive 40:55) And the Almighty has said: "And extol the praise of your Lord before the rising and before the setting of the sun." (The Chapter of Qaf 50:39) And the Almighty has said: "Repel not those who call upon their Lord at morn and evening, seeking His Countenance." (The Chapter of the Cattle 6:52) And the Almighty has said: "And he signified to them: Glorify you Lord at break of day and fall of night." (The Chapter of Mary 19:11) And the Almighty has said: "And in the night-time also glorify Him, and at the setting of the stars." (The Chapter of the Mountain 52:49) And the Almighty has said: "So glory be to Allah when you enter the night and when you enter the morning." (The Chapter of the Romans 30:17) And the Almighty has said: "Perform prayers at the two ends of the day and in some watches of the night. Verily good deeds annul bad deeds." (The Chapter of Hud 11:114)

15) The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said:

"He who says when he enters upon the morning and when he enters upon the evening subhana 'llah wa bi-hamdih (How far is Allah from every imperfection! – and praise be to Him) - a hundred times, will not have anyone come on the Day of Resurrection with anything better than he has brought, except for someone who has said as he has said more."

(Related by Muslim)

16)

The Prophet of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), when he entered upon evening, used to say: "We have come upon the evening and dominion has come to Allah, and praise is to Allah. There is no god but Allah alone, He having no associate. To Him is dominion and to Him is praise and He is able to do all things. O my Lord, I ask you for the good that is in this night and for the good that is after it, and I take refuge in You from the evil that is in this night and from the evil that is after it. O my Lord, I take refuge in You from laziness and baneful old age. O my Lord, I take refuge in You from torment in the Fire, and from torment in the grave." And when he entered upon the morning he used to say: "We have come upon the morning and dominion has come to Allah."\(^1\)

(Related by Muslim)

17)

Abdullah ibn Khubayb said: We went out on a night of rain and great darkness to ask the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) to pray for us. We arrived where he was and he said: "Speak." I did not say anything. Then he said: "Speak." I said: O Messenger of Allah, what should I say? He said: "Say: He is Allah the One"\(^2\) and "the two Muawwidhahs – the two cries for refuge and protection."\(^3\) When you enter upon the evening and when you enter upon the morning – three times – and that will suffice you (as protection) from everything."

(Related by Abu Dawud, an-Nasai and at-Tirmidhi)

18) The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) used to teach each companions, saying:

"If one of you comes upon the morning, then let him say: O Allah, by You we have entered upon the morning and by You we have entered upon the evening, and by You we live, and by You we die, and to You is the Resurrection. And if he comes upon the evening, let him say: O Allah, by You we have entered upon the evening, and by You we have entered upon the morning, and by You we live, and by You we die, and to You is the final destiny."

(Related by at-Tirmidhi)

Footnote:

1. The rest of the prayer continues as above but with the relevant changes.
2. i.e., the Chapter of Unity (112).
3. i.e., the Chapter of Daybreak (113) and the Chapter of Mankind (114).
19)
On the authority of the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), who said: “The master prayer for forgiveness is: O Allah, You are my Lord, there is no god but You. You Have created me and I am Your servant, and I am (keeping) my covenant to You and my promise to You as much as I am able. I take my refuge in You from the evil that I have done, I acknowledge my wrongdoing, so forgive me, for there is no one who forgives sins other than You. He who says that, when he enters upon the evening and then dies that night, enters heaven; and he who says it when he enters upon the morning and dies that day, enters heaven.”

(Related by Bukhari)

Abu Bakr as-Siddiq (may Allah be pleased with him) said: The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “Say, if you have entered upon the moring or have entered upon the evening: O Allah, knower of the invisible and the visible, Creator of the heavens and the earth, Lord of everything and its king, I bear witness that there is no god but You. I take refuge in You from the evil of myself, and from the evil of the devil and his idolatry.” And in one versions (it says): “And I take refuge in You so that I may not commit against myself some evil, or bring it down upon a Muslim. Say it when you enter upon the morning, and when you enter upon the evening, and when you have taken to your place of sleep.”

(Related by at-Tirmidhi)

21)
The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “There is no servant (of Allah) who says on the morning of each day, and on the evening of each night: In the name of Allah, with whose name nothing in earth or in the sky brings harm, and He is the all-hearing, the all-knowing – three times – to whom any harm will come.”

(Related by at-Tirmidhi)

Footnote:

1. i.e. his tempting mankind with idolatry.
22) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “He who has said when he enters upon the evening: I am content with Allah as a Lord, with Islam as a religion and with Muhammad (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) as a prophet, it is incumbent upon Allah that He should cause him to be content.”

(Related by at-Tirmidhi)

23) The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) did not fail to say these prayers when entering upon the evening or entering upon the morning:

"O Allah, I ask of You well being in this world and in the Hereafter. I ask of You forgiveness and well-being in my religion and in my worldly needs, and in my family and in my wealth. O Allah, guard me from in front and guard me from behind, and from my right side and from my left, and from above me, and I take refuge in Your sublimity lest I be taken unawares from below me."

(Related by Abu Dawud, an-Nasai and Ibn Majah)
4. What is to be said on going to sleep

24)
The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), when he wanted to sleep, would say: “In Your name, O Allah, I die and I live.” And when he awoke from his sleep he would say: “Thanks be to Allah who has brought us to life after having caused us to die, and to Him is the Resurrection.”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

25)
The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), on repairing to his bed each night, used to bring the palms of his hand together and blow on them. Then he would recite into them: "Say: He is Allah the One ... and Say: I seek refuge in the Lord of the Daybreak ... and Say: I seek refuge in the Lord of Mankind ..." He would then wipe as much as he could of his body with them, starting with his head and face and (so down) the front of his body. He would do this three times.

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

26)
On the authority of the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), who said: “When you have repaired to your bed, then recite the Verse of the Throne – Allah, there is no god but He, the Ever-living, the Sustainer, the Self-sustainer ... until you complete it, and it will continue to be from Allah a protection for you and no devil will approach you until you enter upon the morning.”

(Related by al-Bukhari)

Footnote:

1. i.e. the recitation of the whole of the Chapter of the Unity (112), of the Daybreak (113), of Mankind (114).
2. i.e., with the palms of his hands.
3. The Verse of the Throne 2:255 reads: "Allah, there is no god but He, the Ever-living, the Sustainer, the Self-Sustainer. Neither drowsiness nor sleep comes to Him. To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on the earth. Who is he who shall intercede with Him save by His permission? He knows what lies before them and what behind them and they comprehend none of His Knowledge except that which He wishes. His throne encompasses the heavens and the earth, and He is not wearied by guarding them. He is the all-high, the all-exalted.”

27) On the authority of the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), who said: "He who recites the two verse from the end of the Chapter of the Cow\(^1\) at night will find them sufficient for him.”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

28) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: "If one of you goes to his place of sleep, let him say: In Your name, O Lord, have I laid myself down on my side and by You shall I raise myself up. If you take hold of my soul, then have mercy on it; and if You let it go, then guard it with which You guard Your pious servants. And if one of you wakes, then let say: Thanks be to Allah who has protected me in my body and returned to me my soul and permitted me to remember Him.”

(Related by at-Tirmidhi)

Footnote:

1. The Chapter of the Cow 2:285-286 reads:

285 - The Messengers believe in that which has been revealed to him from his Lord and (so do) the believers. Each one believes in Allah and His angels and His scriptures and His messengers - we make no distinction between any of His messengers - and they say: We hear, and we obey. (Grant us) Your forgiveness, our Lord. Unto You is the journeying.

286 - Allah tasks not a soul beyond its scope. For it (is only) that which it has earned, and against it (only) that which it has deserved. Our Lord! condemn us not if we forget or miss the mark! Out Lord! Lay not on us such a burden as You laid on those before us! Our Lord! Impose not on us that which we have not the strength to bear! Pardon us, absolve us, and have mercy on us, You, our Protector, and give us victory over the disbelieving folk.
29) He (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said to Ali and Fatimah: “If you have repaired to your bed, then say subhana’للل (how far is Allah from any imperfection!) - thirty-three times - and al-hamdu اللل (praise be to Allah) - thirty three times - and Allahu akbar (Allah is greatest) - thirty-four times.”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

30) The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), when wanting to go to sleep, would place his right hand under his cheek and then say: “O Allah protect me from Your punishment on the day You resurrect Your servants” - three times.

(Related by Abu Dawud and at-Tirmidhi)

31) The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), on repairing to his bed, used to say: “Thanks be to Allah who has given us to eat and to drink and who has met all our requirements and who has sheltered us. And how many are there who have no one to provide for them and give them shelter!”

(Related by Muslim)

32) He (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) ordered a man on going to his place of sleep to say: “O Allah, You have created my soul, and You will take it to Yourself. You possess its death and its life. If You make it live, then guard it; and if You make it die, then forgive it. O Allah I ask of You well-being.”

(Related by Muslim)

33) He (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) used to say when he had repaired to his bed: “O Allah, Lord of the heavens and Lord of the earth, and Lord of the Great Throne, O our Lord and Lord of everything, the Cleaver of the dry grain and of the date-stone, and He who has sent down the Torah, the Gospel, and the Quran, I take refuge in You from the evil of anyone capable of evil. It is You who are in control of him. O Allah, You are the First, there being nothing before You, and You are the Last, there being nothing after You. And You are the Outward, there being nothing above You, and You are the Inward, there being nothing below You. Discharge debts for us and free us from poverty.”

(Related by Muslim)
Footnote:

1. The Arabic word here used is “Furqan” which literally means “that which distinguishes right from wrong.” It is one of the terms used for the Quran.

2. Lit. have him by the forelock.

34) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “If you have come to bed, make your ablutions for prayer then lie down on your right side and say: O Allah, I have delivered myself to You, and have directed my face to You, and have entrusted myself to You, and have supported myself against You in both desire and awe of You. There is no refuge and no haven from You except to You. I believe in Your book which You have revealed and in Your Prophet whom You have sent. – if you die that very night, you will have died in professing the natural and true faith - and make them the last words you say.”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)
5. What is to be said by the person awakening from sleep at night

35) On the authority of the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), who said: "He who wakes up at night and says: There is no god but Allah alone, He having no associate, to Him is dominion, and to Him is praise, and He is able to do everything. Praise be to Allah and How far is He from every imperfection! There is no god but Allah and Allah is greatest. There is no strength or power save through Allah the Supreme, the Mighty. If after this he says: Allah, forgive me, or he asks (for something), it will be granted him. And if he has made his ablutions and has performed his prayer, his prayer will be accepted."

(Related by al-Bukhari)

36) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: "No one betakes himself to his bed clean and pure¹ and remembers Allah Almighty until sleep comes upon him, and he does not wake up for an instant in the night and asks Allah for something of the good of this world and the Hereafter without Allah granting him it."

(Related by at-Tirmidhi)

37) On the authority of the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) who said: "When one of you wakes up, let him say: Thanks be to Allah who has returned to me my soul and has protected me in my body and has permitted me to remember Him."

(Related by Ibn as-Sunni)

38) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) used to teach them² words (to be used) against fright: “I take refuge in the consummate word of Allah from His anger and from the evil of His servants, and His anger and from the temptations whispered by devils and from their presence.”³

Footnote:

1. i.e. in a state of ablution
2. i.e. His Companions
3. See the Chapter of the Believers 23: 97-98
6. What one should do on seeing something in a dream

39) Abu Salamah ibn Abdurrahman said: I heard Abu Qatadah ibn Ribisay say: I heard the Messenger of Allah say: "(Good) dreams are from Allah and (bad) dreams are from the devil. If one of you has seen (in a dream) something he dislikes, let him blow to his left three times when he awakes, and let him seek the protection of Allah from its evil, and it will bring him no harm, Allah willing."

Abu Salamah said: I used to have dreams (and regard them as) heavier upon me than a mountain, but when I heard this Hadith I paid them no attention. And in (another) version he said: I used to have dreams that would disquiet me until I heard Abu Qatadah say: I used to have dreams which would make me ill until I heard the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) say: "Good dreams are from Allah, so if one of you sees something (in a dream) that he likes, let him not talk of it other than to those he likes; and if he sees something (in a dream) that he dislikes, let him not talk of it at all."

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

40) And in a version on the authority of Jabir, the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) added: "And let him change over from the side on which he was."

(Related by Muslim)
7. The merit of acts of devotion at night

Allah the Almighty has said: “O you wrapped in your raiment, keep vigil the night long, save a little - a half thereof, or abate a little thereof or add (a little) thereto - and recite the Quran (in slow measured tones), for we shall charge you with a word of weight. Verily the vigil of the night is (a time) when impression is more keen and speech more certain.” (The Chapter of the Wrapped-up 73:1-5) And the Almighty has said: “And keep awake some part of the night for additional devotions, so that your Lord may raise you to a glorious state.” (The Chapter of the Children of Israel 17:79) And the Almighty has said: “And prostrate yourself to Him (a portion of) the night, and glorify Him throughout the lifelong night.” (The Chapter of Time 76:26)

41) On the authority of the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), who said: “Our Lord descends each night to the lowest sky when there remains the final third of the night, and He says: Who is saying a prayer to Me that I may answer it? Who is asking something of me that I may give it him? Who is asking forgiveness of Me that I may forgive him?”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

42) The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “The Lord is at His most near to the servant in the middle of the final part of the night. If you are able to be among those who are remembering Allah at that hour, then be so.”

(Related by at-Tirmidhi)

43) The Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “Verily in the night there is a period of time which no Muslim man happens upon and wherein he asks Allah (Exalted be He!) for something good from the things of this world and the Hereafter, without his being given it - and this is so every night.”

(Related by Muslim)

44) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “He who says on leaving his house: Bismillah (in the name of Allah), I have put my trust in Allah, there is no strength or power save in Allah, it is said to him: All requirements have been met for you, you have been protected, and you have been guided; also the evil turns away from him and says to another devil: What can you do with man who has been guided, whose requirements have been met, and who has been protected.”

(Related by Abu Dawud, an-Nasai and at-Tirmidhi)

45) Umm Salamah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) never left my house without glancing up at the sky and saying: “O Allah, I take refuge in You lest I go astray, or I am caused to go astray, or I commit a slip, or I am caused to commit a slip, or I oppress or I am oppressed, or I behave foolish or am behaved foolish against.”

65) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), when he began his prayer would say: “I have directed my face, as a true believer and not one of the polytheists, to His who has created the heavens and the earth. My prayers and my devotions, my life and my death, belong to Allah, Lord of the worlds; He has no associate, and thus have I been instructed, and I am one of the Muslims. O Allah, You are the Supreme Sovereign, there is no god but You. You are my Lord and I am Your servant. I have done wrong to myself, and I acknowledge my guilt, so forgive me all my sins; there is no one who forgives sin but You. Guide me to the best of morals, and no one guides to the best of them but You; avert from me the worst of them but You. Here I present myself to You and seek Your approval. All good is in Your hands. Evil is not Yours, and I am of You and to You. May You be blessed and glorified. I ask forgiveness of You and I turn to You in repentance.”

(Related by Muslim)

66) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) would commence his prayers when he performed them at night (with the words): “O Allah, Lord of Gabriel and of Mika'il and of Israfil, Creator of the heavens and the earth, Knower of the invisible and the visible. You judge between Your servants in that about which they differ. Guide me by Your permission to the truth about which people hold divergent views. Verily You guided whom You will to a straight path.”

(Related by Muslim)

67) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) would say when he rose to prayer in the middle of the night: “O Allah, praise be to You, You are the light of the heavens and of the earth and of those therein; and praise be to You; You are the Upholder of the heavens and the earth and of those therein; and praise be to You, You are the Lord of the heavens and of the earth and of those therein; and praise be to You, You are real, and Your promise is real, and Your words are real, and the meeting with You is real, and Heaven is real, and Muhammad is real, and the Day of Judgement is real. O Allah, to You have I submitted, and in You have I believed, and upon You have I relied, and to You I have returned in repentance, and for You have I contended is dispute, and to You have I submitted judgement, so forgive my early sins and my late sins, those I have kept secret and those I have done openly. You are my God, there is no god save You.”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

(Related by Muslim)

73) Awt ibn Malik said: I stayed up one night with the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) and he rose and recited the Chapter of Cow. He did not pass by a verse of mercy without stopping and asking for mercy, and he did not pass by a verse of punishment without stopping and saying “I take refuge in Allah.” He said: Then he bowed down for as long as he had been standing in prayer, saying in his bowed position: “Glory be to Him who possesses omnipotence and sovereignty, pride and greatness.” Then he said likewise in his prostration.

(Related by Abu Dawud and an-Nasai)

74) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) would say:

“Sami-a’llahu liman hamidah” (Allah hears him who has praised Him) when he was straightening up from the position of being bowed down; then, standing, he would say:

“Rabbana wa laka’l-hamd” (O our Lord, and praise be to You). And in another version:

“Rabbana laka’l-hamd” (O our Lord, praise be to You).

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

75) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), when he raised his head from the position of being bowed down, would say:

“O Allah our Lord praise be to You, filling the heavens, and filling the earth, and filling that which is between them, and filling anything further that You want, worthy You are of praise and of glory, (which are words) that are the most truthful a servant can say of You, and all of us are servants to You. O Allah, there is no withholding what You have given, and there is no one to give what You have withheld. He who possesses (worldly) fortune will not benefit therefrom (on the Day of Judgement).“

(Related by Muslim)

76) Rifa-ah ibn Rafi said: One day we were praying behind the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), and when he raised his head from bowing down he said: “Allah hears him who has praised Him.” A man behind him said: O our Lord, and to You is praise that is abundant, good and blessed. When he has finished the Prophet said: “I saw some thirty angels hastening to see which of them could write it down first.”

(Related by al-Bukhari)

77) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “The servant is nearest to his Lord when he is prostrating himself, so multiply (your) invocation (then).”

(Related by Muslim)

78) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) would say in his position of prostration: “O Allah, forgive me all my sins, the minor ones and the major ones, the first ones and the last ones, the open ones and the secret ones.”

(Related by Muslim)

79) Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: I could not find the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) one night (in his usual place of sleeping), so I searched round for him and my hand fell on the soles of his feet while he was in prostration, and they were raised. He was saying:

“O Allah, I take refuge in Your approval from Your displeasure, and in Your remission from Your punishment, and I take refuge with You from You. I cannot truly measure out praise enough for You, You are as You have praised Yourself.”

(Related by Muslim)

80) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) would say between the prostrations: “O Allah, forgive me, and have mercy upon me, and guide me, and restore me to well-being, and protect me, and provide for me.”

85) The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) would say among the final invocations he made between the saying of the Tashahhud\(^1\) and the Taslim\(^2\):

"O Allah, forgive me my early and later sins, those I have kept secret and those I have done openly, and those in which I have exceeded all bounds and those You know of better that I. You are Expediter and the Delayer,\(^3\) there is no god but You."

(Related by Muslim)

86) Ammar ibn Yasir (may Allah be pleased with him) performed a prayer and made it brief. One of the people said to him: You have reduced – or you have made bried – the prayers. He said: As to that, I said invocations in it that I had heard from the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him). When he rose to leave, a man from the people (present) followed him and asked him about the invocation, and he said (that it was):

"O Allah, within Your Knowledge of the unseen and Your ability to create, give me life so long as You know that life is best for me and give me death if You Know that death is best for me. O Allah, I ask of You that I should fear You in the unseen and in the seen, and I ask of You that I speak the truth, whether in contentment or anger, and I ask of You the middle way in poverty and riches, and I ask of You grace that will not run out, and I ask of You uninterrupted peace of mind, and I ask of You contentment after destiny (has been implemented), and I ask of You to ease of life after death, and I ask of You the delight of Your countenance, and the longing for meeting You in a not adverse and hurtful condition, nor in a state of discord that causes one to go astray. O Allah, attire us in the finery of faith and make of us rightly-guided guides."

(Related by an-Nasai)

(Related by Muslim)

88) When the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) finished his prayers he would say; "There is no god but Allah alone, He having no associate. His is the dominion and His the praise and He is omnipotent over everything. O Allah, there is no one to withhold what you have given, and no one to give what You have withheld. He who possesses (worldly) fortune will not benefit therefrom (on the Day of Judgement )."

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

89) And on the authority of Abdullah the son of az-Zubayr (may Allah be pleased with them both) that the Prophet used to say at the end of each prayer when concluding it: “There is no god but Allah alone, He having no associate. His is the dominion, and His the praise, and He is omnipotent over everything. There is no strength or power except in Allah. There is no god but Allah and we worship only Him. He has beneficence and He has superabundance, and to Him is goodly praise. There is no god but Allah. We are sincere to Him is religion, even if the godless dislike it.” And the son of az-Zubayr (may Allah be pleased with them both) said: The Messenger of Allah used to say aloud these words at the end of every prayer.

(Related by Muslim)

90) And on the authority of Abu Hurayrah (may Allah be pleased with him) that those of the Emigrants\(^1\) who were poor came to the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) and said: The affluent have made off with the highest degrees (of meritorious acts) and lasting felicity. They pray as we pray, and they fast as we fast, and they have a superfluity of riches because of which they are able to go on Pilgrimage and on the Umrah,\(^2\) and they wage holy war, and they give in charity. He said: "Shall I not teach you something by which to catch up with those who have surpassed you and by which you will surpass those who come after you and whereby there will be no one better than you other than he who has done as you have done?" They said: Yes indeed, O Messenger of Allah. He said: "You say subhana’Allah (How far is Allah from every imperfection!) and you say al-hamdu lillah (Praise be to Allah) and You say Allahu akbar (Allah is greatest) after every prayer thirty-three times.”

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)
91) On the authority of Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah), who said: "He who says subhān Allāh (How far is Allāh from every imperfection!) at the end of each prayer thirty-three times and who says al-hamdu lillāh (Praise be to Allāh) thirty-three times and Allāhu Akbar (Allāh is greatest) thirty-three times, and who completes the hundred by saying: There is no god but Allāh, He having no associate, His is the dominion and His the praise and He is omnipotent over everything – will have his sins forgiven him, even if they be as the foam of the sea.”

(Related by Muslim)

92) On the authority of the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him), who said: “There are two practices¹ – or two habits² – which no Muslim servant (of Allāh) keeps to without his going to heaven. They are easy and those who practice them are few. He says subhān Allāh (How far is Allāh from every imperfection!) at the end of each prayer ten times, and he says al-hamdu lillāh (Praise be to Allāh) ten times, and he says Allāhu Akbar (Allāh is greatest) ten times, and that makes one hundred and fifty on the tongue³ and a thousand five hundred in the Scales.⁴ He should say Allāhu akbar (Allāh is greatest) thirty-four times on going to bed and al-hamdu lillāh (Praise be to Allāh) thirty-three times, and subhān Allāh (How far is Allāh from every imperfection!) thirty-three times. This makes a hundred on the tongue and a thousand in the Scales.” He said: I have seen the Messenger of Allāh (may the blessings and peace of Allāh be upon him) counting them off on his hand. They said: O Messenger of Allāh, how is it that they are easy and that those who practice them are few? He said: “He (meaning the devil) comes to one of you (in his time of sleep), and he puts him to sleep before he has said (these invocations), and he comes to him in his prayers and reminds him of some worldly need before he says them.”

24. On praying for rain

119) On the authority of Jabir the son of Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with them both), who said: There came to the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) some women who were wailing,¹ and the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: “O Allah, send down on us a rain that is wholesome, gentle, productive, beneficial and not harmful, sooner rather than later” – and the skies opened on them. (Related by Abu Dawud and al-Hakim)

120) On the authority of A’ishah (may Allah be pleased with her), who said: The people complained to the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) of the drought, so he ordered a pulpit (to be brought) and it was put down in the place for holding prayers, and he assigned for the people a day on which to go out. So the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) went out when the sun’s rim made its appearance, and he sat down on the pulpit and said: “Allah is greatest” and “Praise be to Allah” (Exalted be He!) and then he said:

“You have complained of the dryness of your lands and of the rain holding back from you beyond its usual season, and Allah (How far is He from every imperfection!) has ordered you to invoke Him and He has promised you that He will answer you.” Then he said: “Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds, the Merciful, the Compassionate, Owner of the Day of Judgement.” (The Chapter of opening 1:1-3) There is no god but Allah, who acts as He desires. O Allah, You are Allah, there is no god but You, You are the self-sufficient and we are the needy. Bring down upon us the rain and make what You have brought down for us a power and a sufficiency for a time.”

Then he raised his hands, and he continued to raise them until one could see the whiteness of his armpits. Then he turned his back on the people, and he put the inside of his cloak outside, while raising his hands. Then he advanced upon the people, having come down (from the pulpit), and he prayed two rakas, and Allah (Exalted be He!) brought into being a cloud and there was thunder and lightning. Then, by the permission of Allah the Almighty, it rained, and he had not reached his mosque before torrents of rain flowed. When he saw the speed with which they sought shelter, he laughed (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) (so much) that his molars could be seen, and he said: “I bear witness that Allah is capable of doing everything and that I am the servant of Allah and His Messenger.” (Related by Abu Dawud)

27. What is to be said when there is rainfall

124) Zayd ibn Khalid al-Juhaniyy (may Allah be pleased with him) said: The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) led the morning prayer for us at al-Hudaybiyah [following rainfall during the night]. When he finished, he faced the people and said: "Do you know what your Lord has said?" They said: Allah and his Messenger know best. He said: "He said, this morning one of my servants became a believer in Me and one a disbeliever. As for him who said: We have been given rain by virtue of Allah and His mercy, that one is a believer in Me, a disbeliever in the stars; and as for him who said: We have been given rain by such-and-such a star, that one is a disbeliever in Me, a believer in the stars."

(Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim)

125) Anas (may Allah be pleased with him) said: A man entered the mosque on a Friday while the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) was standing delivering his sermon. He said: O Messenger of Allah, animals have perished and we are at our wits’ end, so pray to Allah to give us rain. So the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) raised his hands, then said: "O Allah, give us rain. O Allah, give us rain." Anas said: By Allah, we did not see any clouds or streaks of clouds, and there was no building or house between us and Salc. Then from behind it a cloud rose up, and when it was in the centre of the sky, it spread out and then it gave rain, and, by Allah, we did not see the sun for a week. Then the following Friday a man entered by that (selfsame) door while the Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) was standing and delivering his sermon, and he said: O Messenger of Allah, animals have perished and we are at our wits’ end as the roads are cut off, so pray to Allah to hold it back from us. So the Prophet (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) raised his hands, then said: "O Allah, round about us and not on us. O Allah, on the hills and the low-lying mountains, on the bottoms of water-courses, and the places where trees grow" - and it cleared and we went out walking in the sun.

36. On marriage

155) Abdullah ibn Masud (May Allah be pleased with him) said: The Messenger of Allah (may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) taught us the Sermon of Necessity:

"Praise be to Allah (we praise him), and of Him we seek help and of Him we ask forgiveness, and we take refuge in Allah from the evils of ourselves and from our evil actions. He whom Allah guides there is no one to make go astray, and he whom He leads astray for him there is no guide. I bear witness that there is no god but Allah alone, He having no associate, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and His Messenger. O mankind, fear your Lord who created you from a single soul and from it created its mate and from the two of them has spread abroad a multitude of men and women. Fear Allah in whom you claim (your rights) of one another and (observe) your ties to kinship. Verily Allah is a watcher over you. (The chapter of Women 4:1) O you who believe, fear Allah as He should be feared and observe your duty to Him, and do not die other than Muslims. (The Chapter of the Family of Imran 3:102) O you who believe, fear Allah and speak words that are just and true. He will then make right you actions for you and will forgive you your sins. Whosoever obeys Allah and His Messenger, he verily has gained a great victory. (The Chapter of the Clans 33:70-71)"
